ABSENT HELPER

By the time you read this issue of Trio, Fred Thompson will have returned home from his two-week stay at St. Michael's Hospital, Hayle (52 miles away!) where he has had a left knee replacement operation. The other knee will be replaced next year. He will not be very mobile for a while but would like to thank all those people who sent him get-well cards, made the journey to visit him, or sent best wishes and kind thoughts.

This month's Trio has been prepared without the help he usually gives - about half the work - so, apologies for any mistakes.

JAZZ EVENING

Many, many thanks to all who were involved in the setting up, running, and clearing up of the Jazz Evening at Thorn House. The event was a fund-raiser for Port Isaac Chorale who, in turn, hope they can raise money and provide entertainment for various good causes in the future. Special thanks must go to those people who are not involved in the Chorale but who lent so much time and effort to ensure the event's success. Caroline and I were very touched by the support you gave. Robin, everyone agreed the music was great and that you've rarely looked so animated!

Raffle

Raffle winners were Ben Andrews, George Crisp, and Geena Smart. The raffle helped raise a profit in excess of £600. On a sad note, poor Laurence has had to undergo counselling as he was totally unable to get a grip of the raffle ticket system we employed, whereas the other 250 of you found it quite straightforward. Perhaps someone can explain 'chaos theory' to him.

Caroline and Jon

On behalf of the John Smith Trio, thanks to Steve Appleby for the loan of his amplifier, and to Peter Rowe and crew who humped my piano there and back - Robin.

MAN - WHALE - DOLPHIN

In the Green Door, Port Gaverne, on Friday 18th. October at 7.30pm. (doors and bar open at 7.00pm.), there will be a lecture and slide presentation by marine conservationist Dean Bernal, warden to the Marine Parks areas of the Turks and Caicos Islands, British West Indies, presenting his research into Dolphins in the wild and operation of a Whale rescue programme. A unique opportunity to hear and meet one of the leading personalities in this field as he completes his U.K. lecture tour. This will be preceded by a film of introduction 'Dances with Dolphins' featuring Robin Williams. Tickets, £3.50 each available from Jon Cleave, Port Isaac Post Office. The event is organised by the Loughton Sub-Aqua Club in support of their Marine Conservation Programme and the Dyfed Wildlife Trust. A donation will also be made towards Port Isaac Christmas Lights.

Frederick Jack Best

We regret to report the death at the age of 89 years, at Mount Edgcombe Hospice, of Mr. Jack Best. He lived in Tintagel Terrace and more recently at Ocean View with his daughter Bessie and son-in-law John Masters and had been in failing health for some time. Jack had worked at the, now closed, China Clay works at Hawks Tor where he was electrician and engineer. The funeral service was held at St. Mabyn parish church on Tuesday 27th. August and was attended by a very large number of relatives and many friends from a wide area. Jack's wife, Eliza, died twenty years ago. We all express our sympathy to his many relatives who will mourn the loss of him who was such a friend to so many over the past years.

We extend our sympathy and condolences to John Wiseman whose wife 'Ronnie' died on Wednesday 18th. September.

CRICKET

1996 has been a very special season for Port Isaac Cricket Club which has remained undefeated with 100% success rate (all right, so we've only played one match!). As with last year, Port Isaac beat London (well, the North Star Inn) in the Alan Gaunt Memorial Trophy contested at St. Minver. The day dawned with the most inauspicious meteorological conditions prevailing (it was wet and windy), but thankfully for cricket lovers everywhere, at 2.40pm. the skies lifted and we began our 20-over thrash.

North Star batted first, swatting bowling of the utmost ineptitude to all corners of the ground, and making a total just in excess of 160. The Port Isaac fielding performance was illuminated by an astounding catch by the diminutive substitute fielder John 'sticky fingers' Riddex. Fielding at mid on, he held on to a rearing on-drive from the North Star batsman, catching it in the 'crocodile snap' fashion so favoured by fieldsmen on the Watusi Nomads Cricket Club of Central Africa. Stunning, and enough for him to be awarded the 'Man of the Match' award.

Amazingly, we achieved the total required with several balls to spare. 'Slinky' Simon Bishop bashed and slithered his way to 45 to give us a flying start. The momentum was carried on by the middle order, and the final crushing blows were biffed by he of the retro Bee Gees hairdo, aka Samson Daly, who, if he ever got himself a proper haircut would doubtless lose all his strength. His lovingly tousled golden tresses are an inspiration to great cricketers everywhere. He is an icon, nay, a talisman to our side. He has done for Port Isaac CC what Damien Hirst has done for formaldehyde.

