

PARISH COUNCIL

Some of the business effected at the Annual Monthly Meeting at Port Isaac, Tuesday 15th. February.

As Mrs. Willmott was unable to attend the beginning of the meeting, Mrs. Barron was appointed acting clerk for the election of officers 1984 - 85:

Mr. Cunningham, Chair. unopp.
Mrs. Barron, Vice Chair. 4 votes, against Mr. Norris, 2 votes.

Dr. Barron, Treasurer. unopp.
Mrs. Cann, School Governors
Representative. unopp.

Playing Field Committee - Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Cann, and Mr. Bolton. unopp.

Mr. Welton, Tourism. unopp.
Mr. Bolton, Emergency. unopp.
Mr. Welton, V. Hall [elected 12.3.84].

Mr. Symons, Assoc. Town and Country P. Councils

Homer Park Forestry Grant.
Conifers will give colour in winter and also only trees to survive according to Forestry Commission. [Voice from public 'will ruin our valley - rotten old pines!']

Tennis Court. Mrs. Cann spoke of possible need for planning if new gateway needed. She also explained that a grant had to be received from the Parish Council before other grants forthcoming. These could be as much as £7,500 towards the £9,000 cost of the court.

Grant for Trio Newsletter.
Mr. Cunningham presented a statement of the costs of producing Trio, saying that he thought it an excellent thing, greatly welcome, and read by everybody. Mr. Bolton proposed an annual grant of £60, Mr. Norris seconded this and the motion was passed unopposed.

Footpaths.

Tenders received for clearance work: Mark Dawe £250 for all paths except Church Hill to Port Isaac Mill for which a tender of £30 was received from Mr. Watson.

Mr. Welton proposed acceptance.
Mr. Provis proposed that Mark Dawe be offered £20 more to clear around all seats again at the end of July; seconded by Mr. Norris and carried.

Margaret's Lane. Cllr. Dawe reported that surface repairs to be started 17.5.84 followed by work at Port Isaac Platt, Hartland Rd., and Tintagel Terr.

[At the time of writing Margaret's Lane has been resurfaced - see cartoon >]

Street Lights. Many failures were reported and the Clerk said that it was very difficult to get them put right. [Members of the public should report any lights out to North Cornwall
District Council at Camelford.]

Bus Shelter. A cantilever type shelter approved by Highways Dept. would cost £803 but strict limitations on where it could be erected. Item to be discussed at the next meeting.

British Telecom Meeting.

A Public Meeting at the Church
Rooms, Port Isaac, on Tuesday
19th. June at 7.30pm.
Mr. Parsons will attend and an invitation is to be sent to M.P. Gerry Neale.

Coastal Footpath Wall.

A quotation for £86 per metre considered too high and other quotes not forthcoming. A Countryside Commission Grant will probably be available for this work. Temporary 'danger' signs to be put up meanwhile.
£37 - £40 would be more reasonable. Cllr. Dawe proposed advertising for tenders in local papers, seconded by Mr. Provis.
Mr. Norris pointed out that the fencing on the path was in a bad state.

Look! Now they've taken the steps away in Margaret's Lane - there's buses!

Illegal Parking, Fore Street.

A letter from Chief Inspector Hallet said the problem will receive police attention whenever this was possible.

Port Isaac Beach. A letter from Mr. Pyeman, N.C.D.C., stated that the beach is cleaned after spring tides during the winter.
Mr. Symons proposed that a letter be sent to the Harbourmaster asking the Commission to help keep the beach clean-in their interest as they are dependent on visitors as much as anyone else.

St. Peter's Church Centenary.

Mrs. Barron appointed Parish Council representative on the Church Flower Festival Committee. The Festival theme is to be 'Fishers of Men'.

Planning.

Plans submitted informally by owners of 'Castle Rock View' for Parish Council's comments: to replace crumbling brick house with four chalet-type buildings. Cllr. Dawe - many houses in the village are crumbly! Mr. Provis reminded the Council about the former Rose Hill and Margaret's lane applications and asked how could they even think about it, would be seen by thousands of people on coast path. Finally decided to be 'detrimental to the environment' and 'over-development in a coastal area'.

No Cycling, Temple Bar.

