OFF THE SCENT

Did you read about the hunt in Somerset that had to be suspended because the hounds had colds and couldn't smell anything?

LETTERS

Dear Readers,

Are you protective of your 'Port Isaac' telephone number? Would you like to avoid it becoming a 'Bodmin' number? It may be possible, if sufficient people object, to follow the example of other English villages which have managed to avoid being swallowed up by city/town exchanges. If you would support a lobby to retain our 'Port Isaac' identity, please contact me - Port Isaac 496.
Mrs. Mary Rayment, Trelights

Dear Sirs,

I am enclosing a cheque for £2.40 to cover a further year's [postal] subscription of 'Trio'.

I am sure this Newsletter is providing a very much needed service in the area and in Trelights it certainly keeps us very much in touch with events in Port Isaac which otherwise we would never hear about, even though we are in such close proximity. With all best wishes for the future of 'Trio'.

Mrs. Jean Nash, Trelights.

FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. M. Dawe of The Bungalow, Pennant, took place at St. Endellion Church last Saturday.

P.I.P'S. PANTOMIME

This year's panto - 'Aladdin' was a riot of laughs from the opening 'round' song, to the forest chase (plus hostage!) and to the Treasure Cave dance routines. An ambitious and successful production despite the far from ideal conditions of the Hall. It was a delight to see the whole cast of 29 lined up on the stage at the finale.
