

JET-SKIS: NOT AGAIN!

As a Port Gaverne resident whose livelihood depends on the tourist trade, I am pleased that the National Trust has reaffirmed its ban on jet skis. Port Isaac may be less pleased with the suggestion to transfer their August bank holiday meeting to its harbour.

In the harsh business world, local opposition can play little part in a commercial decision. For those in business who believe the jet skiers will benefit the tourist trade, I ask you to consider if the trade will add to, or be at the expense of, existing trade.

My research into tourism in Port Isaac and district, shows that we have some 800 beds altogether. In August, these will generate around £10,000 a night in accommodation income alone. I would hope our efforts in peak season are successful enough to fill 90% of these. The maximum increase from jet skiers is thus likely to be around 80 persons or £1,000 a night. Add a reasonable estimate for their spending on shopping, meals, drinks, etc. and our income can increase by a further £1,600. A five-night stay by the jet skiers and their followers could generate a maximum of around £13,000. Of course, this may not all be spent in Port Isaac. Our annual gross turnover from tourism is likely to exceed £2 million. The jet skiers maximum trade can only represent less than 1% of this. Is this £2 million generated by people with no objections to jet skis in the harbour? To me, Port Isaac is a village whose tourist attraction is peace, tranquillity, and sheer natural beauty. I cannot believe our visitors would be without objections.

In the end, my opinion, or that of others in the tourist trade, is irrelevant. Only the opinions of our visitors, on whom our livelihoods depend, is important. So for all those who truly support the long-term interests of tourist trade here, I ask you to consider all the implications of welcoming jet skiers. If you really believe their trade will not be at the expense of existing trade, then your commercial decision must be to support the suggestion to use the harbour. Perhaps you are right, but if you are wrong, what might it cost to recover what has been lost.

YOUTH CLUB

Port Isaac Youth Club are holding a Jumble Sale on Wednesday 10th. March in St. Peter's Church Rooms, 11 o'clock - 2 o'clock. Please support us. Jill O'Connor.

Many thanks for all the kind messages, phone calls, and many visits from friends and acquaintances during my recent illness. Also to the shops, all of whom were most helpful to Robin and myself. Special thanks to Mary Reid who did all the housework and kept me 'in line', and to Robin for his patience in coping with a grotty patient. I guess this is what living in a place like Port Isaac is all about - a super surgery staff and helpful neighbours!!

Thanks, Fred.

We would like to say thank you for the wonderful support in making our Mini Market a success. We raised £70 for the animals. Special thanks to the kind folk who gave cakes and prizes. Thank you one and all.

June and Olive.

We would like to thank everyone who helped make Jack's 65th. birthday such a happy and enjoyable day.

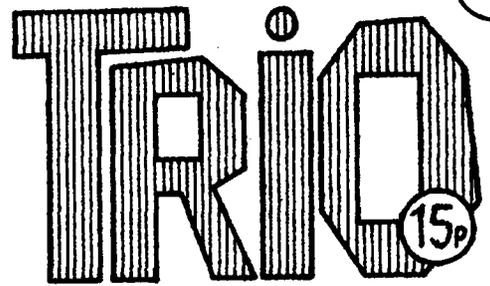

Jack & Muriel.

I would like to take this opportunity of expressing my very sincere thanks to all those friends who by word or letter have shown their sympathy with me in the recent death of my wife. The great number of those who attended the Requiem Eucharist at St. Peter's Church was an indication of the esteem and affection felt for Olive in our three parishes. I hope in due course to reply to all those who have sent me their letters of sympathy; not least to those in the Diocese of the Gambia in West Africa in which Olive took so great an interest, and which she had twice visited in recent years.

Evelyn Dunford.

WILLIAM JOHN CANN

As briefly reported in the last Trio, the tragic news of the death on Monday evening, 22nd. January, of William John Cann age 57 years, at a cliff rescue practice at Hole Beach, Tintagel, was received with the deepest regret. John was associated with various organisations in the village and district. The funeral service on 27th. January was held in St. Peter's Church where John was a churchwarden. The service was conducted by Revd. Hugh Fryer. The church was crowded with friends from over a large area. We all express our sympathy to Margaret and her family in their sudden bereavement.

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Issued eleven times a year for the civil parish of St. Endellion, North Cornwall. Available at 15p. per copy from The Harbour Shop and The Bay Gift Shop, Port Isaac, and the Post Office Stores, Trelights, or by mail for a yearly subscription of £4.00. Published by Robin Penna (who does not necessarily hold the same views as those expressed by contributors). Duplicated at The Blackthorn Press, 18 New Road, Port Isaac. PL29 3SB

ISSUE NO. 86 FEBRUARY 1990

Next Issue Saturday 31st. March.

Deadline 9.00am, Thursday 22nd.

Last month's Trio was very difficult to prepare. Several items were much too long and had to be edited to get everything into the three pages. This took many hours of my (unpaid) time, so, in future while articles up to 150 words will still be published free, we shall charge, not 10p as stated last month, but 5p per word extra. This month, we seem to have plenty of room - that's the trouble, we never know until 'Deadline Day' how much news we're going to get! Also, from this month, Trio will cost 15p. A single-column unit of advertising space (11 units to a column) will be £1.70. Classified advertisements will be 10p per word. And new postal subscriptions will cost £4.00 for 11 copies. Robin Penna.

