

PORT ISAAC CONSERVATION AREA

Earlier this year, I reported in Trio that the District Council had decided to prepare design guidelines for Port Isaac, setting out how best to carry out building and repair work in the Conservation Area, irrespective of whether planning permission is required. This initiative followed on from the Secretary of State's refusal to allow planning control over small-scale works which can easily damage the character of the village.

A report has now been prepared putting forward design guidelines and identifying other possible improvements in the village. The next step will be to prepare a leaflet for all property owners in the Conservation Area setting out the design guidelines in a concise and attractive way. However, before taking the matter any further, the District Council wishes to consult local people. Therefore a public meeting has been arranged for 7.30pm. on Friday 14th. November in the Church Rooms, Port Isaac.

This initiative to protect the character of Port Isaac will only work if it has the support and cooperation of local people. I hope as many people as possible will be interested enough to come along to the public meeting on 14th. November.

Tony Philp
Planning & Development Officer
North Cornwall District Council.

P.I.D.A.T.

The Port Isaac and District Tourism Association will be holding a Public Meeting at St. Peter's Church Hall on Tuesday 28th. October at 7.30pm. This is a very important meeting because it will lay the foundations for the Association. Everybody in any way affected by tourism in this area should make the effort to attend. The strength and influence of the Association depends on the backing it gets.

On behalf of Jill, James, and myself, I would like to thank everybody for their cards and best wishes, and for all the practical help given during my illness. Thanks everybody.

John McDonnell.

Will you please thank everyone who made our Golden Wedding such a happy occasion, and all who helped in any way, and for all the presents.

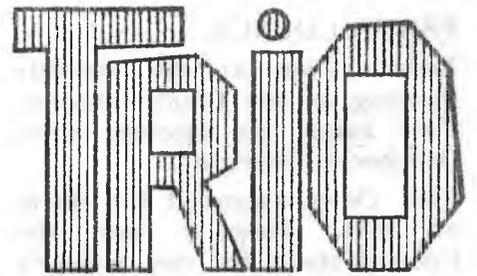

Chris & Ivy Hewitt, Trelights.

MRS. PENGELLY

St. Kew Parish Church was crowded to capacity on October 13th. for the funeral service of Mrs. Enid Joy Pengelly aged 61 years, who died at the East Cornwall Hospital, Bodmin, after a short illness. Revd. Hugh Fryer in his address spoke of Joy's kindness to so many people in the district especially at her home, Trewithick Farm, Trelights. Our deepest sympathy goes to Richard, her mother Mrs. Nancy Littleton, and her brother John.

PETER MASON

Also on 13th. October the funeral service was held at St. Peter's Church, of Mr. Peter Anderson Mason, aged 61 years, of 3 Mayfield Road, who died at the Mount Edgcumbe Hospice after a very long illness the previous Wednesday. Peter and Hazel Mason were formerly proprietors of Tre-Pol-Pen Hotel. We offer our sympathy to his widow and family. The cremation was at Penmount and the ashes were interred at St. Endellion Churchyard.

PARISH COUNCIL

Notes taken at the monthly meeting at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, on Monday 13th. October at Trelights.

Cllr. Dawe reported the death of Mrs. Pengelly and the Council stood for one minute's silence.

The Planning Department had expressed annoyance over the request to delay plans for 91 Fore Street. The matter of the 1972 enforcement was not under consideration now.

Bus Shelter, St. Endellion

Cllr. Dawe asked for £465 towards the cost of materials as suggested September 1985. This will be considered at the next meeting when all relevant documents are to be produced. More Children are now using the bus said Cllr. Dawe.

Christmas Lights, Trelights

£40 to start a scheme for decorative lights in the village was donated by the Parish Council to Mr. Barriball who is to form a committee for this purpose. There is also to be a Christmas tree on the 'triangle' [known as 'letterbox'].

Christmas Lights, Port Isaac

It is hoped to extend the lights up Roscarrock Hill and Church Hill this year and a donation of £75 towards this was proposed and accepted 'nem con'.

Proposed Toilets, Port Gaverne

The District Council have reservations about the standard of these, although plans have been passed, and Mr. Pyeman is to visit the site on 23rd. October to check. 'Why now', Mr. Bolton asked, 'when it has all gone through?' If the scheme is accepted, the District Council is to pay £5000 for the work.

Fencing, Playing Fields

The matter of a fence to stop balls from going into the garden of the adjacent property is to be discussed by the 'Joint-user Committee' of members from the Parish Council and the Education Authority.

Conservation Guidelines

A Public Meeting is to be held jointly with the Parish Council on Friday 14th. November [see advertisement in this issue]. The District Council will try to notify non-resident owners of property in the old village.

