Issue No. 9
November 1982

A Community Newsletter for the residents of PORT ISAAC, TRELIGHTS and PORT GAVERNE. Published by the Village Hall Committee and produced by voluntary effort. Revenue from advertising is used to offset the costs of duplicating.

Editorial

It was during the saxon period that the idea of the village church took shape. They began erecting churches on their manors, with priests specifically associated with particular feudal communities. The church turned out to be more lasting than feudalism, villages changed and grew around them, but for a very long time they were the focal point of village life, often the largest, most splendid structure in the village, visible to the traveller before any other sign of human presence, where baptism, marriage, and burial repeated the tale of generations and provided the first population records.

The church was the village hall, a place of entertainment as well as worship. The nave, uncluttered by pews, was a place for parish meetings, church-ales, and general revelry on saints' days and holidays.

The sight of clustered dwellings grouped around the church symbolises to many the sense of comfort and continuity: of home. Whatever our religious denomination, it is to home and family that our thoughts turn at Christmas. Not just immediate family but to friends and neighbours, and to the strife ridden brotherhood of man to which we all belong.

Despite our long history of miserable failure, if enough of us go on believing in peace on earth and good will to all men, we may yet achieve it.

PLEASE don't complain to your newsagent if you don't get your copy of 'Trio'. The newsletter is distributed voluntarily and newsagents may stop doing this if it becomes a nuisance. All complaints should be made to Robin Penna, Port Isaac 292, who will try to see that you get a copy somehow.

We print 350 copies of each issue of 'Trio' for free distribution to residents in its electoral parish. If anyone would like extra copies of the newsletter, they can order them in advance from either of the two addresses below, at 5p. per copy, or if you would like them sent to an inland address this can be done for 20p. per copy (inc. envelope and second-class postage).

Golden Circle

Please note that in future the weekly afternoon meetings will be held in the Cornish Cafe by kind permission of Mr. David Phelps.

St. Endellion Church should be our Parish Church. It is, after all, the Parish of St. Endellion. Parochial parishes are, of course, different from electoral ones, but all the same, it does seem natural - and it is such a beautiful church, set in such a splendid position.

The last incumbent, Canon Walter Prest, retired twelve months ago and since then the congregation have been waiting for a new incumbent. However, Bishop Cartwright, ex Bishop of Plymouth, has been looking after them since his retirement at the end of 1981. He is assisted by Rev. E. Dunford, and Rev. A. Wright, together with the Church Wardens, W. Pethick and R. Richards.

Bishop Cartwright, who now lives at Treligga, has recently been appointed assistant to the Bishop of Truro.

The services at St. Endellion are usually very well attended, and there will be normal Christmas services (see the Diary page). There may also be other functions around the Christmas time and these will be in this month's diary or you can ask the Church Wardens.

Members of the Church Council wish everybody a very Happy Christmas

Where's it to?

Competition

The answer to last month's Competition was: Rose Cottage, Trelights. The first correct solution opened was from Mrs. A. E. Cowling, Chapel Villa, Trelights who gets the £2.00 prize. Other correct answers were received from: Miss V. Baker, Tolraggott, Mrs. E. Beare; Mrs. E. Blake; and Louise Hall; Trelights, and Sam Blake; Charlie Honey; C. Saundry; Mrs. B.E. Wherry; and Mrs. D. Williams; Port Isaac.

We have decided to make the puzzle more difficult this month and have chosen a place on one of our public footpaths that will only be known to walkers!

It is also our first attempt to reproduce a photograph in Trio, and may mean that it is impossible to recognise!

Solutions in by Jan. 21st. for the £2.00 prize please.

P.I.Ps. Panto

The Port Isaac Players are well into rehearsals for their pantomime: Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. The cast has swollen so much that we are beginning to wonder if anyone will be left for an audience.

For Sale

Jones straight stitch electric sewing machine. Several attachments. Perfect working order. £12. Phone P.I. 391 for all types of letting accommodation. Produced cheaply and quickly. Quantities from 50 to as many as you need. For details, ask Robin Penna, Blackthorn Crafts Shop, 18 New Road, Port Isaac. Tel. Port Isaac 292.

