

THE HARVEST FESTIVAL

held at the Long Cross Hotel on Friday 8th. September was a great success and the net amount raised was £1100.00. Mr. W. Dawe would like to thank everyone for their hard work and generous contributions. A special thank you to Mrs. Dawe for her work behind scenes.

The winners are: Local Prize Draw - Mrs. B. Drew (Turkey), Mrs. O'Connor (Chicken Dinner), Mr. G. Cowling (Marrow), Mr. Tom Chapman (Chocolates). Raffle - Hayes of Launceston (4602) £50, C.P. Scott, Port Isaac (4596) £35, Mr. Bellew, Somerset (6460) £25, Rachael Nott, Camelford (4344) £10, R. Tamsett, Kent (7293) £5.

Next year's Harvest Festival will be held at Long Cross Hotel on Friday 7th. September.

HARBOUR SHOP

As from 1st November, until further notice, the Harbour Shop, Fore Street, will close on Tuesday afternoons instead of Wednesday.

MOUNT EDGCUMBE HOSPICE

Thanks to Castle Properties and many other generous givers, an additional £450 has been sent to the Hospice. My most sincere thanks to all those good people who, throughout the summer, gave of their time to 'man' the shop. This sum of £450 brought the total sent from Port Isaac this year to £1,000. There will be a little more to send yet - all a far cry from the £60 raised from the first coffee morning five years ago! A letter from the Hospice is on display in the shop. Sheila Jarvis.

PORT ISAAC DAIRIES

Having had to go back to hospital, it is unlikely that Kerry Boyde will be able to continue to carry out the milk round. The constant twisting to get in and out of the milk float has caused him many problems. So Unigate Dairies will now be taking over the round on an indefinite basis.

I would like to thank everybody who attended the Afternoon Tea at the Slipway Hotel on Sunday 8th October, for all their super cards and presents, and for making it a memorable day. The trouble is I can't remember much of it.

Tony Sweett (Ex Young Tone).

The Quiet Corner

Harvest Moon

Full Moon; not pensive-pale in misty veil,
But jovial round and sound
as a Cheddar cheese.
The colour of cheese too;
orange, not white.

Lean hungry Frost can hardly wait to take a bite.

Acknowledgments to: R.H.Grenville.

FIREWORKS

As a result of a very successful Disco at the Green Door Club this month, the amount raised so far has reached £300. Thanks to the very generous donations received from: Enid & Neville, Castle Properties, Drug Store, Ricky Fisher (Spar Shop), Frank Gadman, Jack & Muriel (Golden Lion), The Playgroup, Mark Provis, F. Ross (Port Gaverne Hotel), Barry Smith (Slipway Hotel), Henry Stickland (Harbour Shop), and Trio. As usual, rubbish for the bonfire will be picked up on Saturday 4th. November, as the display will be held that evening.

PORT ISAAC YOUTH GROUP

If anyone would like to volunteer for a Friday session, Chris, Gerry and Jill would be happy to see you.
Jill O'Connor.

HELPING TRELISKE HOSPITAL

Many of us have cause to be deeply grateful to doctors, nurses, specialists and others who have so wonderfully cared for us in our times of illness. It is very difficult to adequately express our thanks to these dedicated people, and because of this, a competition has been arranged to raise money which we can send to help Treliske Hospital at Truro. We are inviting everyone to give a donation of 50p or more and receive an entry form for 'Fun Crossword'. The first correct entry drawn on Tuesday, 14th. November by Mrs. Pauline Stephens of the Port Isaac surgery and a well-known member of our community, will receive a large box of 'week-end' groceries. The forms will be available from helpers but if you find any difficulty, please let me know.
Wesley Blake.

MR. CECIL RUSH, TRELIGHTS

We express our sympathy to the widow and other relatives of the late Mr. Cecil Rush who died at his home, Kosylund, Trelights. Mr. Rush was well known in the village and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. The funeral service, on 8th. September, was held in the St. Kew Parish Hall followed by interment in St. Kew Churchyard.

MRS. I. I. P. WATKINS.

