Frank McNichol Art Days Bill Eley

Wednesday September 7th from 10.30am to 3.30-4.00pm

Bill Eley is a highly acclaimed artist whose work is collectable worldwide. To start off our new autumn programme, Bill will be taking us into the world of dance. Using a professional ballerina as a model, he will demonstrate his painting and drawing technique in the morning and then after a 'relaxing lunch, we will all try our hand in the afternoon!

Ray Balkwill

Wednesday October 19th from 10.30am to 3.30-4.00pm

Once again we are delighted to have an artist of international stature, whose watercolours are much sought after. Ray will give a demonstration in the morning. After lunch, to which everyone is invited to stay, there will be 15 places available for afternoon tuition from Ray. We will book the places for this at the September meeting.

Just a reminder that these 'Art Days' are open to everyone. The cost to attend is £5 and includes lunch.

Please bring any art materials that you may have, although there will be some provided for those who haven't got anything.

We cannot emphasise enough that you don't need any experience at all to join us. Your work won't be judged and after a few bottles of wine at lunchtime we're all brilliant artists anyway! So, no excuses now. Get your smocks and berets on and see you at the Village Hall.

Curry Night and 'Lucky Dip' Art Sale

Running alongside the Village Hall Curry Night on Saturday September 17th is a 'Lucky Dip' Art Sale. A selection of artwork produced by local, and not so local, artists plus celebrities will be on sale. All the 'masterpieces' will be priced at £25 each, but you will not know who the 'artist' is until you have made your purchase. Instead of signing their work in the usual manner, the 'artist' has signed their name on the back.

No viewing or purchases can be made before the Curry Night. So be there or miss out.

Tickets are on sale at Secrets, priced £7 each to include 'as much as you can eat' curry and pudding. They must be purchased or reserved in advance on 01208 880905.

Trelights Annual Barbecue

Just to remind you that we will be holding our annual BBQ on Saturday August 20th in Coronation Park at 7 pm.

Once again there will be lots to do with stalls, games, lucky-dip, raffles etc. As usual, our Rick Stein trained chef will be in charge of the cooking and Mark Hawken will again supply the musical entertainment.

So make a note in your diary to come along for a fun packed, friendly evening in Trelights.

Father Alan Wainwright

Sunday and on weekdays he would celebrate the Eucharist. His ethic was service to the community, in church and out of church. It is said that he heard more confessions in the Cornish Arms than he did in church! Another aspect of his ministry was his care and compassion for the bereaved. He took many services at the crematorium and families were always grateful for his meticulous care and kindness.

Father Alan was a remarkable man and a consummate priest. So many will miss him and so many of us are better for having known him.

Father Michael

The whole of our community was saddened to hear of the death of Father Alan Wainwright after a long illness. A requiem Eucharist was held at St Endellion on Tuesday August 9th and a special Eucharist of the Resurrection in thanksgiving for Father Alan's life was held on Tuesday 16th August, again at St Endellion, when the church was packed with Father Alan's family and friends. Both services were moving tributes to a priest who was held in high esteem in North Cornwall and beyond.

Father Alan was a truly remarkable man. His ministry started in Gloucester in 1942. He then went on to serve in parishes in the Home Counties, during which time he was also a director of the Samaritans. In 1977 he retired from being a parish priest and came to Cornwall. With his wife Maggie and their long-time friend Nigel Pickstone they became hoteliers at Treyarnon Bay and then landlords of the Cornish Arms at Pendogett.

Although Father Alan had retired from working for 'the church', for him once a priest always a priest. He carried on a ministry in the churches of the area where each

Don't leave it too late to write your will

According to the Society of Will Writers, a stunning 70% of adults in the UK die without making a will. Local will consultant, Derek Wells, says that "the vast majority of people still assume that their partners will automatically inherit". This is not necessarily the case. If there is no will, then it is left to the authorities to decide what happens.

Apart from the long delays this can entail, there is no guarantee that someone's wishes will be respected with regard to their property and assets. This is particularly important for couples living together, especially if children are involved, same sex partners, single people, divorced and separated.

A major concern is the low inheritance tax threshold, currently £275,000. If your estate is above this figure you have to pay a whopping 40% death duty tax - but this can be limited by including an Inheritance Tax Trust.