Jon Cleave.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY

This year's Firework Display and Bonfire will be on Port Gaverne beach on Saturday 2nd. November. The bonfire will be lit at 6.15pm. and the fireworks start at 6.30pm. A Family Disco at the Green Door, including the Children's Fancy Dress Competition, will follow.

Bonfire Material

Please do not leave any material on the beach before Thursday 31st. October.

Thank you.

Ron Holmes.

Eileen Morris and family would like to thank friends and neighbours for their kind condolences and cards after their sad bereavement, and also those who attended Percy's funeral service, and for their generous donations to the Air Ambulance which amounted to £243. Many thanks, too, to Mr. Ian Honey for kindly making all the arrangements, and to Father Michael and Revd. Judith Pollinger for their sympathy and understanding and for the beautiful service at St. Peter's.

The Quiet Corner

As a little child runs to his father and tells him everything in the days when he is very young, very innocent, and very trusting, so can we talk to God.

PARISH COUNCIL

An unofficial report compiled from notes taken by a member of the public during the meeting held at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, on Monday 9th. September.

For official information, please refer to the Parish Council minutes.

Present were: Bill Dawe (District Councillor), Malcolm Lee (Treasurer), Bryan Nicholls, Jill O'Connor, David Phelps (Vice Chairman), David Philp, Bryan Richards, and Henry Symons (Chairman).

Apologies were received from: Harold Barri-ball, Richard Hamby, and Mark Provis.

Public Discussion

Peggy Richards: Reports about parking problems in Fore Street, the turning area at Little Hill, and New Road – visitors asking 'Where can we park?' when asked to move on. A man (with an alsatian that snapped at a child) sitting at a table, at the Platt, selling raffle tickets 'for the lifeboat', and causing an obstruction. The police are less able to deal with traffic problems as they have more work to do now that there are less traffic wardens. Something must be done soon about the parking problem – before Easter which is early next year. She suggested a public meeting of all business people so that they could pool their ideas. The notice board by the school has been broken. Back Hill is 'a disgrace' and the steps are overgrown. The toilets close too early. What do people do who are desperate? [The clerk explained that the toilets close at 9.00pm. for insurance reasons.]

Robin Penna: referring to agenda item no. 6, 'Proposal for a Village Warden', reminded the Council that only about two dozen of the buildings in the old village are permanently inhabited, the rest are holiday homes of one sort or another and empty for much of the time. The few residents are mostly occupied in the summer, and very few people from 'the top' visit the old village, so there is no population to care for this part of Port Isaac which is becoming shabby and neglected.

Perhaps a warden could be appointed and paid for by a slight increase in the Parish Council component of the council tax. A specification for the kind of work needed and the months during which it should be carried out could be drawn up and tenders invited from the village and/or the surrounding district. A further possibility might be to insist that absentee landlords should maintain their properties properly and to offer them the services of the village warden who would then recover from them the cost of this service.

There were no Planning Applications.

Finance

Malcolm Lee was granted leave to transfer £1,000 from the High Interest account to cover £1383.11 total expenditure for August. This would leave £102.72 in the Treasurer Account and £3118.79 in the High Interest account. There had also been a VAT rebate of £367.96, and there would be a 75% refund on the £90 spent cutting the grass on footpath no. 2.

Village Warden

Henry Symons started the discussion by saying that whereas the County Council and District Council do certain work, it is not always done to local people's liking. Perhaps some of the money spent on local work by these authorities could be made available for ourselves to do the work instead.

Malcolm Lee said that there were lots of little maintenance jobs that needed doing – cutting grass, pulling weeds, etc. but it was always difficult to get anyone to do them. It would be necessary to define the work to be done by the beginning of next year.

The clerk pointed out that there could be insurance problems if the Council actually employed someone.

David Phelps said some sort of tidying up process is needed but thought it would be better to put the work out to tender than employ someone.

Bryan Nicholls said to forget the idea about part-time, it should be a full-time job.

Malcolm Lee understood that the County Council had previously offered reimbursement of work undertaken by the Parish Council.

A sub-committee consisting of Bill Dawe, Malcolm Lee, David Phelps, and David Philp was formed to discuss the idea, in relation to the whole of the parish, and present definite proposals at a future meeting.

Car Parking

Henry Symons said that car parking for Port Isaac is a problem and will continue to be a problem. It is difficult to see where a car park could be formed within striking distance or to find a person to run a park-and-ride system.