Mr. Bolton forwarded a request for a sign to prevent the hazard to pedestrians of children on bicycles. Cllr. Dawe thought it a ridiculous request as it is impossible to cycle there.

No Access Sign, Trelights.

Highways Dept. to be consulted on possibility of removing misleading sign by Dustows'.

Public Discussion.

Mr. Penna thanked the Parish Council for the grant to Trio.

Mrs. Strout reminded us that the National Trust only owned Port Gaverne Beach down as far as the high tide line.

Mrs. Brown of Trelights asked why the stile at the beginning of the footpath next to Trelights Farm was hidden by undergrowth. Cllr. Dawe said the public were free to use the adjacent gates but would nevertheless clear the stile himself.

The next monthly meeting will be held at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac on Monday 11th. June at 7.30pm.

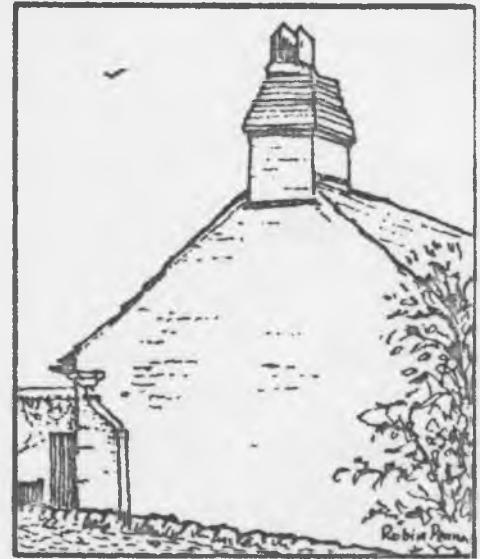

'BALED OUT'?

The Port Isaac Lifeboat took part in a rescue demonstration at the start of the North Cornwall Marathon when 'victims' were 'rescued' by the boat and then lifted off by a helicopter. The 'rock' on which they were 'stranded' was a bale of hay!

COMPETITION

'The answer to last month's Trio competition is 'Rose Cottage' Lower Trefreock' writes Jayne Woods of Lower Trefreock and she wins this month's £2.00 prize. Other correct solutions were sent in by Mrs. N.N. Blake, and Ella Philp, of Port Isaac.

One of those chimneys again this month. Where is it to?

YELLOW LINES

The experimental 'restricted zone' system has proved successful and may be applied in other villages. The possibility of allowing night-time parking for the council houses is to be re-considered. The present 'restricted zone' is to be extended slightly this year.

ST. ENDELLION MUSIC

The Easter Festival was much enjoyed by large audiences. The mailing list now numbers over 900 and people come on holiday from all over the country to combine a holiday by the sea with music in the evenings. The Festival also has a large local following and a great many people come from Devon also. The 'Endellion Quartet' named after the Festival has now taken the name all over the world with tours to America, Australia, New Zealand, and the Continent.

THANKS

The Parent Teacher Association of Sir James Smith School would like to thank all those who helped and supported the Jumble Sale held recently which raised the sum of £78 for the funds.

PUBLIC MEETING

Mr. Parsons, General Manager of British Telecom, Plymouth, will attend the meeting to be held at the Church Rooms, P. Isaac, on Tuesday 19th. June at 7.30pm., regarding the proposed change of name for Port Isaac telephone exchange. Everyone who objects should attend and voice their views. It is mainly by strength of numbers that the change can be prevented and the special identity of Port Isaac retained.

R.N.L.I.

A successful Coffee Morning was held by Mrs. Enid Andrews in aid of Port Isaac Branch and raised £80.00. The draw was won by Mrs. Gina Franklin and Miss Elizabeth Brown. Thanks to all who helped and attended.

YOUTH CLUB

Port Isaac Youth Club is closed until the autumn. Winners of the winter competitions were: Pool Trophy - Gary Baker, runner up Sean Davey. Darts Trophy - Greg Hingley, runner up - Alec Shay.

THANK YOU

A big thankyou to Barbara and George, 'Corestin' for organising the delicious Playgroup Buffet Lunch last month. £24 was collected for Playgroup funds.

DO YOU KNOW THIS STONE?

A gentleman in Northumberland is trying to identify some lantern slides which he thinks may be of this area. One of them shows a stone on waste ground with the word 'paradise' at the base. Can anybody identify it?
