

BROWNIES

A very successful Coffee Morning was held at the home of Mrs. Pru Savell, raising £83.45 for Brownie funds. The Brownies wish to thank all those who supported them, and many grateful thanks to Mrs. Savell, Di Benz, and Chrissie Coshall for all their hard work. The rapidly expanding Brownie Pack has enjoyed the past two terms, with five new recruits being enrolled by the District Commissioner, and several new members soon to take their 'promise'. They have been working hard, too, and have obtained 'Hostess', 'Agility', 'Toymaker', and 'Safety in the Home' badges as well as enjoying fun and games. Now the fine weather is on the way, they will enjoy outdoor activities with other Packs. We still have room for more Brownies so if you are between 7 and 10, come along and join us on Tuesdays at 6pm. in the Methodist Sunday School Rooms.

Cindy Powell (Brown Owl).

VILLAGE HALL - A.G.M.

The Annual General Meeting of Port Isaac Village Hall is being held on Tuesday May 13th. (a little late this year), when the outgoing committee will explain what progress has been made in the past year and what the present state of affairs is. They hope that many people will attend to offer their criticisms and suggestions to the committee and to share in the free coffee and biscuits. A new committee is to be elected for the coming year. The hall is an asset which belongs to the whole village so its running concerns you and your views are of prime importance, so come and give them. p.s. anyonewannabeonthecommittee?

PORT ISAAC SCHOOL

School Sign. We hope you have all noticed this. The original design was done by Lisa Dingle of Hartland Road. She is now a pupil of Sir James Smith's school, Camelford. The fish and lobster pots epitomise Port Isaac. The crest is now used on all school stationery. Thanks very much Lisa.

Sponsored Read. Many thanks to all parents and friends who sponsored the children. It looks as if we have almost reached our target of £300 and hope to order our new video cassette recorder at the beginning of the summer term.

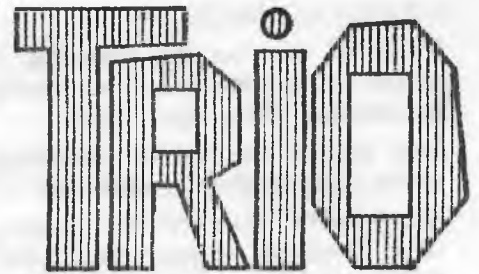

Mr.I.M.Bruce.

ROOF RAISERS

I went to the fund-raising concert in aid of the St. Peter's Church Roof Repair Fund, on Saturday 19th. April, mainly out of loyalty, but soon discovered to my pleasure, that we were on the receiving end of a very splendid show. A full and appreciative house enjoying the best of local talent, both young people and adults. It would perhaps be invidious to pick out more than a handful among the enthusiastic performers but special mention ought to be made of all the children who sang, recited, and played, of Coz the Clown, Robin Penna's splendid jazz piano, Marion Fellows' sympathetic folk-singing, Rupert Kirby's virtuoso violin playing and singing, and Joanna Brown's stunning debut as a character actress. Jo Phillips can be proud of her production and Port Isaac of its variety fund-raisers who raised about £120 for the Fund.

Graham Tayar.

It was with sadness that residents learned of the death at her home, 6 Middle Street, Port Isaac, of Mrs. Doris Mills. She came to reside here from Surrey 46 years ago. She was a regular member of the Women's Fellowship. The funeral service on Monday 14th. April was attended by many of her neighbours and friends, at Roscarrock Hill Methodist Church. Our sympathy is expressed to Douglas and his family.

PARISH COUNCIL

Notes of the monthly meeting at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, on Monday 14th. April 1986.

Mrs. Barron chaired the meeting in Mr. Cunningham's absence.

Mr. Symons reported that money from Trelights Village Hall fund might possibly be used towards a stone shelter at Coronation Park.

Cllr. Dawe reported that the seat had been put on 'Letter Box' Green as arranged. He also said that the new street lights for Port Isaac would be 'lantern' type with white, not orange, lights.