The death occurred, on September 25th. at the Olive House Residential Home, Rock, of Mrs. Inez Irene Prudence Watkins, aged 80 years. She had been in failing health for some time and was at Olive House for almost two years. She had lived in Port Isaac at St. Anns, 27 New Road, for many years and was the widow of Melvin who died eight years ago. The funeral service on Tuesday, 3rd. October, was held at Penmount and was attended by a number of her closest friends. The ashes will be interred in the family grave at St. Ann's Chapel cemetery, Gunnislake.

PARISH COUNCIL

Your Parish Councillors are Mr. Barriball, Dr. Barron, Mr. Bolton, Mrs. Cann, Mr. Dawe, Mr. Norris, Mr. Phelps, Mrs. Richards, Mr. Stokes, Cllr. Symons, and Mr. Welton.

The Clerk to the Council is Mrs. B. Willmott, 11 New Road.

The following report was compiled from notes taken by a member of the public during the meeting at Trelights Chapel Hall, Monday 2nd. October.

Jet-Ski Race, Port Gaverne

In a reply to the Parish Council's letter, The National Trust said they had not made any change to the agreed arrangements and did not ask for the race to be cancelled.

However it is thought the activity might not be compatible with quiet places like Port Gaverne, and The Trust will consider the matter, with relation to the whole of Devon and Cornwall, at their annual meeting.

Finance

To cover present expenditure, much of it for Port Gaverne toilets, a precept of £1000 is to be raised from N.C.D.C. This will leave about £2,000 'in the kitty'.

St. Endellion Lane

Mr. Dawe said the road (from Trelights to the B.3314, near the church) is in a bad state of repair. Mr. Chapman, who worked for the Council for thirty years, was invited to speak and said that to his knowledge the road had not been cleared for the last four or five years. The County Council acknowledge that it is an adopted road but may not want to open it up because of the dangerous entrance at the B.3314 main road.

Beach Cleaning

The Parish Council share of the first clean up is £100, but the whole cost of the second clean up in Bank Holiday week will be borne by the Harbour Commissioners. Cllr. Symons said that N.C.D.C. are hoping to find that they can legally take over beach cleaning and pay for it. It is for residents and visitors only, so why should the Harbour Commissioners pay? Most of the rubbish comes in from the sea. Perhaps money for beach cleaning could be obtained from the Tourist Association? N.C.D.C. spends much money on publicity, but dirty beaches are a bad advertisement. With the Lowermoor incident, dirty beaches, the water shortage, and bad parking, it was a poor situation this year. S.W.W.A. have spent £200,000 on publicity but they send out a list of accommodation which only has names and telephone numbers - no descriptions. They are now, however, making a video about the North Cornwall area.

Footpath 35

A letter from Mr. Penna was read, asking for the path, along Port Isaac valley and through the mill, to be left where it is. Mr. Norris reported that there are feelings of resentment about the proposed diversion. Mr. Welton said the matter was with the legal department at County Hall, and they might not be prepared to accept a diversion. A Parish Council site meeting was arranged, and the landowner would be invited to attend.

St. Endellion Churchyard

The future of the graveyard is a matter for the Glebe Committee and specific comments by the Parish Council would be considered. No further resources are available from church funds for extension or maintenance. The Parish Council is worried about the provision of a new cemetery and the maintenance of the existing one. If N.C.D.C. take over, however, they ought not to be able to move the gravestones to simplify grass cutting because, as Mr. Norris pointed out, it is a churchyard 'listed' as of historic importance by the Dept. of the Environment.

Clerk's Correspondence

a. The Parish Council will write to County Highways to support the Playgroup's attempt to get 'Slow, children crossing' signs in Trewetha Lane, near the Village Hall where they meet. There is danger to the children when they leave from fast traffic passing the hall.

b. A letter to say 'Thank you for your co-operation during the water shortage' was received from S.W.W.A.

c. Most Parish Councils activated their emergency committees during the drought, and how to fill in a form about the local emergency committee is to be considered at the next meeting.

d. The Mid-Cornwall Police Authority are having an Open Forum at 8.00pm., Thursday 2nd. November, at Restormel Council Offices.

e. Paul Britton from the Dept. of the Environment is to speak at the AGM of the Association of Town and County Councils in the Chapter House of Truro Cathedral on Tuesday 5th. December. No time given.

