

The Port Isaac, Port Gaverne and Trelights newsletter No: 195 • February 2000 • Price 25p

Not just another jumble sale .....

The date – Saturday March 4th 2000. The venue – Port Isaac Church Rooms. The time – 10.30am.

Just four weeks to go to our Hospice Day. Just enough time to start panicking. Will there be enough 'stuff' to sell, will people come?

'Stuff-wise' things seem to be going alright if the mountain of black bags in my mum's garage is anything to go by. Once again we seem to have a lot of good quality clothes plus several real bargains including an exercise machine and a once worn bridesmaid's dress and head-dress, size 10. Then there is the china, the books, the toys, the linen, the new stall, the cakes, etc etc. But we still need more so have a clear out and give me a ring (880905 or 880862) and I'll come and collect it or drop it off at the shop or the house.

Next on the agenda is help. Yes, we do need you so if you've got some time to spare on either Friday the 3rd or Saturday the 4th (or ideally both) then please give me a ring. We also need cakes and other home made goodies to sell – there never seems to be enough of these so get baking.

So on to the day. Frank McNichol has painted a special picture to be raffled. This is in addition to the raffle that will include some exceptional prizes which have been very kindly donated by local businesses and individuals. There will be lots of stalls plus a lucky dip for the children. There will be morning coffee and then there will be delicious home cooked lunches courtesy of Janet Chadband and her team. What better way to spend a Saturday morning?

Maybe we can beat last year's total? See you there.

Monster Music Quiz

You definitely do not need to be a music whiz-kid to take part in the Monster Music Quiz. And you definitely do not have to get up and sing (unless of course you want to!). You can be as competitive or as laid back as you like – it is being planned as a fun evening. Of course you can show off your musical knowledge or ability but it's not obligatory.

So buy your tickets – from Secrets or the Pottery - now because numbers are strictly limited. Entry is £5 per person and will include supper. The date is Saturday March 11th, the time is 7.30pm, the venue is the Pottery. All proceeds from the evening will go towards buying Port Isaac School their very own kiln.

Don't miss out on this great fun night.

Port Isaac 2000

will continue and has lots of ideas and plans for the year ahead. And of course, just in case next New Year's Eve is the one that should mark the Millennium, we will have to have our celebrations on the Platt again!

This year's New Year will be long remembered in everyone's minds. The success of the night on the Platt far exceeded our wildest dreams. It was a very special evening celebrating the switching on of our village clock and the start of the 21st Century.

There are so many people to thank. So to everyone who helped in any way, either in contributing to our fund raising, building the clock or helping on New Year's Eve – AN ENORMOUS THANK YOU.

Curry Evening

The next event on our agenda is the until the early hours. This was no hardship thanks to the fantastic efforts of the Port Isaac 2000 committee and the Lights committee who worked so hard to make New Year on the Platt such a wonderful night.

The Crew continue to hold exercises every Sunday at 10.30am (weather permitting) and winter instruction classes started on January 18th.

A very happy and successful 2000 from all the Crew and operational personnel at Port Isaac RNLI.

The first Trio of the 21st Century. It sounds like it should be something very futuristic and we should all be wearing silver 'Star Trek' type clothes. In reality things go on much the same as usual and I guess that's why most of us choose to live in this very special place.

'Special' is the only way to describe the village's Millennium celebrations. It is very difficult to describe what a special night it was. If you were there you know and we'll leave it at that.

Due to the bug (no, not the Millennium one but the fluey one), Ramblin' George has not been able to do part two of his historic view of the Parish. Everyone has said how much they enjoyed part one. Be patient and hopefully in the March or April issue.....

So, on to the usual reminder. This is your newsletter. Let us know what you would like to see in it. Put pen to paper. If you don't write it we can't print it! Sam & Dee

As far as 'shouts' were concerned, thankfully the Station remained quiet throughout December and into the New Year.

However, the Boathouse remained open to the public from 9.00am till dusk every day, including Christmas Day and New Years Day, with a Crew and Launching Authority available 24 hours a day.

Fortunately the 'Millennium Bug' did not strike, but just in case of a breakdown in communications (BT and radios), Ken Richards (HM Coastguard) and myself stood by in the Boathouse on New Years Eve

The Port Isaac branch AGM takes place on Wednesday March 1st 2000 in the Church Rooms starting at 7.30pm.

Everyone is welcome to come along - find out what's been going on during the past year and what is planned for the year ahead. The formalities will be kept to a minimum and a guest speaker is planned.

We look forward to seeing you.

