

EDITORIAL

It is all too easy to forget, even take for granted, the wonderful scenery which is the main attraction of this part of Cornwall. Occasionally it is worth taking a ride on the bus into Wadebridge. Sitting high up behind large windows you can survey the landscape for miles around and get the most splendid views of all. Driving along in a car, all you can see are the hedgerows and the car in front, with an occasional tantalising glimpse of scenery through a gateway or when you go over the top of a hill. It may be quick and convenient, but it is a relatively monotonous way of getting from A to B. It can also be nerve-racking!

On the Monday bus, for example, you get revealing views across Port Gaverne Valley to Tregaverne Farm, Trewethart, and Treore standing against a green background of hills. This bus then goes along to Pendoggett, back down the road to St. Kew, over the bridge, round to go through the water-splash (when it isn't too deep, that is!) and along the road that takes the ridge of the hill beyond the school. It is actually quite difficult to work out the various groups of buildings you can see from this high vantage point - Trevathan and Treswarrow for example. Finally through Trewethern and Chapel Amble, up to Three Holes Cross where you get glimpses of the distant Camel Estuary, then down the A39 into Wadebridge. And all for a mere 45p!

RAFFLE RESULTS

There is £13 carried forward for anyone who thinks they are entitled and who should contact Councillor Dawe.

A further £30 was raised by a sponsored 'half beard trim' on the evening and this was also donated to the Body Scanner.

PARISH COUNCIL

Some of the items discussed at the monthly meeting at Port Isaac on 12th. March.

Mr. Provis said that the top of the coastal footpath wall should be the same as the wall by the Post Office.

Coastal Wall. Another site meeting to be held to decide length of post-and-rail fence. Approx. cost of this would be £5 per metre. Mrs. Cann said an estimate for a stone wall should be obtained.

Notices to be distributed via the postal service to Port Isaac, Trewetha, and Trelights, asking people not to leave litter lying around.

Footpath Clearing advertisements for tenders to be put on notice boards and in the Cornish Guardian.

Notice at Playing Fields - to be re-worded when the board is repainted.

St. Endellion Festival notice to organisers asking for no noise at night at Trelights Farm.

Telephone Numbers. A meeting is to be arranged with British Telecom, date to be announced, and neighbouring parishes on the Port Isaac exchange to be invited to send representatives.

Annual Parish Meeting. Two guest speakers have accepted invitations. Port Isaac Harbour Commissioners to be asked to send a representative.

Village Hall Representative. Mr. Welton is to represent the Parish Council at meetings of the Village Hall Management Committee in future.

Bus Shelter. After a vote of 4 against but 5 in favour of the scheme, it was decided to have a look at the site first. It was suggested that a position near the old council houses in Trewetha Lane would be most suitable.

Coastal Path - Pinehaven to Port Quin. Mr. Norris said that the variations to the original course of the path were only very slight.

Mineshaft Free Capping Scheme. Details of any shafts requested by 31st. March.

Combination of Three Church Parishes. Details received from Church Commissioners. Also on the future of Port Isaac Vicarage. Letter not read out.

Street Light - Trelights. The Clerk quoted Mr. Jeremy of SWEB as saying: 'next month - don't rush me!'

Tennis Courts. Sports and Recreation Council may be able to offer 75% grant towards cost which is likely to be between £7,000 and £12,000. The Council is to invite the contractors to visit the possible site.

Planning. Headlands Hotel: demolish existing staff accommodation and replace with mobile caravan. The Council made no observations.

Aerial Tintagel Terrace. Complaints have been received and the height has been reduced by 10 feet.

Pam Coulson Memorial Seat. A letter of thanks to be sent to Mr. Coulson for the seat on the cliff path.

Public Discussion. Mr. John Sherratt said that he thought that a bus shelter by the telephone kiosk at Mayfield Road would be too exposed and that the site near to Mrs. Procter's house would be much more suitable.

The next event in the Council's calendar is the Annual Parish Meeting when you can come to St. Peter's Church Hall for the public meeting. (See 'Calendar')

The next monthly meeting of the Parish Council will be at Port Isaac on Monday 16th. April at 7.30pm.

LETTERS

Dear Sir, I would like to thank all who helped, gave, or came to the Coffee Morning on March 8th. The sum of £60.30 was sent to Mount Edgcumbe Hospice. Sheila Jarvis, P.I.

Dear Sir, Happy second birthday to 'Trio' and congratulations to all who subscribe to it. Dates of forthcoming events a great asset. G.M.Billing, P.I.

Dear Sir, May I on behalf of Stephen express my deepest thanks for all the cards and letters he received when he was so ill. Also the loving prayers, thoughts, and wishes. He is at home with me and is making good progress each day. Thanks also for the many letters I received personally. P.S. A baby daughter for Paul and Debs. Joan Murray, P.I.

Dear Sir, I send the Trio to my son James who now lives and works in Holland. It is greatly appreciated by him and his family. May I quote a few lines from one of his letters . . . 'Varley' will always be 'Vairley' and if it is called differently in Port Quin it is because few, if any, local people live there any more. . . Keep up the good work,
Betty Platt, P.I.

[Actually many 'local' farmers refer to it as 'Varley' Ed.]