Bill Dawe said that the parking in New Road, with cars sometimes parked along the road as far as the playing fields, was a danger to children and an obstruction for buses, etc.

David Philp pointed out that the problem lasted six weeks only and for the other 46 weeks a park and ride system would not pay.

Bryan Nicholls suggested that at least 20 cars could be parked in the playing fields car park which is wasted at present. The entrance to Lundy Road is also getting blocked.

David Phelps remembered car parking being discussed month after month by the former Chamber of Commerce without result, and said it was time for a positive approach.

Malcolm Lee said that it could be seen by those in the mobile Heritage Coast Interpretation Centre in the main car park that there was only a problem in the peak weeks, except when it was sunny when everybody went to Polzeath and Daymer Bay. Park and ride systems don't work, people don't want to park far away from their destination – the park and ride car park at Rock sometimes only has three cars in it. With reference to parking in New Road and Trewetha Lane, there have to be yellow lines. If there are no yellow lines people park.

David Phelps asked for a proposal on the agenda next month 'That people be encouraged to use the playing field car park'.

Notice Boards

It was agreed that the next board to be replaced should be that at the main car park.

Millenium Project

A letter from Cornwall Rural Community Council detailed plans to help fund Parish

Projects for the Millenium. Registration was required by November, and full proposals with feasibility plan by February. Schemes of less than £5,000 would not be considered and the maximum grant would be £200,000. It was proposed that a sub-committee be formed next month to consider making an application for a sports complex for the new playing fields.

District Councillor's Report

Bill Dawe expressed concern at the condition of the wall alongside the coastal path at Overcliff and suggested that Charlie David of the North Cornwall Heritage Coast and Countryside Service be asked for advice. It was a matter of some urgency as it would become a colossal job if left much longer. 9.00pm. was too early to close the toilets at Port Isaac on band nights and those at the car park were not being cleaned properly. The climbing frame at Trelights had still not been repaired but it was pointed out that the kind of rope required cost £60 a coil and that Taylor Made should be asked for a more detailed quotation to be discussed at next month's meeting in Trelights.

Chairman's Report

Henry Symons announced that a group of volunteers – Bess Coates, Chrissie Everett, Malcolm Lee, George Oxley, David Philp, and Bryan Richards – will try and form a committee to run the village hall.

At a recent Council for Parish and Town Councils [C.A.P.T.C.] it had been revealed that it might be necessary to raise more finance by charging member councils on a per capita basis which would throw a larger burden, possibly too large, on town councils.

Clerk's Correspondence

a. The County Council has no budget for kerbs for the grass verges at Trewetha but the item would be added to the list for next year. [David Phelps said that kerbs would be better than the post and rail fences proposed which would make it impossible for him to continue cutting the grass.]

b. The County Council said that if a majority of the residents of Coastguard Cottages wanted the road into Fore Street re-surfaced they could form a 'private works code' to raise funds. Relevant residents to be notified.

c. Information was received about 'RADICAL' a scheme for providing 'Information Technology' to primary schools, of which Port Isaac is one of six chosen, and to encourage contact between the school and local businesses to give the children a better understanding of the business world which would benefit them at secondary school. Malcolm Lee said that this would mean substantial facilities being available for Port Isaac School, which is lucky to be one of the chosen ones, and that the Parish Council must do what it can to support the scheme.

Next Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Parish Council will be Monday 14th. October at 7.30pm. in the Chapel Room, Trelights.

LIFEBOAT

August 1996 must go down as one of the quietest months in the recent history of Port Isaac Lifeboat Station, with only two launches to report.

Firstly, during the course of 'Lifeboat Larks' on the beach on Sunday 25th. August, the boat was called out to assist the Coast Guard team following a report of a person who had fallen over a cliff at Tintagel. The situation was quickly resolved and the ILB [Inshore Lifeboat] recalled to its station when half-way across Port Isaac Bay.

Crew: A. Walton, R. Hambly, J. Collins.

Secondly, on Tuesday 27th. August, the ILB launched following a report of two people in an inflatable canoe in rough sea off Port Gaverne. The two people were men from Germany (aged 23 and 21); they were escorted back to Port Gaverne beach.

Crew: C. Scott, S. Taylor, P. Pollington.

Ted Childs.

The relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Rita Cowling of 'Llanbrydn', Trelights, would like to express their sincere thanks to all those who gave donations in lieu of flowers. A total of £247.44 was raised for the funds of British Red Cross.