Curry Evening and Singalong with the Fishermen's Friends at the Pottery on Saturday February 12th starting at 7.30pm. There are still a few tickets available - priced £5 each - from Secrets (01208 880862 or 880905), from the Pottery (01208 880625) or from Janet Chadband (01208 880262). During the evening there will be an auction of the draft designs that Barbara Hawkins produced for the Port Isaac 2000 Commemorative Mug plus the usual raffle and a 'Guess the Weight of the Salmon' competition - so bring your cheque books along!

Commemorative Mugs

Mugs are available for sale - £7.50 each - from either Secrets or Janet Chadband. Also, this is the last tender to those of you who reserved a mug for your child (or children). Please collect these by the end of the month.

What else?

We will be giving a special Port Isaac 2000 dial clock to the school for their Library. This should be ready for them soon.

A Karaoke Night for the Youth Club and local youngsters will take place soon. This is being organised by Jill McDonnell so give her a ring on 880031 if you want to know more.

One project we hope to get off the ground (or on the ground to be more correct) is to build a traditional Cornish stone bus shelter at the top of the village, probably near to Hartland Road.

Also, from an idea put forward by Caroline Cleave, the Port Isaac 2000 Walkway, ideally along the coast-path starting from near to Dennis Knight's right round to the steps. The plan is that each local organisation will be represented on a mosaic slab made from natural, local materials (such as stones from the beach). Initially we are contacting the Parish Council to see how we can progress this but it would be an ideal opportunity to clean up the coastpath and make the walk underfoot as spectacular as the view! Watch this space for more news on both of these projects.

We plan to hold another 'Grand Auction' towards the end of the summer and another village Christmas Party at the beginning of December. Plus a Summer Cream Tea afternoon and coffee mornings and 'Big Fish'. We'll need to raise a lot of money to pay for everything!

Music Festival

This will take place from May 25th through to May 29th and things are just beginning to take shape. If you would like to take part or have any ideas for the weekend just give either Janet Townsend (880505) or Dee Randell (880862 or 880905) a ring.

Alternatively, the next meeting of the Port Isaac 2000 committee is on March 6th. Give us a ring and come along. We do need your input and suggestions.

Obituaries

Mary A M Finch
We were shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden death of Mrs Mary Finch. She died at her home in Trelights on December 21st. Mary and her late husband, David, were loyal supporters of the RNLI and Mary was, for some years, one of the dinner ladies who delivered Meals on Wheels in the area.

Mary's funeral service was held at St Endellion Parish Church on December 30th followed by interment. We all express our sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Charlie Honey

Rosina Agnes Derbyshire
Mrs Derbyshire, aged 89 years, died on Christmas morning at the Bowen House, Trevone, after a long illness. She previously lived at 22 Hartland Road.

Her funeral was held at St Peter's Church, Port Isaac on December 31st. The service was conducted by Rev Preb Michael Bartlett with Mr Charlie Honey as organist.

We express our deepest sympathy to the family in the loss of a much-loved mother and friend.

Charlie Honey

Thanks

The family of the late Mrs Derbyshire would like to thank all our friends and our neighbours who attend the funeral service in St Peter's Church. Thank you to the Rector for conducting such a moving service. Thank you to the Bearers. Thank you for the donations in lieu of flowers for St Peter's Church Fund. Also special thanks to Mr Ian Honey and Mr Charlie Honey for their great help and kindness at a most difficult and sad time.

Blanche Elizabeth (Bubbles) Wherry

Older residents in Port Isaac were very sorry to hear of the death in the East Cornwall Hospital, Bodmin of Mrs (Bubbles) Wherry, aged 78 years.

Bubbles and her late husband, Berni, were for some time caretakers of Port Isaac School when it was in Fore Street. She later became School Cook and continued when the School moved to the top of the village. She left Port Isaac six years ago to reside in Wadebridge.

Her funeral service was held at the Glynn Valley Crematorium on January 4th and was attended by her family and friends.

We express our sympathy to her family in the loss of a most gracious lady.

Charlie Honey

Thanks

Mel and Martyn would like to thank everyone for the cards and kind messages on hearing of the death of Mel's mum. Special thanks to Steve and Ju and Dave and Di for their help during Bubbles' long stay in hospital.

A big thankyou to the bearers and also to Chris and Anna Harris and Chris Lanyon at the Headlands for making everyone so welcome after the funeral.

Doreen Aldridge

We are very sad to announce the death of Doreen (Dolly) Aldridge of The Harbour Café. Dolly died, after a long illness, at her home in Silvershell on Christmas Day. Her funeral and cremation was held in London where she was born and most of her family still live. However, a special Memorial Service will be held in St Peter's Church on Wednesday February 23rd at 3.00pm, giving all her friends here in Port Isaac an opportunity to pay their respects to a lovely lady.