Improvements to the B.3314 will have to wait for some money to be available.

Finance

£500 to be taken out of deposit to cover expenses, including £325 for the Churchyard grant.

Annual Parish Meeting

Miss Richmond would not be able to attend but it was arranged for her to meet the Council in private after the June meeting. Councillors were asked to help with the cost of providing the coffee and biscuits.

North Cornwall Heritage Coast

The Service is to waymark and carefully maintain three specific 'circular walks' in this parish.

Footpaths

Tenders for clearing the paths are to be advertised as usual. It was reported that St. Kew Parish Council had held a site meeting to see whether an alternative route for the Port Gaverne Valley path couldn't be created along the edge of the stream up to a point near Pendoggett House.

Cartway Cove

The clerk informed the Council that the Heritage Coast Service had cleared all the refuse away from the cove. [Netting has been erected to stop tipping there.]

Litter Bin, Port Gaverne

The National Trust are to install a larger bin. Councillors feel that it is not in the right place.

Annual Audit of Accounts

This will take place on June 16th.

Camelford Heart Machine Appeal

£5000 was raised last year for this and now £4500 for the companion 'defibrillator' is needed. We are a long way from hospital casualty departments and the Camelford ambulance is often used for this area. It was decided to discuss this matter fully at the June meeting.

Community Bus

The Cornwall Rural Community Council's proposals of six buses for the cuncy have been agreed in principle and £30,000 (50% of the cost will be available). In the next eight weeks applicants must send in full details to enable CRCC to decide where the buses can be allocated in September.

Planning

Mrs.J.M.Chamberlain, extension to garage to form dwelling, Clematis Cottage, Trelights: No observations, other than a request that Delabole slate be used for the hanging slates.

Mr.D.Knight, extensions, new garage, vehicular access and alterations, Port Isaac: Difficult access discussed, and unsuitability of certain windows for a conservation area.

A letter was received from Messrs. Philip Mutton concerning the site adjacent to St. Peter's Church. No action was taken on this as it was felt that any communications should come from the Planning Authority.

Mr. Grover, conversion to dwelling, Old Carpenter's Shop, Trelights: No action as it was known that this had already been done.

Erection of replacement garage, Hillside Cottage, Trelights: Again no action as work already completed. A Councillor asked, 'Why do they keep sending us plans after the work has been done?'

Public Discussion

Mr. Lobb from Trelights said that he felt that there was no need to go through the plans as the planners take no notice anyway. He also requested that yellow lines should be painted on the roads in Trelights otherwise there will be a crash. This will be discussed at the June meeting.

It was reported that a number of cars are being parked on and around 'Letter Box' Green at Trelights. Also that cars were cutting across the grass verge at Trewetha corner and that the corner at Poltreworgey was badly cluttered.

It was hoped that the workmen putting up the new fence at the car park, Port Isaac, would take the old concrete posts away that are lying in the grass.

Next Monthly Meeting

This will be the Annual Meeting and will be held on Monday 12th. at 7.30pm. (The Annual Meeting is not the same as the Public Meeting, it is when the Officers for the following year are elected.)

Note: These reports are taken down while the meetings are in progress. It is not always easy to hear what is being said so it isn't possible to guarantee that they are 100% correct. Ed.

TELEPHONE FAULTS

Will all subscribers please report any faults to the engineers - 151 immediately. They must have specific information as soon as the difficulty is experienced if they are to trace such problems as 'crossed lines', for instance.

BODMIN & WENFORD RAILWAY

On Easter Monday the Bodmin & Wenford Railway moved their AC Railbus into Bodmin General station from J. Kemble's siding at Walker Lines. The vehicle has to be fitted with an engine and gearbox before it can be used. Some 50 members helped out during the day, generally tidying the site of the goods yard and were able to welcome our first visitors. Early erection of buildings is planned and donations of building equipment or materials will be very welcome.

THE PASTY

by Robert Andrews and his Mum.

As I was walkin' down
through Port,
Looking out to sea,
I saw a darn great pasty!
And it flew right past me.