Homage to St. Enodoc Church

Sat at the side of John B's grave,
To emulate the great poet crave.
For prose to flow from untuned mind,
My eyes raised in hope of divine sign.
The church brings forth to inspire.
Upward pointed twisted spire.
Block stone walls dug into sloping hill.
Slate gravestones staggered, tarnished,
Sandy graveyard fill.
Lone testament to past generations lain,
In silent memorium still.
Tourists visit to wonder why,
Here the great poet wished to lie.
From the dark grey headstone,
The panorama for eye to roam.
Across the Camel estuary to Padstow Harbour cove,
Then up the shaded green pastured hills,
So far the eye can rove.
My homage nearly over I decide to lay,
Beside John B. and take in his view of Padstow Bay.
I laid on his right-hand side,
And rested my head back the same as his resides.
Finally I settle and focused on the view my eyes,
But all I could see from his angle was the drifting summer skies.

Colin Farmer, August 1996.

PORT ISAAC CHORALE

The choir have re-formed after the summer break and begin the season with a concert at Newquay on Monday 23rd. September.

Cassettes

Cassettes of the Anniversary Concert, held in the Village Hall in May, are available from The Blackthorn Press, and 'Secrets', at £5 each – the price includes a donation to the 'Mermaid Appeal'.

Jazz Evening

The Choir would like to thank Jon and Caroline Cleave for their very successful fund raising jazz evening in their garden in August. The funds raised will go towards choir uniforms.

Summer Concerts

During the summer, the Chorale also sang on the Platt, and at Port Gaverne. Unfortunately, the first occasion had to be cancelled due to bad weather but the second occasion proved very successful and enjoyable.

The Choir is now busy learning a new repertoire of songs for the coming year.

Liz Rowe.

I wish to thank all those wonderful neighbours and friends for their good wishes and lovely cards during my stay in Treliske. I am improving a great deal since my return home.

LOCAL HISTORY GROUP

Our latest exhibition was a great success, extremely tasteful in all respects; and we met Mr. J. Revell Carr, the president and director of the Mystic Maritime Museum in America, which could lead to all sorts of good things

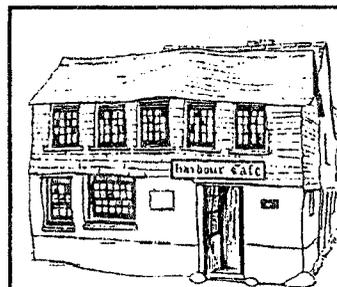

We are starting our winter programme on Friday 4th. October in the Penhaligon Room with a talk by Mr. Tony Blackman, an ex headmaster, an enthusiastic archaeologist, and first rate at all he takes on. He'll be talking about Bodmin Moor so please come along. You will even get tea and biscuits for your 50p.

ST. ENDELLION CHURCH

Mothers' Union Activities

The beauty of the North Cornish coast and its wonderful plant and animal life, was the subject of a talk and slide show, much enjoyed by members and friends of the United Benefice Mothers' Union branch, at its September meeting. The speakers were Mr. Derek Lord, the National Trust Warden for this area of North Cornwall, and his assistant Mr. Laurie Hart.

Visit to Bishop's Home

Mothers' Union members were warmly welcomed to his home 'Lis Escop' by the Rt. Revd. Michael Ball, Bishop of Truro, and his Chaplain the Revd. Jonathan Greener, on 13th. September. After a short Mothers' Union service led by the Revd. Preb. Michael Bartlett, Rector of St. Endellion, Port Isaac and St. Kew, in the Bishop's Chapel, members were given coffee and biscuits and invited to explore the house and gardens. Thanks were expressed to the Bishop by the Rector and by Mrs. Pam Richards, Branch Chairman.

Julian Group

The August and September meetings of the Julian Group for contemplative prayer were held in St. Endellion Church and led by Mrs. Pam Richards, and the Rector respectively.

Saint's Day Celebrated

The Feast of St. Bartholomew was marked by a celebration of the Eucharist in St. Endellion Church on Saturday 24th. August. The Rector presided and server was the Revd. Judith Pollinger, Curate.

Barbecue

The weather was kind for the annual United Benefice barbecue held in the Church Hall and Church car park at St. Endellion on Saturday evening of the Bank Holiday weekend. Despite threatening clouds, the rain held off and an enjoyable evening was experienced. Helpers from the three parishes – St. Kew, Port Isaac and St. Endellion – provided hot dogs, burgers, bacon rolls, drinks, and ices and also staffed various stalls and competitions.