We express our deepest sympathy to her family on the loss of a much loved wife, mother and grandmother.

Thanks

Wal and Wendy would like to thank everyone for their kindness and sympathy at this sad time. They would like to invite everyone to Dolly's Memorial Service on February 23rd at 3.00pm in St Peters.

In the garden

There are some days when it feels, and sounds, like spring but it is still February and we must not be lulled into a false sense of gardening well being! All the winter flowering things are flourishing: Hamamelis with its bright yellow bow-like flowers; Sarcocoea with its insignificant but oh so beautifully scented flowers; and of course the ever satisfactory irises, yellow danfordiae, the glorious blue of the reticulata and the delicate blue stylosa. We can still appreciate the winter flowering cherry which started flowering in the autumn.

Grass appears never to stop growing whatever the weather. In fact, I mowed mine last week to make the place look a bit tidier.

Vegetablewise, the mild weather is a bonus for the autumn sown seeds. The temptation at the moment is to start sowing seeds in the greenhouse. I already have tomato seedlings up so, with any luck, I shall have some really early fruit in the greenhouse. Prune the roses if they are making plenty of growth. It's early according to 'the experts' but I believe in doing it when they look as if they are springing into life too early in the year.

The seasons seem to be all awry. There are flowers still at it from last summer. Even Mother Nature must be a trifle confused by the effects of global warming - if that is what it is. Are we slowly destroying our world?

Trelights plants Millennium bulbs

Trelights has planted a permanent and colourful reminder of the Millennium. A variety of daffodil bulbs, donated by villager Robin Elgar, have been planted on the roadside verges and green areas. These will give a long display every spring.

Kim and Simon Bishop originally put forward the idea and held a curry evening which raised £70 towards the project. Thanks to the donation of the bulbs, this money will now be used for planting a commemorative tree in the village. Other plans by the Trelights Millennium Committee include the restoration of the old village pump.

news for you. You have no more moral right to moan about what is done by other people here than you have to complain about the government if you haven't bothered to vote.

millennium by understanding that everyone can contribute to village life, no matter how small the contribution may be.

To everyone who made it the night it was, thank you. And to anyone who saw the sun rising over the mist on the first day of the next thousand years - what better cure was there ever for a hangover.

Lobber

Did anyone see them? No, not the miseries who were moaning about the clouds on eclipse day. No, not the adolescent clowns who were throwing squids around at Guy Fawkes down at Port Gaverne. I mean the knockers - and no, not the sort you find in the 'The Sun' every day.

I mean the whining, sourpuss, graceless, mean-spirited twerps that we always seem to have amongst us. The sort that never does or contributes anything but who still mistakenly consider that they have the right to carp and criticise what others do. I've got

'Didn't go much on the fireworks', 'It was too wet and misty', 'I couldn't see the bonfire', 'Why didn't they put it on the beach?', 'Twas too crowded and somebody stood on me corns', 'I went home and I shan't be going to the next one!'

Good and that just about sums it up - none of us will be going to the next one, will we?

Any criticism or rude remark is always unwelcome and unhelpful and never got a firework lit or clock put up. Please let's start the new

Parish Council

Some Parish Council items taken from recent meetings and kindly supplied to us by Robin Penna.

Footpaths

The Clerk has drawn up a report of all the footpath problems in the Parish. A copy has been sent to Cornwall County Council who has assured the PC that many of these problems will be dealt with in a drive to improve the rights of way in St Endellion in two year's time. Meanwhile two members of the PC are attending a Local Maintenance Partnership seminar in Bodmin.

Tenders

Tenders will be drawn up at the February meeting and ads placed for Footpath Maintenance, Cutting Grass on the Main, Caretaking Port Gaverne Toilets, Repairs to the Wall alongside the Cliff Path and for Rent of Grass Keep at the Parish Field.

Work at the Main

The Amenity Committee has drawn up specifications for repairs to the hand rails on the steps at Teague's Pond and to the steps at the old Gate quay. Tenders have been advertised for.

Notice Boards

Copies of the approved PC minutes will be displayed on the board at the Co-op Forecourt, at Trelights and offered for display at the Pea Shop. The condition of the board at Mayfield is to be inspected by the PC Amenity Committee. The large board at the Liberal Club wall was removed just before Christmas and caused a problem as the replacement board was a lot smaller and left an expanse of undecorated wall exposed. After a complaint from a member of the public this was rapidly touched up and will be re-decorated properly as soon as possible. Repairs were necessary to the board at the Co-op which was damaged by the wind.