I knew it had to be one
of me mum's,
Cause the pastry looked so light,
But I can tell 'ee 'ere 'n now
It gave me such a fright.

Down Rose 'ill I chased 'un,
You couldn't see me for dust,
But I wanted to eat 'un up
for tea,
So to catch 'un was a must.

I followed 'un down to the beach
With me 'ook and line,
And I thought I nearly caught 'un
But ee dodged me just in time.

Then 'ee flew into the pub
With me in hot pursuit!
Manny thought she'd sell 'un,
To make her lots of loot.
"Hands off, he belongs to me
'cause I've bin chasin' after 'ee."
So I took 'un home to Mum,
And now that flying pasty,
Is safe inside my tum.

Port Isaac men rounded up in A.R.C.'s 50th. Anniversary Year.

The women members of the Port Isaac branch of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Council are on the lookout for men at the moment. The reason? - the theme of this year's National Arthritis week is 'Men and Arthritis', and they are challenging the Port Isaac mere males to join them in the fight against rheumatic diseases. See Trio 'Diary' for fund raising events already planned, but we want you men to help too. A darts tournament has been promised - more information later - but any additional fund-raising offers from our menfolk will be most gratefully accepted. Contact Mrs. Hooper, tel: 880404

COMPETITION

Nobody got last month's puzzle completely right but Jayne Woods can come to the Trio office (18 New Road) and collect £2 for her answer 'The stile down from Long Cross Hotel. [It would have been better to mention that it is on the drive to Roscarrock.] The building in the background is Homer Park Hotel.' Mark and Steven Dawe said 'Roscarrock Lane' but thought the buildings were Trefreock; you can't see Trefreock from that stile! There were no other nearly correct solutions.

Another difficult one this month, I think. What is the name of this cottage peeping out from the foliage? £2 prize for the lucky winner who sends in a correct answer before Friday 23rd. May.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The meeting on Thursday 17th. April was well attended as usual. Parish Council Chairman John Cunningham gave us a summary of events for the past year and reminded us that the elections will be next year.

He said we would get a minibus if we put up a good case. Mark Prout is being kept informed. Three new seats have been given to the Parish, but there has been much expensive vandalism.

Charlie Julian is no longer able to do Council work but John Sweet has taken over now.

The ramp for the disabled at the Village Hall was too big a job to be done by the intended scheme. Three lorry loads of rubbish have been taken away from Cartway Cove. Please don't tip there.

The Car Park information map is being amended.

The sign 'Port Gaverne' is in place at China Down.

The 'old fashioned' lantern type street lights will be introduced in the next three years. Report failures of street lights to the Clerk to the Council please.

Trio is 'very worthwhile' and received a donation again.

Thanks to all the drivers of the Voluntary Hospital Car Service. Two more volunteer drivers are needed.

The Christmas decorations were extremely good, thanks to Eric & Audrey and their gang of helpers.

If you want more trees in Port Isaac - let the Council know.

The Wendy House at the playing field was costly, but the mothers paid for the slide.

Finally he thanked all Parish Councillors for their support and the Clerk, Barbara Willmott for her hard work.

Planning Officer, Tony Philp, spoke about Planning Regulations and the attempt at an Article IV Order. He outlined the need for special restraints in places with a significant heritage where changes can alter the character. It is proposed to consult with the Parish Council then employ an architect to prepare a document as was done in Boscastle in 1976. This would be a detailed guide to suitable building materials, etc. Not a statutory but a voluntary arrangement. This will happen over the next six months or so.

County Councillor Harvey Lander spoke about rates rises to keep up the standards we are used to and welcomed the new support grant system for 1986/87.

The increases are reduced due to sums from the central exchequer as we are a low-spending county, but the government say that we should spend £10,000,000 more! The new 'Access to Information' act puts a great strain on the County Council as everything must now be kept ready to hand. Any particular department, eg. the Department of Trade, has a mass of different Acts of Parliament to administrate.