Marshall Way, Trelights

The above name was accepted for the road in the new estate on Tolraggott Field.

Port Isaac Mill Pond

A Manpower Services Commission scheme is being used by our Heritage Coast Officer to improve the paths around the old mill pond, to clear some of the trees out, and refill it. The danger to children, who could fall in if no fence was erected, was raised by Mr. Symons.

Need for Vigilance

Cornwall Rural Community Council again stressed the need for Parish Councillors to attend meetings of District Planning Committees, etc. to keep themselves informed of what is going on at other levels of local government.

St. Kew Community Bus

Cllr. Dawe said that Mr. Bruce and himself were the only persons present from St Endellion at the meeting at St. Kew Highway. If we are to get a bus for ourselves, a lot more interest must be shown. There may be another allocation of six buses next year and a proper committee should be formed now. The ground work has already been done and Mrs. Sweett of Trethoway Hotel has the file.

Rubble from 'St. Illicks'

The masonry from the demolished building [once known as 'The Wrennery, because women of the W.R.N.S. - 'Wrens' - were stationed there during the war] has been tipped over the cliff and a complaint is to be made to the District Council.

Planning

Mr. Ken Richards, Dwelling on land adjacent to 'Coldstanton'. No observations.

Public Discussion

Mrs. Haygreen asked for the misleading sign 'Furze Park only' to be removed, and for a sign 'St. Endellion Lane' to be put up. 'I don't live in 'Furze Park', she said, 'and I have even had people asking me "How far to the Park?".'

Mr. Penna asked whether a record of street light failures could be kept again in order to try and improve the present conditions where many lights are out for weeks on end.

Peter Blake thanked Cllr. Dawe for remembering his father by the name 'Marshall Way'.

Next Meeting

The next monthly meeting of St. Endellion Parish Council will be on Monday 10th. November in the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, at 7.30pm.

PORT ISAAC SCHOOL

On Wednesday last, 8th. October, class one visited the harbour to gain inspiration for some poetry. We went to listen to the sounds of the sea and to look at the beauty of the area. It didn't turn out quite like that. What we found and what the children thought follow.

Ian Bruce.

What Beauty Spot?

Is Port Isaac a beauty spot or not? That's what the top class of Port Isaac C.P. School put to the test. All 19 of them went down to the beach. 'What a mess' some of them said, 'Where's the beauty spot gone?' said others. 'No one's to blame it's just the old wellie left behind or tin can, but it soon starts adding. So please make sure you don't leave any rubbish on the beach, for everyone's sake.

Joanna Burnard.

Beach Rubbish Dump

About a week ago the top class of Port Isaac C. P. School went down to our lovely clean, tidy beach, ahem. Well at least we thought we were but when we got down there, we almost mistook the so-called beach for a rubbish dump. The place was a disgrace taking in the fact that it was meant to be a holiday resort. This is a list of some of the things we found: A car tyre, an old wellington boot, a mud flap from a car which was probably parked there and fell off, a grate, a drainpipe, and many more which I don't think I ought to mention but I really think the County Council ought to employ people to clean up the beach.

Paul James.

Beach Disgrace

Port Isaac beach is a disgrace. When I went down there, all I saw was litter, litter, litter. Bits of pipe, a tyre, an old glove, back light of a car, it was a disgrace. Port Isaac is supposed to be a holiday resort and I don't want to know what tourists and holiday makers think. the beach has glass and sharp cans on it. Someone could cut their feet. Port Isaac beach is a disgrace!

Tom O'Connor.

Is it a rubbish dump?

The other day we went down to the beach to see what ideas it gave for a poem but on the beach we found things like a mud flap and an old sealer bottle which most probably was thrown overboard a boat. I think it is a disgrace because what ever you throw into the sea is going to be washed up again, so please keep rubbish to yourself!

Jessica Bengier.

Beauty Spot?

Is Port Isaac really so lovely? The children of class 1 went down to the harbour to write down a few things about the beach. When it was time to go back to school Mr. Bruce called us. He then told us to go around and pick up a few things that shouldn't be there. We came back with all sorts of things. Here's a few of them: Old boot, sock, bits of car lights, sandal, tyre, the odd shampoo bottle, and all sorts. I think that it's a disgrace and to think that holiday makers come here!

Julia Williams.

HARBOUR OF LOVE

There is a warmth in these
valleys and hills
That counters the winters
gales and chills
The merciless cold of
granite and slate
Is tempered by souls that know not hate
A helping hand, and there's plenty here
Will lift a heart that knows despair
Eyes that are filled with tears of grief
For a child's voice stilled,
a span too brief
Are dried with a tender
hand that's caring
Together as one in sorrow
sharing
A mural in a chapel, a bench
with a plaque
Our sons and our friends, the memories flood back
Not all of us Cornish, not even one race
United in love of this
God-given place
A wedding of souls 'midst the rocks and the foam
With a passionate pride in this place we've made home

FLOAT OVER CLIFF!