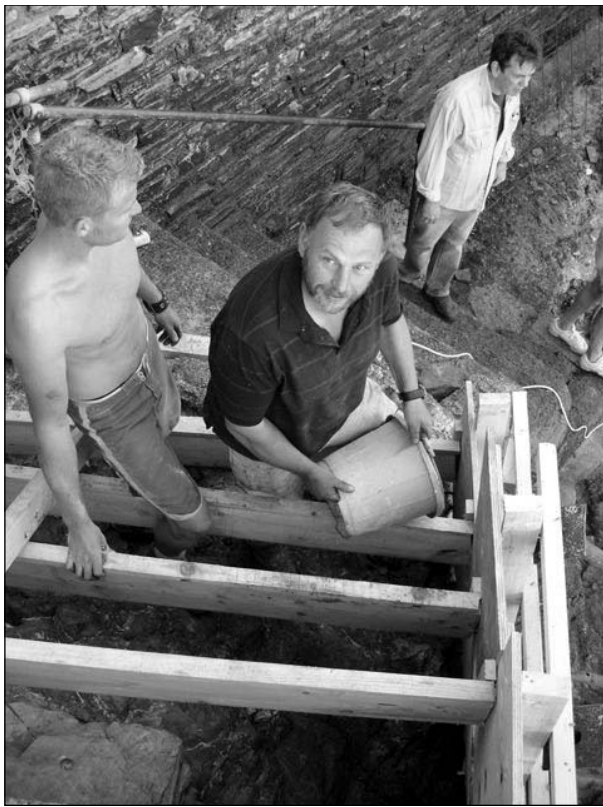

Another concern, particularly affecting older people, is the fear of losing their home to pay for care costs. This can be addressed in many ways, the most popular being a protective property trust or by deed of gift.

Writing a will is not as difficult or as expensive as many people imagine and a properly drafted will avoids problems.

Do you, or someone you know, need a listening ear?

The Local Pastoral Ministers of St Endellion, Port Isaac and St Kew are available to visit the sick, the bereaved, the lonely and newcomers to the area.

They rescued a man who was landed safely at Daymer Bay. Crewmembers were John Coshall, Mike Daly and Richard Hambly.

A yacht went aground in surf at Polzeath late on August 17th and the Coastguard asked Port Isaac Lifeboat to stand by while an attempt was made to refloat. The Lifeboat was launched shortly after 11.00pm and had almost reached the scene when the yacht refloated and they were recalled to Port Isaac. Crewmembers were Neville Andrews, John Coshall and Mike Daly.

Lifeboat Larks – The annual Larks raised £227 for RNLI funds.

Lifeboat Day – Collections in Port Isaac and district raised £1098.06.

St Peter's Church

St Endellion Church

Cream Tea – Over £163 was raised at Mr & Mrs Pollinger's Cream Tea.

RNLI

Shouts – The Lifeboat was launched on July 15th to assist a man cut off on cliffs at Tintagel. Coastguards rescued him. Crewmembers were Paul Pollington, Mark Provis and Andy Walton.

The Lifeboat was launched on exercise on July 26th to rescue a sheep, reported to the Coastguard by Dugald Sproull. The sheep turned out to be a lamb and was recovered and returned to a farm at Port Quin.

Following a report of children in inflatable boats at Port Gaverne, the Lifeboat was launched to investigate. The children turned out to be a father and son fishing in toy inflatables! They were returned safely to the beach. Crewmembers were Rob Parkyn, Chris Scott and Andy Walton. On the same day, the Lifeboat went to assist three people in the water at Trebarwith Strand. Two of them were Lifeguards who successfully landed a swimmer through heavy swell and surf. Crewmembers were Kevin Dingle, Mark Provis and Andy Walton.

On August 4th, whilst on exercise at the Rumps, the Lifeboat was diverted following the finding of a bomb on Pine Awn beach by Oliver Childs. Coastguards guarded the bomb until the arrival of the Bomb Disposal Unit from Plymouth. The bomb was exploded and destroyed at 4.20pm. Crewmembers were Jonathan Coy, Kevin Dingle and Andy Walton.

We had a hugely successful Gig Day with 14 gigs competing this year. I think that, since staging the Mixed & Vets Championships a couple of years ago, our ability to host a well run event has been confirmed, and although we were competing for crews directly against Looe (always a popular venue), we nonetheless had good attendance.