Planning Applications

[Applications for consideration by N.C.D.C. Planning Committee are sent to Parish Councils who may make observations but which the Committee is not bound to take heed of. Ed.]

a. Dwelling & Garage, Trewetha Lane, Mr. J. Saundry: 'no observations'.

b. Listed Building Consent [retrospective], Velux Roof Window, 66 Fore Street [Canadian Terrace], Mr. J. Armstrong: 'no observations'.

c. Extension and Change of Use of Existing Garage, Silverspray, Port Gaverne, Mr./Mrs. J. E. Ratcliffe: 'support'.

d. Attic Room/Balcony, Westaway, Trelights, Mr./Mrs. Gray: 'support'.

e. Bungalow, Little Treswarrow, Miss J. Fanstone: 'support'.

f. Continued Use of Dwelling without compliance with Condition 11 (Boundary Wall), Marshalls Way, Trelights: 'no observations'.

g. Dwelling, Bodannon, Mr. K. C. Richards: 'support'.

Public Discussion

a. M s. Pethick expressed concern about access to a development on a dangerous bend in Trelights. The clerk is to make enquiries.

b. Mr. Penna first thanked the Council for their kind 'get well' letter. Then he said fast traffic in Trewetha Lane also makes crossing between Margaret's Lane and 'Doctor George's Meadow' very dangerous. Also, every week, Port Isaac is full of plastic refuse bags, from Saturdays and until collection, Tuesdays.

Next Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Parish Council will be held on Monday 13th. November at 7.30pm. in the Church Rooms, Port Isaac.

BODMIN STEAM RAILWAY

This is Cornwall's only standard gauge steam railway.

The Bodmin Railway Preservation Society suggested, in 1984, the retention of the old line from Bodmin Road (Parkway) to Wenfordbridge, closed by British Rail following the end of clay traffic.

In 1985 a public company, the Bodmin and Wenford Railway plc, was formed to raise funds to buy the line from Bodmin Parkway to Boscarne Junction. Sadly, for safety reasons, however, the original 1834 line to Wenfordbridge could not be included.

The Company succeeded in buying the line - with a large overdraft - and in August the Light Railway Order, enabling passenger transport along the line, was granted by the Department of Transport.

The Company and Society are now developing the Railway and hope to create, as nearly as possible, an authentic representation of a Cornish steam railway - for local residents and visitors alike.

Projects being undertaken are: development of the line, bringing the Bodmin General to Boscarne section back to operating standard, restoration of the old Great Western Railway buildings at Bodmin General station, and the restoration of historic locomotives, coaches, and wagons, including G.W.R. 2-6-2 'Prairie' tank loco No. 5552 - the only G.W.R. steam railway locomotive in Cornwall at present.

The public can help by joining the Bodmin Railway Preservation Society - whose members receive a magazine regularly and may also take part in railway operations, or by buying shares in the Bodmin and Wenford Railway plc. - with benefits that include free travel.

For further details contact:

PORT ISAAC VALLEY PATH

The plan to divert this footpath up the hillside and away from the old route, will be discussed at the next Parish Council meeting on Monday 13th. November. If you have any views about this diversion, it would be a good idea to write to the Clerk, or speak to a Parish Councillor, before the meeting.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The W.I had a most interesting talk and demonstration on 'Painting on China' at their monthly meeting on 12th. October. It was given by Mrs. C. Deacon with the assistance of Mrs. F. Johnson. After the meeting it was also arranged for a day trip to Exeter on November 30th.

ST. ENDELLION CHURCH NEWS

Servers' Festival

At the end of September, Servers from St. Endellion attended the annual Servers' Festival at Truro Cathedral. Canon Peter Boyd was Celebrant at the Sunday Eucharist and the Rt. Revd. Richard Llewellyn, Bishop of St. Germans, was preacher.

Harvest

Harvest Sung Eucharist was well attended but Sung Evensong attracted only a small congregation. The Rector preached at both services. The Church had been beautifully decorated with flowers, vegetables, fruit, and other produce, by members of the congregation, and were later distributed to the residents of a home for the mentally and physically handicapped at Bowden Derra near Launceston.