Parking and Traffic Problems

A Traffic, Parking and Roads Committee may be formed to look into all the possibilities of finding a solution to the parking problems.

The Main

The National Trust fear that much expenditure might be involved if they were to take over the headland. The PC has already allocated funds for the year 2000/2001 to cover some of the work needed. The matter will be discussed further with The National Trust.

Grass Triangle At Roscarrock

North Cornwall Heritage Coast and Countryside Service have suggested that the PC might care to maintain the island containing the Brocagnus Stone etc. Cornwall County Council are responsible for this piece of the highway but would have no objection to sympathetic work being carried out.

North Cornwall District Council 'Settlement Profiles'

The Clerk has revised and returned forms with up-to-date information of facilities and businesses in the settlements' of Port Isaac, Port Gaverne, and Trelights for NCDC reference purposes.

First and Last

PC has asked the Department of Health and Safety to check the building as it is becoming an eyesore, is unstable and a danger to the general public.

Verge At Trewetha

The PC has asked Transportation and Estates if it is possible to re-align the road to provide a verge between the road and the houses to the south of the corner and between the road and the entrance to Trewetha Farm (which will be used by disabled drivers when a new facility is completed).

Port Gaverne Toilets, Rating List Appeal

A Valuation Officer has met members of the PC at Port Gaverne and discussed the high rateable value set in 1995. A report and a reduced rateable value is expected.

Article IV

After hearing an address on the subject by Georgina McLaren, Conservation Officer, NCDC, some members of the PC indicated that they were not in favour of increasing the restrictions on planning and development in the old village. So far no formal proposal has been made.

The Clerk has copies of the original Port Isaac Design Guide if anyone would like one.

CHURCH NEWS

Port Isaac

Sung Eucharist - Children from Sunday school joined the congregation during the Communion on the Third Sunday in Advent. The Revd Judith Pollinger, curate, presided and preached and Mrs Margaret Cann, churchwarden, was server, read the lesson and assisted with the administration of the chalice.

Christingle & Crib Service - Despite torrential rain and storm-force winds many people, including lots of excited children, attended the annual Christingle and Crib service on Christmas Eve. A fine Christmas tree stood in the corner of the church and envelopes, containing donations to the church, were hung on it. The Revd Preb Michael Bartlett, Rector, led the service, first inviting children to carry the Nativity figures to the Crib where they placed them in the hay. The first verse of 'Once in Royal David's City' was sung as a solo by Gemma Kirby, granddaughter of Mrs Margaret Cann, churchwarden. Organist was Mrs Olwen Kirby. The children answered questions from the Rector on the Christmas story and on the meaning of the Christingle. A retiring collection was taken for the work of the Children's Society.

by Robin Penna

Midnight Mass - The Church had been beautifully decorated for Christmas and the well-attended Midnight Mass was held by candlelight. The Revd Judith Pollinger, Curate presided and preached. The service opened with Gemma Kirby singing the first verse of 'Once in Royal David's City.' Organist was Mrs Janet Townsend. Mr Charlie Honey read the lesson and server was Mr Francis Larkin. Mrs Margaret Cann, churchwarden, and Mrs Marion Larkin assisted with the administration of Holy Communion. Mrs Cann, and fellow churchwarden, Mr Bill Norris were sidespersons.

Church Bell Rings Again - The bell of St Peter's Church, which has remained silent for several years, rang out again before the Millennium service in the church on New Year's Day. A suggestion by the Port Isaac 2000 Committee that the bell should be restored was taken up by Mr Trevor Grills. The bell was rung by Mrs Margaret Cann, churchwarden. The church was packed to the doors, with standing room only, for the short service arranged and led by the Revd Preb Michael Bartlett, Rector. Commemorative mugs, commissioned by the Port Isaac 2000 committee were given to all children in the parish aged 16 and under.

Christians Together Service - The start of a new era in the history of the world was also the start of a new era in Christian unity in Port Isaac and district on Sunday evening. Over 70 people responded to the invitation by the Methodist and Anglican churches to start the new Millennium with a Covenant and Communion service in St Peter's Church. Clergy from both denominations have been meeting and sharing ideas for closer co-operation during the past three months, and the Revd Carol Holmes, Methodist Minister, the Revd Preb Michael Bartlett, Rector and the Revd Judith Pollinger, Curate shared in leading the well-attended united service. Since then six sessions on 'Growing through the Scriptures', led by Methodist and Anglican clergy, have been held in Port Isaac Primary School at 7.00pm on Friday evenings.

