

The notice in September's issue of Trio, reporting the disbanding of the Port Isaac Brownie Pack leads me to ask the question, "Why can't someone find the time to keep this organisation going to ensure that these youngsters don't lose interest? Furthermore, why the absence of youth organisations in the village?"

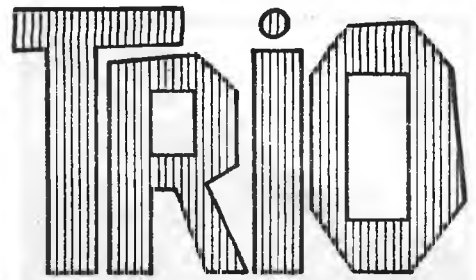

Surely there must be a wealth of talent around to interest both boys and girls from 11 years of age and upward to form a Sea Scout unit and a Girls' Nautical Training Corps for example. With the sea on our doorstep, so to speak, surely someone could pass on their knowledge of seamanship in all its aspects.

We have four excellent doctors here who I am sure could find some little time to lecture on first aid, etc. In addition, from personal experience, we have highly qualified nurses who could train the girls in Home Nursing, etc.

Perhaps parents who have children of 11 years upward, having read this article, would ask them to voice their opinions on the subject through the columns of Trio. Perhaps the editor might give thought to a Junior Section?

Finally, it would be a wonderful opportunity for such a unit to be attached to St. Peter's Church, to encourage youngsters to take a spiritual interest in life. With the coming of Reverend Hugh Fryer, himself an ex Navy man, we have someone who is keen to see more young people in the church.

COASTAL FOOTPATH

The new section from Pinhaven to Port Quin is now open to the public, but people are advised not to try and walk the path - presently marked by wooden pegs - until stiles, steps, scrub clearance, levelling, and sign-posting are done, hopefully this winter. It is a very arduous walk, particularly at the Port Quin end of Reedy Cliff.

LETTER

Mike and Barbara-Jane Paris (formerly Bower) would like to thank Port Isaac for making their Wedding on 6th. October a happy, memorable occasion. It must be said that the church at St. Endellion and reception venue (the Old School) are an instantaneous recipe for success beyond which the support we received from villagers, friends, and family was overwhelming (or as Mike would say - 'out-standing' please adopt vaguely american accent here!!)

We have been instructed by all our foreign guests to convey their love and thanks to all who made them welcome and a special mention here is to Mr. Warner and his staff at the Old School who put on a Reception which made us very proud of our English home. The combination of 15th. Cent. church mingled with turn of the century rural Cornwall was positively invaded by more than a touch of international colour in the four bridesmaids from France, groom and parents from the U.S.A., best man and ushers from W. Germany, not to mention the other 70 guests from as far afield as Lincoln, Cambridgeshire, Shropshire, Scotland, Wales, and the Channel Islands.

To you all - from us both, our love and thanks.

P.I. & DISTRICT R.N.L.I.

There will be a car boot sale at St. Kew Inn Car Park tomorrow Sunday 28th. October, 10.30am to 2pm. For a charge of £3 you may bring your car with items for sale. Enquiries: P.I. 383. Come along and get a bargain.

PORT ISAAC PLAYERS

There will be a meeting on Wed. Nov. 7th. at 8pm. in the Golden Lion. Any members wishing to be in the pantomime please attend as casting will be completed at this meeting. Any juniors please give their names to an adult member or the secretary: Jo Phillips, 46 New Road. New members are always welcome.

PORT ISAAC TENNIS CLUB

A committee has been formed and we have found that it will cost about £10,000 to provide us with an all weather tennis court.

We will be able to get 75% of this given to us in grants. That still leaves us with about £2,500 to raise ourselves. We have made a start, but it is going to take a lot of effort. If anybody has any ideas for fund raising or would like to help us, we would be very pleased to hear from you. Why not give us a ring, either Linda Gordon 652, or Sally Pavitt 683. We are having a Lunch in November so come along and meet us. (See 'Diary')

Views expressed in Trio are those of contributors and not necessarily of the editor.

COMPETITION

The lucky winner of the £2 prize this month is Barbara Richards of Mayfield Road, Port Isaac. The solution to the puzzle - Tregaverne Farm was also sent in by seven other readers: Antonietta and Steven Dawe of Pennant, Mrs.C.Gifford, Charlie Honey, D.R.Stroud, of Port Isaac, Suzanne Richards, Trewetha, and Mrs.E.F.W.May, Port Gaverne. Maybe one of them will be luckier this month. What is the name of the cottage shown at the top of this column? Your answers to Trio before deadline day.

The doll raffled by Daisy Hicks was won by Mrs. L. Seal, a visitor. £25.00 was raised.

VILLAGE HALL

Synopsis of meeting of the Committee at 84 Fore Street, Port Isaac, 3rd. October.

W.I. After various conversations with members of the W.I., we are pleased to announce that they will using the hall again after the winter.

Badminton. The Committee have offered to revise their hire charges to accommodate people wishing to use the hall for badminton.

Exterior of hall. Mr. Welton reported the willingness of the N.C.D.C. task force to do certain work, the cost of materials to be met out of hall funds. A site meeting will take place to discuss repairs and improvements, to see what is feasible and desirable prior to Mr. Welton contacting the N.C.D.C. again.

Autumn Fete. We thank everyone who has expressed an interest and all organisations which have offered to help. The Committee feel that a 25%

thank all organisations which have agreed to contribute this amount from their profits.

WOOLGATHERERS

Readers of Trio, have you any wool? small amounts, large amounts, even bags full? I can find use for whatever you've got. I knit for charity, that needs a lot. If you've got woollies, hand-knitted are best, send them to me and I'll do the rest. I am fond of knitting - don't think I am crazy.

All that I make I pass on to Daisy Hicks who does a grand job raising money for the handicapped. Any help you can give will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Law, 5 Church Hill,
Port Isaac. Tel. 751

THANKS

Mrs. Wherry and Melanie would like to thank Mr. David Phelps for giving all the proceeds from the Lunch held Wednesday 17th. October, also the members of his staff who gave their time, Mark and Carol Provis and the Bay Gift Shop for giving raffle prizes, and everyone who attended the lunch and made it such a success. A total of £114.00 was made for the Macmillan Nursing Service.

The Macmillan Service has told us that they received £302.02 in donations in memory of Mr. Wherry, and would like us to convey their sincere gratitude to all the friends and neighbours who contributed to this most generous sum which will be put to very good use for the benefit of other patients in their care.

Due to lack of support from the Port Isaac 'mums', Mrs. Ann Cleave will no longer be 'at home' to the Mother and Baby Club. Thanks to Mrs. James May and Samantha-Mary who attended every meeting.