The day the milk float nearly went over the edge of the Terrace (8th. October), the TSW cameraman got there at 7.45 in the morning, and the accident was shown on the news the same evening. How was this achieved?

TRELIGHTS CHAPEL

The members and friends of the Chapel enjoyed a happy and successful Harvest Festival week-end. On the Monday we were entertained by a Ladies' Quartet from Port Isaac. The amount raised for Chapel funds was £137.

VILLAGE HALL

No special page this month, there will be another when definite news is available.

Meanwhile a very successful fund-raising day was enjoyed last Saturday with a well-attended Autumn Fair at which the various stalls did good business and the hot lunch was very popular. In the evening the Bull and Bush (alias the Golden Lion) was packed with colourful cockney characters and a great sing-song was enjoyed to the accompaniment of a striped shirted, red neckerchiefed David Castle at the piano. Sylvia McCrohon won the prize for the best fancy dress and the prizes for the Grand Draw were distributed. Details of the amounts raised will appear in the next Trio.

LETTER

We make every effort to include all items received each month but sometimes long letters have to be left out. We can include one this month, though, because there is too much news for six sides, and there is enough in the kitty to pay for one extra side.

Dear Sir, I receive Trio fairly regularly from my friend Mrs. May at Port Gaverne and so renew memories of my life in Port Isaac.

Mrs. May has told me in her letter this week of the planned holiday tour up to Perth by Prout's coach, which she is going on. Now I'm wondering what the late Mr. Mark Prout would have made of that if anybody had told him in '47 that such a trip had been planned? When he came to my parents - the late Mr. and Mrs. T. Burrow who lived at Beulah, now Halcyon, Flats on The Terrace - to ask their advice. After a busy first season having used the coach for fetching visitors to and from Port Isaac Road station (no petrol for cars then) and arranging coach tours of Cornwall each week in their one and only coach, did my parents think he'd be wise to buy a second coach, and would there be enough trade to warrant that expense? My mother's answer was 'Yes, go ahead and get another one' which they did, and didn't regret as Port Isaac became a very popular place after the hardships of the war.

Each Sunday we used to troop down with a house party of our guests to the Wesley Chapel in the Valley for the services there.

It's good to know that 'village life' is once more alive and busy, as we found the coming of TV to the village, after the Queen's Coronation - then 3 or 4 sets only - did close down so much - the W. I. - Mother's Union - but not forgetting that the football team kept going. I think there must have been between 15 to 20 of us in Muriel and Jack Short's home, watching the Queen 'that day' on their small black and white set. I lived next door at Garrick and left my youngest son - in his Moses basket on the bed - to run in and see some of the celebrations for a while. Then my late husband would change places with me.

Many thanks for your interesting newsletter. Keep up the good work and help to bring back happy memories to those of us who have left the village but often wish they were back.

Mrs. Joyce Pascoe (nee Burrow),
Southampton.

CARS IN FORE STREET

The District Council Assistant Planning Officer has visited Port Isaac to see if anything can be done to alleviate traffic problems in the old part of the village. One possibility to be considered is the provision of facilities for a 'Park and Ride' system for visitors.

ST. ENDELLION CHURCH

A well-attended Eucharist for healing was held in the Rectory at St. Endellion on Wednesday 1st. October. Twenty-six communicants took part in the service and in special intercessions for the sick. Beautiful flowers and abundant harvest produce decorated St. Endellion Church for the Harvest Thanksgiving services on Sunday 5th. October. ## R.N.L.I.

The Lifeboat was called out following a report that there was a submerged boat off Varley. On arriving at the scene the lifeboat found that it was a chest freezer floating, but it did look like the top of a boat's cabin. The freezer was towed back to the harbour, and collected for disposal by the Council. The crewmembers were John Coshall, Mark Provis, and Bob Young. This call is logged as a false alarm with good intent. I would remind readers that it is an offence to dump items over the cliff and that this floating freezer might have caused damage to passing vessels.

The 4-legged Race held on 31st. July raised £845.98. The winning team for collecting the most sponsorship was from the Valley Caravan Park, Polzeath.

A very successful Harvest Festival and Auction was held at the Cornish Arms, Pendoggett. The sum of £386.10 was raised for the R.N.L.I. Thanks to all who gave gifts for the auction, to those who bought, to Neville Andrews the auctioneer, and to Alan Wainwright and Nigel Pickstone for their hospitality.