Children from the Sunday School, accompanied by leader Mrs Rosemary Williams, joined the congregation during the service.

Family Service - Children from Sunday School presented, through Bible reading, the story of the child Jesus in the Temple in Jerusalem, at the monthly Family Service on the Second Sunday of Epiphany. Their leader, Mrs Rosemary Williams, explained the work they had been doing and led the congregation in the singing of 'One More Step.'

The family service was preceded by a said eucharist at which the Curate presided and led prayers of intercession.

United Benefice

Candlelit Evening Service - The light of many candles, including three on the Advent wreath, illuminated St Endellion Church for evening worship with Taizé music on the Third Sunday in Advent. The Revd Judith Pollinger, Curate devised the service on the Advent theme of light and darkness and led a meditation based on Archbishop Thomas Cranmer's Collection for Advent Sunday. Bells were rung for an hour before the service.

New Year Worship with music from Taizé - An hour of bell ringing preceded the monthly evening service of worship by candlelight with music from Taizé in St Endellion church. The Revd Preb Michael Bartlett, Rector arranged and led the service and presented a meditation. The singing of Taizé chants was accompanied by Miss Toni Ollsen, guitar.

Mothers' Union Service and Annual Meeting - The well-attended annual meeting of the United Benefice branch of the Mothers' Union was preceded by a Eucharist in St James' Church, St Kew. Afterwards the meeting was held in the St Kew Inn where supper was enjoyed and where Mrs Pam Richards, Branch Leader welcomed members and gave her annual report on the many successful activities undertaken during the year. All officers were re-elected. The accounts were presented by Mrs Gwen Hambly, treasurer and adopted.

Thanks for Gifts - Grateful thanks has been expressed on behalf of the many homeless and needy who benefited from the large number of gifts of food and clothing collected in and around Pendoggett by Mrs Tren Rush this Christmas.

Julian Meeting - The first Julian Meeting of the New Year was held at Pendoggett House, home of Mrs Jennie Godwin. The group, which meets monthly for silent prayer and contemplation, was led by the Revd Judith Pollinger, Curate.

Gig Club news

Bell the new Millennium certainly got off to a brilliant start for us! We raised a stunning amount in our first fundraiser of the year (or to be entirely accurate, the last of last year!), collecting an as yet estimated total of £1,300. As soon as all sponsorship money is collected we shall have an accurate figure. Many thanks to all those who gave support, running the stall and raffle, providing back up vehicles etc etc, and not forgetting those who put up with my full on yelling trying to locate the winners of the raffle in the Lion afterwards. I do still have a tempting pile of goodies that have yet to be claimed. Ticket numbers 697,862,694 (mauve), 849,990 (buff), 496 (yellow), are yet to be claimed. Call me if you are a winner.

Corsair is now back up at Treligga where we are continuing to work on her bottom, sorry Trevor, hull. She has been taken right back to the wood, treated, filled, undercoated, filled again, a second undercoat applied which is then flattened back to a smooth finish ready to take her final coats of paint. I know all this hard work will pay off when she is back in the water, but it does seem a torturous process to go through to achieve the end result.

However, it has also been a learning process for those involved - a humbling one in terms of appreciation of the skill of the boatbuilder. The torture is exacerbated by the ban on the use of electrical means of stripping the wood. Any loss of the definition of the edges of the planking leads to a higher absorption of water, making the boat heavier, water logged and more prone to damage. She needs to be treated with the respect and care that all old ladies deserve!

Progress on the purchase of a second gig is held up, in that the boat we were hoping to purchase is not after all on the market. That isn't the end of the quest however, and we shall continue to pursue our aim and our fundraising to that end. It does mean though, that we have suspended our lottery application as without firm details of the costs involved we cannot forward the application. We may yet reshape our application to cover the costs of all the ancillary equipment we shall need to purchase in the project. I shall keep you informed.

Something to get you mad March hares jumping. Déjà Blues, Steve and Maggie Applebys' band, will be keeping the temperature up in the Village Hall on the March 25th from 8.30pm onwards. The ticket price of £5 includes a Chilli con Carne supper. Liquid refreshments will be available. Tickets available from the Post Office (or me of course). Lots of us up there will make for a stomping good night. I've been over at the White Heart for their last couple of gigs where they have gone down a storm....so be there or forever remain a four cornered person on the fringes of hip society!!

Be My Valentine?

To help you celebrate the enjoyment and fun of St Valentines day I suggest the following menu. It is fairly easy to prepare in advance, therefore allowing you more time to lay the table beautifully. A candle is essential!