CAR PARKING

Would everybody please note that the space in front of the shop at 18 New Road is private and reserved for the cars of our customers only.

Andrea and Steve Bickham wish to say a big thank-you to everyone who sent cards and gifts on the arrival of their son William, born on the 9th. December 1989. Andrea is now working in the Salon on Tuesdays and looks forward to seeing you all again.

PARISH COUNCIL

A report compiled from notes taken by a member of the public during the meeting held at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, Monday 12th. February.

The meeting was chaired by Vice-chairman Bill Norris.

Cllr. Symons spoke a few words about the sad loss of two relatively young men from the village, Brian Orchard and John Cann. The Council are to send letters of condolence to their widows, Joan and Margaret.

Financial Statement

Having precepted high last year as a provision against the Community Charge, the Council has £331 in the current account and £3,282 deposit. The District Council Treasurer will in future pay precepts in two equal instalments. St. Endellion is to receive £2,375 in April and £2,375 in September. The total, £4,750, represents approximately a 6p rate, much higher than before, to overcome the loss of local business rates to central government.

Port Isaac Cricket Club

The £50 donation promised last May is now to be paid to the club.

Christmas Illuminations

Mr. Stokes thanked the Council for the donation towards the lights in Port Isaac. He also congratulated Mr. Phelps on his individual display at Trewetha. Mr. Barriball apologised on behalf of Trelights, and said that bad weather and high winds had caused them to abandon most of their planned display.

Annual Parish Meeting

This is to be held at The Church Hall at 7.30pm. on Thursday 26th. April. Gerry Neale MP., representatives of the Highways, Footpaths, Beach Cleaning and Car Parking Departments, and the Police are to be invited. County Councillor Harvey Lander and District Councillor Henry Symons will also attend.

St. Endellion Lane

Mr. Dawe said the lane is in a terrible condition. Because it is not in Rock, Padstow, or Wadebridge it is neglected by the Highways Dept. Mr. Phelps agreed that something should be done, references to the dangerous exit on to the B.3314 are only excuses not to do it. Mr. Barriball said it was difficult for ladies walking through to the church to tend graves, etc. Cllr. Symons pointed out that the field had been ploughed up quite a while ago. County Cllr. Harvey Lander is to be invited to inspect the lane with the Parish Council.

South West Water Authority

Mr. Dunworth of the Authority had said that after heavy rain, water from Restormel fed into the St. Endellion supply may have caused an earthy taste but it was safe to drink. Several members of the Council averred that he didn't know what he was talking about and that all our water comes from De Lank.

Jet-Ski Racing

The National Trust have drawn up a presumption against Jet-Ski Racing in Devon and Cornwall. Mr. Longworth-Krafft has suggested that the annual venue should be transferred from Port Gaverne to Port Isaac.

Playing Fields, Roundabout

It was decided better to spend money having the roundabout repaired as this would last longer than a cheap new one costing £980 plus VAT. The contractor is to be asked for a quote. The clerk is to investigate the new type of 'soft ground' now required around playground items. The present arrangement of the items is due to earlier plans for a full-size football pitch which were never realised. Space also has to be left between them to allow the gang-mower to get through.

Clerk's Correspondence

- The County Council is to assess the New Road car-parking situation.
- Notification was received of the diversion of footpaths 7 & 8.
- Information was received about the Prohibition of Waiting order.
- The footbridge on the Main at Port Gaverne is to be made safer at a cost of £195.
- It was decided to make no donation in response to the County Playing Fields Association appeal.
- The Chairman read a copy of a letter from Dr. Sainsbury to County Highways about the bad condition of the footpath at the millpool. Mr. Welton reported that the County Solicitor had written to the Watsons asking them to reinstate the path.

Planning Applications

- Erection of split level bungalow and private garage, 38 New Road,

Harvest Combe Ltd: It was felt the development would be too big.
b. Hoppet House (Lantern Restaurant) change of use of garage to kitchen: No observations providing off-street car parking is still provided.

c. Formation of new access, Trewetha Lane, Mr. J. Chapman: The Council were against this. It is on a blind bend, and would be 'murderous', and 'suicidal'.

d. Erection of dormer extension, Tregole, Trelights, Mr. and Mrs. Bridges: No observations.

e. Erection of dwelling, Archer Farm Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Welton: (Mr. Welton declared an interest) These were simply revised plans of the earlier application and received the Council's approval.

Public Discussion

Mr. Penna, in reply to an earlier comment by Mr. Phelps pointed out that while the gradient of the path from Port Gaverne to Trewetha might be greater than that of the proposed diversion at the millpool, that path was already there while the diversion would be a new one and could be obviated. Also, during the gales he had rescued the sign 'Margaret's Lane' which was now in his shed awaiting collection.

Next Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Parish Council will be held on Monday 12th. March at 7.30pm. in the Chapel Room, Trelights.