CRCC

Oliver Baines of Cornwall Rural Community Council has written congratulating us on the excellence of 'Trio'. The Council were interested, and agreed with, last month's Editorial. They intend to include an article in the next issue of their 'News' which would benefit from a photograph of the filming of 'My Cousin Rachel'. If anyone has some photographs would they be kind enough to let Robin Penna have some to pass on to them, before the middle of January if possible.

TV Titles

The Fancy Dress Party, 'TV Titles' held by the St. Endellion Branch of the North Cornwall Conservative Association at the Port Gaverne Hotel last Saturday was well attended. Prizes for best costumes were won by Joan and Arthur Lee, and Margaret Flanagan.

Thanks

Thank you to Angela Collins and Charles Perry for their Hallowe'en donation to the Cancer Research Campaign.

Hint

If cream seems 'doubtful' one drop of brandy or rum will dispel any slight stale taste.

Accident

Paul Oaten whose CB 'handle' is JOE 90, was badly hurt in the accident on October 8th. He is now in traction in hospital and it seems he won't be home again until February at the earliest.

White Cottage

We were a bit alarmed to see that one of Port Isaac's oldest buildings, the White Cottage, Roscarrock Hill, was being pulled down, but the cottage is to be rebuilt in the same style apparently.

Coffee Bar AGM

Helpers are still needed as 1 committee member plus a helper wanted each night. It was decided to hold the Coffee Bar on Friday evenings only now till more helpers available. It will be tried to run an outing like last year's to Adam and the Ants. A set of 'Disco Lights' is to be purchased, also a fan heater. Another video game may be bought if a grant is available. Chief Fire Officer to be consulted about a suitable fire extinguisher for the club. It is also hoped to repair the snooker table. It was regretted that no member of the church council had attended to discuss re-decorations, etc.

Planning

Planning permission is being sought for a single dwelling house with garage/parking at The Manor House, Port Isaac.

The Railway Plays

By Steven Dawe.

On Tuesday 2nd. November, Port Isaac School went to Wadebridge School which is about 20 times as big as our school.

We went to Wadebridge to sing songs about railways, and act plays.

Port Isaac's play was about three farmers who were talking about their turnips. Some were big and some were small. There were 10 other schools besides us and they all did a play about Cornwall's railways as well.

We had to do an introduction to the songs and were the

We got home about 3.35pm. and left Port Isaac School about five minutes later.

Wine of the Month

As Christmas is upon us, we thought you might like something special this month. This recipe is easy and non winemakers can make it successfully as well.

HOMEMADE BAILEY'S (TYPE) LIQUEUR

1 large tin evaporated milk, 4 eggs, 6 fl.oz. sugar syrup, 9 fl.oz. whisky, 2tbsp. brandy, 1½ tsp. vanilla essence, 4 tsp. T. Noirot Cacao essence (try Taylors, chemist in Wadebridge). Sugar syrup made by 1pt. water on 1lb. sugar and bringing to boil (makes more than 6 fl.oz.).

Separate yolks, add to evap. milk, sugar syrup, and vanilla. Liquidise or whisk till well blended. Fit a basin on top of saucepan of boiling water. Put liquid into basin and cover with a lid. Cook very slowly stirring away from sides frequently - the slowness gives it the creamy taste and can take an hour or more. Jog the pan and if the mixture flops away from the sides like cooled jelly it is ready, but it must be really thick. Allow to cool. Then liquidise (preferably) or whisk, the whisky, brandy, and Cacao essence in (1½ min. liquidiser - longer whisking). Bottle and leave for 24 hrs. It is now ready to drink but will keep for several weeks in refrigerator. Costs less than half the price of the real thing.

Have a Merry Christmas!

Fred's Recipe

CAPE BANANAS
From Cape Province,
South Africa.

Fry 4 peeled bananas in butter until light brown. Add 2 heaped tbsp. brown sugar, 2 tbsp. Cranberry Sauce, 1 small glass med. sherry, and grated nutmeg to taste. Cook slowly till syrupy. If desired, warm 1 tbsp. brandy in small metal jug, ignite and pour, flaming, over the bananas at the table. Serve with fresh cream.