Moules Mariniere

Oriental Chicken

Bananas with passion fruit

For the Moules Mariniere you need:

2tbsp olive oil
1kg /2lb mussels
1 clove garlic finely chopped
½ glass dry white wine or cider
1tbsp finely chopped parsley

Method

Clean the mussels by washing them under a cold running tap. Remove all barnacles, seaweed etc with a knife and make sure the beard on the shell is removed. Discard any that are open or do not close when the shell is pressed together with finger and thumb. Also discard any that do not open when cooked.

Next, in a saucepan, fry the garlic in the olive oil for a minute. This can all be done in advance.

A couple of minutes before you intend to serve this dish, add the mussels to the saucepan ensuring once again they are all tightly closed. Add the wine or cider and cook over a high heat, stirring all the time until all shells have opened. Sprinkle with parsley. Divide into two bowls and eat with crusty bread.

For the Oriental Chicken you need:

2 chicken breasts boned & skinned
1"/2½cm root ginger peeled & finely sliced into matchstick shapes
1 clove garlic crushed
1 lemon zest plus the juice
1dspn soy sauce
2 tblsp olive oil

Method

Marinate the chicken in the above ingredients. Cover with tin foil and leave in the 'fridge for at least six hours. Turn the chicken over at least once during that time.

Cook in a pre heated oven 170°C/325°F/gas3 for 30 mins. Serve with rice and a tossed salad.

For the Bananas with Passion Fruit you need:

2 peeled bananas
1tblsp runny honey juice ½ orange squeeze lemon juice
3passion fruits

Method

Take two pieces of tinfoil sufficiently large enough to encase each banana. Place a banana on each piece and divide the honey between each. Add a little lemon juice and the orange juice. Cut the passion fruits in half and divide the fruit in two between the bananas. Carefully seal the bananas by loosely folding the tinfoil around them.

Bake in a preheated oven 200°C/400°F/gas 6 for about 20mins.

Serve the banana packets and share the third passion fruit, squeezing it over the banana.

Need I suggest some good wine to accompany the meal and may I wish you a wonderful evening.

George's ramblings - Units or Unity!

Dee thought that I was going to write another history story. Well I am, but not with the content that she expected. Anyway, it is topical.

You may have noticed that Trago Mills is opposing metrication. I agree, but I don't think they are going far enough. I maintain that we should still be using the units we had in 1950, or before. Have you seen the definition of a metre? Well, have you? What is wrong with a unit based on the distance from

The tip of Henry VIII's nose to the tip of his middle finger with his arm outstretched?

And there's more! In 1950 (say), if you wished to study science or engineering you would meet a plethora of systems - you could make your choice. What could be nicer?

You could use:-

- cgs system (centigrade, gramme, second)
- fps system (foot, pound, second) and/or
- the Giorgi or mks system (metre, kilogram, second).

Then along came rationalisation and out go all these lovely systems to be replaced by the ubiquitous Systeme International (SI) System. Out go the dyne and poundal (or pound force - the fps system allowed you to choose) and in comes the newton; out goes the erg and the foot-poundal and in comes the joule. No choice any more, just the old SI.

If you were a motor mechanic it was almost as good. Nuts and bolts could be BA, BSF, BSW, UNC and UNF as well as metric. It also helped unemployment - the mechanic needed an extra person to carry all the spanners!

What a super system of weights and measures we had! Own up now, how many of you can remember the number of minims to a pint or grains to a pound? These are things that ought to be known by everyone.

How many yards are there in a rod, pole or perch? It all used to be set down on the back cover of AJ Arnold's exercise books in school.

Three loud cheers for horse racing, I say. A five furlong sprint at Ascot would never seem the same as a 1.00584km race at Towcester.

Bring back ALL the old units I reckon. Youngsters could get A-levels or even degrees in Unit Studies.

As I've told you before, Joe Saundry's mother sold potatoes by the gallon. Now a gallon of water weights 10lb. There's the tie-up and it shouldn't be lost.

The media doesn't help. How can anyone be expected to eat a mega burger? - that's one million burgers!

If we carry on with this gormless metric system then a picoboo should be a million millionth part of a boo - hardly worth digging for is it?

Zzz.pi./gssnore

and still more ramblings ...

The Port Isaac Chorale were in operation over the Christmas period. We went to St Kew Church and helped with the service of Nine Lessons and Carols.

We then did a concert in aid of the Venezuelan disaster fund. We cleared over £200 (ed: £212.17 to be exact) on a nasty evening. Thank you to everyone who contributed. One of our guests was a young pianist from Padstow (somebody has to live there I suppose). I still can't believe hands can go as quickly as his appeared to be going - and he memorised the whole piece he was playing. He couldn't do a Richard Smart and hide his music behind an alto!