Also, a first for us in a while, our Men's B crew took pole position in their race, Roscarrock's first win! I'm afraid the other results are a bit sketchy for me, as I spent nearly the whole day on the BBQ so full results to follow. A big thank you to all who assisted us on the day. To David Raynor for supplying the energy, to Sam for lending us his PA, to Richard Cook who did much to smooth the running of the beach, to Bob and his team for their fascinating commentary, ably assisted this year by Annie's brother Chris, who as a polo commentator gave superb race commentary day long, to Eddie Fletcher out on the water as support, to Joey Strout for the use of his land for our catering op, to all the staff at the Port Gaverne for keeping our crews watered, and not forgetting the sun for shining day long! In all we made about £500 on our catering, including selling much of Richard Cook's day catch when all the burgers had gone!

Next event for your dairy is Friday August 19th. Popular local band, Wamma Jamma are booked at the Village Hall for our annual summer gig. Note the change to a Friday (that Village Hall is so damn successful these days you can't get a Saturday booking!). I think, given that Saturday is still largely changeover day, that we may see many more visitors coming to this gig, so be warned get your tickets EARLY, from me on 01208 880834.

Finally, an apology to all those who missed our Gig Day, due to lack of forethought on my part. It kind of leapt up on me, and I missed Trio listing. I promise I will try to be more efficient in the future.

Compost Corner aka Manure Monthly!

Are you sitting with your copy of Trio in one hand, a glass of chilled pinot grigio in the other, lounging decadently in the beauty of your garden in fabulous sunshine?! You're not? How disappointing! By now, we imagined you all gently tweaking your 'all-year-round interest' pots to perfection, occasionally plucking the odd weed from your newly cleared and mulched beds and borders. What's gone wrong??!!

We jest! Much more likely a vision; you read the first line of this column, thinking to yourself that since those pesky gardening girls took up this monthly preaching, you've got one more job to add to the appalling list of 'things I know I should do if I had more time or money'.

The key to success in banishing 'Garden Guilt', is to have a realistic plan for your space which incorporates all angles - time available, your budget, the type of garden you aspire to, how you will use it and lastly, which plants are likely to survive here on the coast.

We favour the 'low-maintenance' approach for all our gardens and that really doesn't have to mean bland or boring results. After all, once you've got a workable base to launch from you can add risky and time-consuming elements if you feel daring later!

This month's challenge then, is to look at what you've got right now. What results could you achieve without spending any money at all and just a little time?

- If you have a lawn, is it nicely mowed and edged? Don't worry at this stage about the quality of it, even if it is full of weeds or thatch, a couple of good short cuts and a neat edge will work wonders for the overall look of your garden.
- Have you got a lovely slate patio with weeds growing where the grouting used to be? Remove the weeds using a sharp knife (a patio knife is best, £7.99 from Trelawney Garden Centre, but if you haven't got one, anything sharp will do!), spray the gaps with a residual weed killer, and finally, consider getting the patio re-grouted. It's a relatively quick and inexpensive job with fantastic weed-free results (we know a man who can, give us a ring for more information).
- Re-visit our article last month when we talked about low-maintenance beds and borders (what do you mean, you've thrown it away?). Tackle a section of a border at a time, if you feel overwhelmed by the task in hand. Remember, once you've laid that membrane and bark/gravel, you won't have to do that bit again!
- Though summer is not really the time for pruning, a light trim won't do any harm for out of control shrubs causing obstruction or looking out of proportion in the garden. Cut back to a healthy bud. This bud will be a flower or leaf later and it's these that you want at the end of the stem or branch not unsightly bare sawn off bits!

Our top tip for success is not to try doing all these things at once on your only day off!! Draw up a really simple plan with your top five priorities (eg, mow lawn, weed border one, trim old heads from hydrangea, weed patio, trim hedge). Nibble away at it - half an hour, a couple of times a week, with a glass of wine on a warm evening. It's a great way to relax and who knows, maybe next month, you'll be reading this column, with a glass of chilled pinot grigio, lounging decadently in the beauty of your garden in fabulous sunshine - you get the picture??!!

Have fun!

Jules & Liz

So, is Chris Lanyon really worth that much?!

Dear Trio

I feel I have to write in answer to a question raised in the Trio late last year, soon after the auction in the Village Hall to raise funds for Boscastle. To jog your memory, the question as I remember was ... "Is Chris Lanyon really worth that much?"