First Healing Eucharist at Camelford

For the first time, many parishioners from St. Endellion, St. Kew, and St. Peter's, Port Isaac, joined members of the congregation of St. Thomas a Becket, Camelford, for a Healing Eucharist on Wednesday 4th. October. The Rector was celebrant and the service was led by Mrs. Pat Hardman. The Rector was assisted in the laying on of hands by the Revd. Ian Morris, Rector of Camelford and by the new Methodist minister.

Julian Meeting

The October Julian Meeting for contemplative prayer was held in the Rectory. Leader was Major Walter Magor. Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Doreen Fryer.

Sponsored Walk

A fine, if breezy day, provided excellent conditions for the Annual Sponsored Walk held Saturday 14th. October to raise funds for the Church. Nearly twenty people took part in the ten mile walk from St. Endellion along the Coastal Footpath to Pentire Head and Polzeath beach to Trebetherick where hospitality was kindly provided by Mrs. Mary Ide Warlow Harry. Refreshments were arranged by Mrs. Pam Richards and helpers included Mrs. Jean Wilson, Miss Violet Baker, Mrs. Biddy Holden, and Mr. Russell Pollinger.

Ringers

Ringers from St. Endellion attended the Autumn Festival of the Guild of Ringers held at Marhamchurch on Saturday 14th. October. The ringers joined together in worship at a special service, followed by tea.

Whist Drive

The October Whist Drive was held on Tuesday 10th. October in the Church Hall. M.C. was Mr. C. A'Court, and the tea hostess was Mrs. K. Cox.

Retreat

The Rector and Father Evelyn Dunford attended a Priests' Retreat at the Convent, West Oggwell, in Devon, for a few days in October.

Judith Pollinger.

METHODIST CHURCH

Harvest Festival at Port Isaac Methodist Church was celebrated on Sunday 1st. October. The chapel was beautifully decorated with gifts of fruit and flowers. Services of Thanksgiving were conducted by Mr. David Roberts of Coads Green, who spoke especially to the young people and the Brownies who were on parade, involving them as they counted fruit, vegetables, and flowers for each letter in the alphabet except z (they were allowed to cheat a bit with x).

On the Monday evening, Revd. E. Dunford led a short Thanksgiving service which was followed by refreshments and the sale of produce. The proceeds were sent to local hospitals.

Further dates to remember: Sunday 17th. December, special Toy Service when all the children of the village are invited to bring gifts of toys, games, books, etc. which will afterwards be sent to the Children in Need Appeal. Used but outgrown toys, still in good condition, are very acceptable, so parents need not feel this is an additional expense at a very expensive time of year! Sunday 24th. December, Candlelight Carol Service. Come and join us for this happy service.

Grace Hooper.

GOLDEN CIRCLE

The Golden Circle meets Wednesdays in the Cornish Cafe at 2.30 pm. All senior citizens are very welcome to come along and join in the various activities. An outing to Plymouth with a visit to the Edinburgh Mill Shop is on Wednesday 1st. November. Please ring Joanna Brown on Bodmin 880555 if you wish to join us. Dates of outings are in the 'Diary', so why not come along with us and sample the company if you are not already a member! Sheila Jarvis.

ARC

A successful Coffee Murng in aid of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Council was held on Tuesday 17th. October in the Penhaligon Room when £55 was raised for the funds of this research council. Our thanks to the helpers who gave time to serve. We hope many of our supporters will come to a Knit-in next month at Gwel Arvor, Tintagel Terrace. Sponsor forms from Mrs. Hooper at that address now, so please. all you knitters, come and collect your sponsor form and then spend an hour just knitting squares for the ARC. The date will be Tuesday 21st. November, so you have a month to get sponsors and I, personally, will be delighted to welcome you for a cup of tea and refreshments and that hour of sponsored knitting.

Grace Hooper, Sec.

A.R.C. Port Isaac Branch.

MEET THE MISSIONARY

There will be a Coffee morning, Tuesday, 31st. October, at Rockmount, The Terrace, 10.30 - 12.00. Come and meet Mr. Paul Corson of the London City Mission. Bring and Buy Stall. Everyone welcome.