Most of the men in the Chorale have great difficulty with the words. I have to watch Janet so, by the time the brain catches up with the vision, I'm usually half a bar behind.

Talking of bars, we ended up that night out at the Port Gaverne Inn and a good time was had by all.

We're now approaching the Festival season - Wadebridge and Truro. I hope our tenor section recover from whatever they have had. Last week at practice there was only one - and he was a she.

Cheers for now. Have a Happy 2000 or 2K or whatever. Wasn't it a brilliant do to start the year off!

Ramblin George

Thanks

I would like to thank everyone who so kindly sent a Christmas card to me and to apologise for failing to do the same. Unfortunately I was struck down with bronchitis. I do however wish you all a very happy, peaceful and successful 2000 and thank you for your friendship.

Seal release

The infant class went to Port Gaverne beach to see four seals being released back into the sea.

They came in a trailer pulled by a landrover.

The sea was out and the landrover drove down to the sea. One of the seals did not want to come out and went under the trailer. Their names were Portia, Beamer, Silky and Cracker. The last one kept on rolling on his tummy and splashing in the sea. We could see their heads in the sea like balls.

They came from the Seal Sanctuary in Gweek and the lady who works there told us how the seals know they are released.

A big thankyou to Sam and Mr Bulgin for asking us to go down there. We had a fun time. Jemima

Blue Peter Sale

Stacey, Cerin, Emma and Kaley want to say a very big thankyou to all the people that brought things to sell and to everyone who came to the Blue Peter bring and buy sale. We managed to raise a smashing £110.96.

All the other stuff that wasn't sold has either gone down to the clothes bank or to an Oxfam shop.

Netball

On Monday the 24th we had a match against St Tudy. We won 7/4. Penny Stewardson scored six goals and Andrew Grills scored one goal. It was an exciting game because both teams were evenly matched.

In the past we have been thrashed with scores like 15/0 to them so we are very pleased with this win. Last time we played St Tudy we lost 6/3.

Stacey & Jessica

Maps and the World

This term our class are finding out about maps and the world. We are making questionnaires for people to fill in about peoples holidays and forms of transport and then putting the information into a database on the computer. We are looking at atlas' and holiday brochures and seeing where places are and where we would like to go. I would like to go to Egypt to see the pyramids and because it is very hot.

Tamsin

Gods and Goddesses

by Josh Brewer

The Romans believed in different gods. Some of their names are followed on by planets like Venus, Neptune and Mercury. They ruled different stuff like thunder and lightning and the mighty seas and love and peace. Diana was god of hunting and Juno was god of women and childbirth.

Making our world a better place

Some pupil's views:

Jessica - 'I think people should look after animals.'

Jacob - 'I think people should keep fit.'

Ellen - 'I think that we should give more respect to animals.'

Ben - 'I think people should stop polluting the water.'

Tamsin - 'I think people should stop smoking.'

Megan - 'I think people should look after each other and stop having wars.'

Daniel - 'I think people should stop dropping rubbish.'

Josh B - 'I think if you are dyslexic people should not make fun of you.'

Joshi - 'I think people should stop hunting.'

Emily - 'I think people should stop hunting animals like foxes.'

Aimee - 'I think people should stop chopping down trees.'

Emma - 'I think people should stop fighting.'

Lewis - 'I think people should pick up litter.'

Sam - 'I think people should be kind.'

Steven - 'I think people should be good to animals.'

This month's Schoolchat team were Stacey Appleby (11), Jemima Rowell (6), Jessica Rowell (7) and Tamsin Richards (7).

Backalong

Looking back 61 years ...

What happened was -

The weather on the night of January 23rd was probably the worst of the century. Around the British Isles 27 Lifeboats were launched on service. The North Cornwall coast was battered by a WNW storm that reached hurricane force at times.

At about 2.00am the St Ives Lifeboat was launched to go to the aid of the SS Wilson of Glasgow. She was in distress off Cape Cornwall. Once clear of St Ives the Lifeboat encountered a very heavy sea and was capsized. Four of the eight crew were lost. The engine shut off when the Lifeboat capsized - as it was designed to do. Before it could be restarted and any attempt made to pick up the missing men, some of the boats gear, which had been partly washed out of her, had to be cut away to avoid fouling the propeller. The mechanic then restarted the engine but it stalled when put into gear. The Lifeboat was being tossed about in terrible seas and drifted across the mouth of the Bay when a great sea struck her beam on and she capsized for the second time. Another crewman was lost. As she drifted towards Godrevy Light another huge wave capsized her for the third time. When she righted only one man remained on board. Three minutes later the Lifeboat struck the rocks near Godrevy and the sole survivor, William Freeman, crawled out and made his way on all fours along the rocks. He scrambled up the rocks and eventually reached a nearby farm. It was just after 7.00am that the anxiously waiting town heard the news of this terrible tragedy that plunged the whole of the community into grief and mourning for seven of her bravest sons.