FOOTBALL CLUB NEWS

RTZ (Belabole Slate) have very generously provided the Port Isaac Football Club with a Porta Building, free, which will be our new dressing room. This building, over 30ft. by lift. replaces our former dressing room which has been pulled down to make way for the new building complex at the Huntsman. The Club has lined up a crane and large lorry to move it shortly. Hiring the crane and lorry will cost the Club around £300 and a further £200 for refurbishment such as guttering, seats, gas, showers, paint, insurance, locks, etc. This is a lot of money for a village club to have to pay and any donations from the village, however small, will be gratefully received - a receipt will be given. Well done the boys on beating St. Minver and Ladock, away. Great Football. Les Honey, 880609.

LIFEBOAT

Celebrations at the Cobweb Inn

There was singing and celebration at the Lifeboat Evening at Boscastle on Friday night, 9th. February. Ivor and Vera Bright had kindly offered Port Isaac Branch RNLI the contents of their charity bottle.

County Councillor Fred Whiting was invited to break the bottle, and spoke of his long and happy association with the rescue services, starting when he lived at Trebarwith, where close links were formed between the Surf Life Saving Club and Port Isaac lifeboat. The late Mrs. Whiting had arranged RNLI collections over many years. The bottle contained £162.95, and Ivor and Vera had also held a Tug-o'-War and a Whist Drive. They added the proceeds from these events, and presented Hon. Sec. David Castle with a cheque for the grand total of £367.95.

David Castle thanked Ivor and Vera for their hospitality and generosity, and the packed house enjoyed more delights from the extensive repertoire of The Bude Lifeboat Singers, led by John Bolitho.

We had a very successful AGM on the 8th February which included a visitor from Wadebridge. The monthly competition Cup for last year was won by Mrs. Pat Rex. The following officers were elected:
President - Mrs. Pat Rex
Vice President - Mrs. Rene Duval
Secretary - Mrs. Eileen Morris
Asst. Secretary - Mrs. Sybil Brown
Treasurer - Mrs. Zofia Fry
Asst. Treasurer - Mrs. Betty Milton

We are only a small Institute but very active and friendly and would be delighted to welcome visitors to any of our meetings or other activities of which there will be plenty in the near future.
At our next meeting on the 8th March the speaker will be Mrs. E. Parkinson on 'Growing Herbs'. There will be an opportunity to purchase some herbs as well as various goodies from our regular 'Market Stall'.

If you are a newcomer to the village do come and visit us at the Penhaligon Rooms (opposite The Old School), it is the friendliest way to meet 'locals' both old and new and take part in the village life, after all isn't that why you moved to Port Isaac? There are no strangers, only friends we have not yet met.

THE ROARING NINETIES

With fading memories of golden June
Now Mother Nature calls the tune
Swirling winds make sea-birds frantic
From the storm-tossed grey Atlantic
Force nine or ten or even more
Shake our village to the core
Tangent rain like icy lances
Probes battered roofs, and tiling dances
A swollen leat, full pelt runs down
And stains the harbour, earthen brown
Each boat in breakers lurches, strains
Full month a prisoner, of mooring chains
Shattered debris carpets streets
In maelstrom wind that ever beats
Perhaps He'll hear, this reedy wail
Our plea for calm, above the gale
These hardy folk of high endeavour
Know that storms can't last forever

Eric.

KRAZY HENRY

There's one thing I've always fancied in life and that's a flash car. I know I've got the company car and it's very handy at times but it's not quite the same as owning your own wheels. I suppose I'm a bit envious of the farmers sons who thrash round during the day in the forever Land Rover but come the evening when they're out talent spotting, it's 'Look out Dale, watch my tail' as they roar past. The thing is, I'm not really flash trash, I'm a bit conservative actually, but I do fancy having a girl beside me in an open sports job. I was in Plymouth the other day and in the car showroom there was exactly what I'd always dreamed about, red of course, what else, sleek, fat tyres, electric windows, heavenly. My imagination ran on so riotously that I just went boldly through the glass posh doors to enquire the price of my dreams. Driving back to Cornwall I spotted the body of a man lying beside the road so I stopped to see if I could help, his legs were sticking out into the road in danger of being run over, I just thought he had had a few drinks too many and the police would have him if I didn't, so I heaved him into the passenger seat, he needed very little heaving, in fact I would describe his whole appearance as 'wish', all skin and bone. I pulled into a layby to find out where he would like to be taken, I couldn't believe my eyes it was 'Krazy Henry' the well known son of the local squire and Henry was drugged right up to his fluttering eyelids. I knew the estate where he lived so I headed for his home, as yet Henry had done nothing but groan. I pulled up to the front door of the Manor House, two farm chaps came to help carry Henry indoors and his mother came out to thank me. As I drove away I passed the stable block now converted to a garage for the family cars, I noticed one of the cars which I knew belonged to Henry was the exact replica of my dream car in the showroom. Driving on home I felt a new assessment of my surroundings taking place in my thoughts. My tyres seemed fatter than before, they cornered very well, the body was sleek enough, the engine was smoothly purring along. I switched on the radio, wound down the window put my head out to breathe in the lovely fresh Cornish air. I felt my life was wonderful, and so was my company car... Rodney the Rep.