A scheme is in action to improve the B.3314 turning into Trelights, and a site meeting is to be held in Rose Hill in May/June.

Fire Officer Macaulay told us how local services were organised and contingencies for dealing with an outbreak in the village using a Land Rover type of vehicle.

Under the Fire Precautions Act, fire officers can enter any place used by the public - whether they pay or not - and, if unsatisfactory, have it closed until the required standards are achieved.

Police Inspector Hawkey detailed the criminal activities of the year and the success in dealing with it. People should report things to the police when they know something or have a suspicion.

The response to the 'Surgeries' on Monday evenings, 6.30-7.00, is limited. 'Use the facility or we may need to withdraw it', he said.

Community Policeman David LeBailly felt the 'Neighbourhood Watch' scheme wouldn't work in Port Isaac but perhaps somebody would like to act as a 'post box' in which case they would like to hear from any nominees.

There had been 36 'crimes' in our area in the year - 15 burglaries, 10 theft/deceptions, 2 assaults, 1 theft from a vehicle, and 8 cases of criminal damage.

There had been 14 detections. He urged people not to leave valuables in changing rooms, etc, and to make any 999 calls without delay.

Charles David of North Cornwall Heritage Coast Service told us the main objectives were:

Landscape Conservation, Development of Recreation Facilities Information, Conservation of Wildlife, and Reduction of Conflicts (eg. between tourism and people working).

He will be making the Service known and making contacts during the next few months.

In the 'Public Discussion' the danger to schoolchildren running down Rose Hill and possibly into a fast-moving car was voiced by

'Annual Parish Meeting' contd.

Revd. Dunford. Mrs. McCrohon asked what was the danger when no one could drive fast there. Mrs. Coates said that she hoped any yellow lights removed, when new street lighting is introduced, will be replaced by ones of equal efficiency. Mr. Jack Rowe asked if the lights could be on all night. Mr. Mark Provis questioned the planning procedure in connection with new council housing in Trelights. Mr. Philp replied that council houses go through same procedure as normal applications and that comments should have been made by the public at the appropriate time. Dr. Barron asked what use it was sending plans to the Parish Council after the works had been done. Mr. Philp replied that it was not illegal to build without planning permission but if the plans were not passed there was a risk that buildings might have to be demolished. Mr. Penna asked what plans there were to alleviate the problems with traffic in Fore Street and Church Hill. Cllr. Dawe said that the opportunity had been missed years ago. At this point the lights went out and we were left in total darkness for some minutes. Mr. Orchard asked what would happen if a fire appliance tried to negotiate Fore Street when there were 15-20 cars parked there. Police Inspector Hawkey said that the problem was of our own making. If people parked with a bit more common sense, the difficulty would not arise. If the situation does not improve, there may have to be some prosecutions for obstruction of the highway. Mrs. Dingle said apart from the danger to children from cars on Rose Hill, what about the danger from dogs fouling footpaths?

Coffee, tea, sandwiches, and biscuits were served - free of charge - which gave the public a good chance to talk to the speakers in an informal fashion.

Dear Sir, The world is a small place. My jazzband, the 'Crouch and All Stars', occasionally plays at the '100 Club' in Oxford Street, London. Britain's oldest and most distinguished traditional jazz club. To my amazement, I discovered one evening that the owner, Roger Horton, lived as a child at Homer Park Farm - then owned by Mr. and Mrs. Worden - went to the village school for five years in the 1940's, and still thinks of Port Isaac with affection. Are any of his primary school contemporaries (he is 50) still around - and do they remember him? PS. Oddly enough, Quentin Blacke, the present proprietor of Homer Park used to be a customer at the '100 Club'! Graham Tayar.

It seems that we made a mistake in Mrs. Brown's letter in February which prompted this reply:

Dear Sir, I was moved by the plight of the 'feudal' cats. One certain way to get rid of them would be to throw the Domesday Book at them, though it is possible that if this were tried, their 'feral' nature would make them elusive targets. James Platt, Voorschoten, The Netherlands.