Meanwhile, disaster was happening off Trevoze Head. The former RN minelayer Media was being towed by the tug Scotsman on her way to South Wales for breaking up. In the severe weather the tow was broken and the Media was drifting hopelessly towards Trebetherick Rocks. Padstow Lifeboat was launched and nearly got alongside the Media before she reached the Doom Bar but was buried by a heavy sea. This washed some of the gear overboard and damaged the battery putting the lighting out of action. The Lifeboat was in a most awkward predicament. The Coxswain, unable to effect a service, headed out to sea to await the tide and daylight. Five hours or later, when it was safe to enter harbour, she was overtaken by three successive heavy seas which washed more equipment overboard and knocked the Coxswain and Second Coxswain off their feet.

There were four men on board the Media when she struck the rocks at Greenaway. The Trebetherick and Port Isaac Life Saving Apparatus Companies were called out and set up their equipment in the howling gale. The weather conditions were horrendous and the Companies had great difficulty in assembling their gear. Lighting was by way of hurricane lamps, torches and an acetylene searchlight. Several cars parked on the headland with their headlights on for extra light. Due to the extreme WNW wind, force 10-12, the first four rockets missed the vessel completely and it was only when the fifth rocket was aimed some three lengths ahead of the vessel that the rocket line did land near the men sheltering by the funnel. In these terrible conditions the LSA companies rescued three men, one by one by the breeches buoy, hauling them through the surf and onto the cliff. One man was washed off the Media and drowned. The Trebetherick and Port Isaac Life Saving Apparatus Companies were awarded the Board of Trade Shield or the best deed in 1939.

Youth Club

A couple of weeks ago we had a visit from Ria Taylor from the Community Projects Trust in Bodmin. She was very helpful and has given me several grant forms to fill in to apply for money for our group.

Our young people are very keen to get the Village Hall smartened up. At the moment the kitchen has been condemned and we would like a cooker, a fridge and new worktops installed. We've cleared the rubbish out of the middle room and Barbara Hawkins has agreed to help us with the painting (so if you have any half used tins of emulsion you want to get rid of please let us know as we can put them to very good use). We would like to have a TV aerial put up and will then need a TV and a licence!

What I really need is some help. If anyone can spare a few hours a week to assist with the running of the group please call me on 880031.

Finally, thank you to everyone who has sponsored some of the girls for their '24-hour Silence'. They have been promised over £100. Well done to them - they've organised all this themselves.

Christmas lights

and they are ready to be picked up to return to the manufacturers.

The Christmas lights have now been taken down and I would like to thank everyone who helped with this. As you will have seen, the lights were not without their problems - all out of our control - and the following extract from Steve Hewett's letter to Denmans Electrical Wholesalers, St Austell, will go some way to giving an explanation:

'Re: Christmas and Millennium Lights

Thank you for your prompt response to my request regarding the Christmas lighting problems. We have now boxed up the lights

The cause of the problems we had was, without a doubt, the lamp-holders were not fitted to the festoon cable correctly in the manufacturing stage, causing the rain to run down the cable and seep in under the holder causing a short to the circuit. Due to recent EEC regulations, separate supply points were fitted by SWEB and RCCD trips with MCBs were fitted to comply with this. Thus, when a problem occurred we lost some 400 lights. This caused me personally severe problems as I felt responsible for the lights not working and spent some 35-40 hours tracing and repairing faults over the Christmas period.

As you know, this project was financed by donations and voluntary contributions. I invoiced the lights committee exactly what you invoiced me. As a member of the committee I have instructed them not to settle my invoice until the matter is sorted out with the manufacturers.

I do feel that some sort of compensation would not go amiss for the distress it has caused to myself and the people of the village. I trust we can sort this out amicably and look forward to your early response.'

We are very grateful to Steve for acting on our behalf and also for keeping the lights going for New Year's Eve (with Nigel's help).

We have received a letter from St Breward Silver Band about 'Switch-on Night' in which they say: 'We all had a very enjoyable evening. There is always such a lovely atmosphere in Port Isaac.'

So it just leaves me say a really big thankyou to everyone who in any way, shape or form helped with the new Port Isaac Christmas Lights. It will soon be December and we can put them up again!