Friends' Day

The Friends of St. Endellion were warmly welcomed by the Rector when they gathered for their annual Festival in the Collegiate Church of St. Endelienta on the last Sunday in August. Bells rang out from the church and the flag was flown.

Friends' Day began with Sung Eucharist at which the present Rector was celebrant and preacher for the first time. The Revd. Judith Pollinger, Curate led intercessions and, with

Mr. Roger Richards, server, assisted with the administration of Holy Communion. Thurifer and server was Mrs. Katrina Gill. Lessons were read by Mrs. Helen Bennett and Mrs. Maggie Wainwright. The offertory procession included Miss Diane Coombes, Secretary of the Friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Denis Martin.

The Rector officiated at Choral Evensong wearing the magnificent St. Endelienta cope. Also in the procession were the Revd. Preb. Robert Strange, Vicar of Newlyn and a Prebendary of Trehaverock, St. Endellion, the Revd. Preb. Jim Vincent, Prebendary Emeritus and the Revd. Judith Pollinger, Curate. The singing was led by a choir formed especially for the occasion, conducted by Mr. James Parkin, Organ Scholar of Balliol, and accompanied by Mr. Henry Doughty, former Deputy Organist of Truro Cathedral.

Choral Evensong, was followed by the annual meeting of the Friends. Officers re-elected were: Dr. Hugh Metcalfe, Chairman; Miss Diane Coombes, Secretary, Mrs. Gwen Hambly, Treasurer, Mr. Laurence Grand, Financial Advisor.

Ancient Ceremony

The ancient custom of 'Crying the Neck' took place on Wednesday last in a field owned by Mr. Bill Dawe of Pennant Farm. The event was arranged by members of the Wadebridge branch of the Old Cornwall Society, whose President, Miss Garland spoke, in Cornish, a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the end of the harvest. This was then repeated in English by the Rector. Members of the Society and others were welcomed by secretary Mr. Harold Barriball from Trelights and then the group made its way to St. Endellion Church where a short service of thanksgiving was held. After the service all present were welcomed the Church hall for pasties, saffron buns and tea.

Wave of Prayer

The United Benefice branch of the Mothers' Union shared in Truro Diocese's participation in the organisation's world-wide annual Wave of Prayer, with a service in St. Peter's Church, Port Isaac. This year, Truro Diocese was linked in prayer with the dioceses of Nelson, New Zealand, Barbados, West Indies and Shaba, Zaire. The service, with its theme of 'To live and work to God's Praise and Glory' was led by the Revd. Judith Pollinger, Curate.

Healing Eucharist

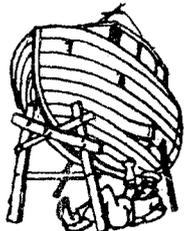

The United Benefice healing group held its first service since the summer break in St. Endellion church on Wednesday last. At the

Prayer, Praise, and Picnic

Branch Leader, Mrs. Pam Richards and members of the United Benefice branch of the Mothers' Union joined with members from other branches in a prayer, praise, and picnic at St. Teath led by the Revd. Sherry Bryan, Priest-in Charge.

Cream Tea Raises Funds

Many people from a wide area enjoyed a Cornish cream tea in bright sunshine on the lawn of Bodannon Farm, Trewetha, on Wednesday last. Over £260 was raised for St. Endellion Church funds from this enjoyable event. The Rector, thanked Mr. and Mrs. Roger Richards for their hospitality.

Evening Worship with Taizé Music

Icons illuminated by the light of many candles created an atmosphere of peace and beauty in St. Endellion Church on Sunday evening when the regular monthly service of evening worship with Taizé music was held. The Rector arranged and led the service, including a meditation on the Blessed Virgin Mary whose Feast Day it was.

Confirmation Classes

Confirmation classes have begun in St. Endellion Rectory for adults and children from the three parishes of the United benefice. Candidates will be confirmed in early October by the Rt. Revd. Michael Ball, Bishop of Truro, on his last visit to St. Endellion before his retirement.

LOTTERY LUCK

Port Isaac Pre-School Playgroup has been awarded a National Lottery Grant of £2,050, paid in three instalments over three years.
This was awarded on two points:

1. To help cover running costs, thus enabling money from fund raising to be used for equipment.
2. To subsidise play sessions for children whose families may find it hard to meet the cost of more than one session a week, thus enabling all children in the Port Isaac area to have access to a very important factor in their social and physical development which provides a good preparation for school.

For more details telephone 880648 or 880840.

*On behalf of the committee,
Debby Bidgway Playleader.*

Please note this is the correct spelling of Debby's name - not as we had it last month!