Port Isaac Singers

The Singers won the Advanced Class for Ladies Choirs at the Camborne Music Festival on Wed. 17th. November, competing against four other choirs. In the Adjudicator's summing up he said the Singers had 'beautiful blend and tone, excellent diction, great discipline and musicality'.

Daisy's Sale

The Sale at Locarno Flats by Daisy Hicks on 16th. November raised £453 for the Stoke Park Hospital, Bristol. Another £56 was raised by raffling a painting by Austin Scantlebury.

Sea Wall

The new sea-defence wall at Port Isaac harbour is now beginning to show its shape. The contractors will no doubt soon be given a taste of the kind of weather that it will have to stand up to!

Village Hall

Arrangements are being made for the Christmas Fair and several organisations have asked if they may take part.

The Band of Hope china will be on display and sets may be for sale after those already spoken for have been collected and paid for.

Cancer Research

The Coffee Morning run by Mrs. Pam Richards at Bodannon Farm on 17th. November raised £167 in aid of Cancer Research Funds.

NOTE:

The January meeting of the Parish Council will probably be held at Trelights on the second Monday in the month.

Parish Council

The monthly meeting for November was held on Monday the 8th. in the Church Rooms.

Bellringers

There are now six new young ringers and it was thought worthwhile to encourage the belfry team by a donation of £10 towards some curtains.

E.Cornwall Hospital

A vote of thanks for £25 for the appeal, raised one night on Port Isaac Platt by the Port Isaac Singers. The Fireworks Night at Port Gaverne raised £42.90 for the same fund.

The Chairman, John Cunningham suggested that it would be a good idea to ask Rev. Larkin to show some of his old films of Port Isaac at Easter on behalf of the appeal.

Street Light, Mayfield

A letter is to be sent to SWEB asking if it will be possible to install a light on the steps down to Silvershell Road. It was thought that this could cost the Parish Council around £250.

Car Parking, Fore Street

As the response to the 'let's try and be sensible approach' has been so bad with cars parked everywhere in the street both day and night, it has been decided to ask the advice of the County Surveyor in trying to find a solution. It was also pointed out that it is an offence to park a vehicle in streets less than 24ft. wide and therefore a period for waiting cannot be sanctioned. At present many delivery lorries find it impossible to get to the shops, and it is a pity that there has not been more co-operation from car owners.

Rubbish on the Platt

The Dept. of the Environment replied to the previous idea of burning the rubbish with a warning that this might cause even greater problems of smoke and flying debris. A man could not be employed for the task in any case.

The Parish Council decided to repeat the circular sent out this year and to see if this could be included with the rates demands.

Overhead Wires, Playing Field

SWEB have agreed to try and divert the lines, but it is now necessary to apply for planning permission from the owners of the land to erect the new pole and stay wire.

Fire Hydrants

A letter to be sent to the Chief Fire Officer asking for these to be checked and flushed out. 'It will be too late if there's a fire'.

Road Surfaces, Trelights

The Highways Dept. are going to do improvements after the problems caused by drainage have been sorted out.

Youth Club

A donation of £10 was voted towards the Youth Club Association.

Notice Boards, Car Park

It was decided to accept Mr. Julian's tender of £40 for a new general-purpose board at the District Council car park.

Village Hall, Port Isaac

Cllr. Dawe said that he wished to give his assurance that the Hall was being managed properly, contrary to remarks he made in June. The Chairman announced that work to the area in front of the Hall would be done by the Youth Employment Scheme on days when the weather made it difficult to work on the wall around the cliff path.

Plans were received from Mr. Sloman to provide two living units in Roscarrock Farmhouse. Agreement was given subject to the provisions pertaining to listed buildings.

The next monthly meeting will be held at Port Isaac Church Rooms at 7.30pm. on Monday December 13th.

The Chairman and Parish Councillors
of St. Endellion Parish Council

Next Issue

We have realised that it will be impracticable to try and produce an issue of Trio during Christmas week, so this is the 'festive' issue.

The next Trio will be out on Saturday January 29th. Please send any items for inclusion to Robin Penna - BEFORE FRIDAY JANUARY 21ST.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those kind people who have so generously made donations towards the production of Trio, this money will help to support the newsletter during the lean winter months.