Well, having kept Port Isaac waiting with baited breath for so long, the final answer is "ABSOLUTELY!" Chris, with Kim his able assistant (very skilled in the art of drinking Margaritas), recently treated me and a group of friends to an exquisite night of culinary delights: mussels in a leek sauce, John Dory on a bed of orange and crayfish risotto, followed by three desserts no less. I stupidly thought we would get to experience one of these each, but no, all three were served together for the most extravagant dessert ensemble ever to be seen this side of the Tamar Valley - the richest chocolate mousse imaginable, chocolate profiteroles with caramel sauce to die for, and my personal favourite, Key Lime Pie, to remind Chris and Kim of their second (?) most favourite place in the world. This was all accompanied by Margaritas, champagne, countless bottles of wine and a bottle of Cointreau. These last elements may also have had something to do with the dancing that followed, which caused a number of passers-by on Fore Street to join us well into the early hours.

So thanks a million to Chris and Kim, and thanks to all the guests, (invited and uninvited!) that came and made the night so magical and memorable.

Cathy Dickerson, Port Isaac

Devon & Cornwall

Port Isaac & District

Neighbourhood Watch is working quietly in the village to ensure that we remain as trouble-free as possible. After the terrible events in London and then in Turkey it has been proved how essential it is for everyone to remain vigilant and to report anything they are unhappy about.

Residents are reporting incidents to the area co-ordinators who, in turn, let me know and then I liaise with the appropriate authorities. As some areas do not have a co-ordinator, residents sometimes contact me directly.

It is not the intention of the group to publicise events that have happened; they are just happy when a solution is found and the problem no longer exists.

At present it is the seagulls that are causing the most problems in the village and no one, as yet, has come up with a satisfactory answer.

We have few problems here in Port Isaac, unlike some of our neighbouring villages. Hopefully August will be a good month for residents and visitors alike.

In answer to Mr Monk!

Dear Trio

In answer to Bob Monk's remarks in last month's Trio regarding the Neighbourhood Watch scheme, I have the following comments to make. In my opinion:

1. He loves to make fun of anyone or any organisation that attempts to do some good or help others in this village.
2. Most of the time he gets his facts wrong (Ed: Does he?).
3. He loves to cause a stir and we shouldn't rise to the bait (Ed: Do we?).
4. He drives me demented but I can't help liking him.
5. Bob, it's time to shut up. Stop complaining and criticising everyone to bits.

TWO KITCHENS ONE COOK

A LITTLE ABOUT THE COOK: I love food and eating and discovered a long time ago that the best way to guarantee I get the food I like is to cook it myself. You could call it a control thing! I live in Winchester with husband Nigel and three children, Will, Josh and Martha. I'll be telling you a little of their culinary likes and dislikes too!

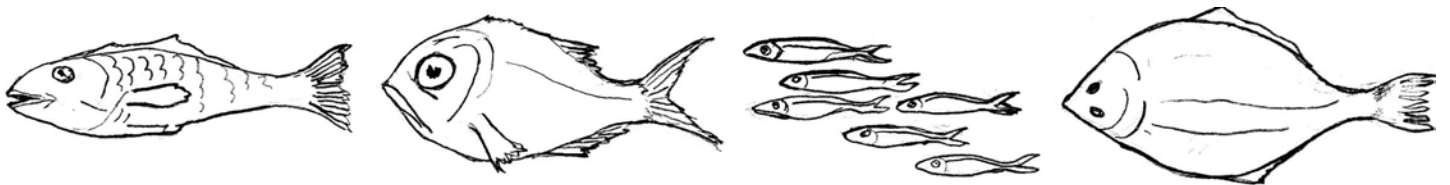

We bought a house in Fore Street in 2003, but having completed a two-year building project on Fronthill, I have needed a break and have mainly let the house out to holidaymakers. I haven't made the journey along the A303 from Winchester for some time.

Seeing the request in Trio for someone to write a cookery column reminded me of an idea to bring together and share the foods I enjoy in Winchester and Cornwall. 'Two Kitchens One Cook' was to be the title for a collection of all my favourite recipes. It was an excuse to think and discover more about the food I love and enjoy. So I will start here rekindling my passion by sharing with you the beginnings of this journey. I shall begin with my favourites. The recipes are those I most enjoy; some I have created and others are borrowed and adapted. I will try to focus on what's in season and keep it simple, but forgive me if I get excited and offer the odd fiddly affair.

Orah

FOCUS ON FOODS FOR AUGUST: There is so much choice in August. Sea Bass, Peppers, Tomatoes, Basil, New Potatoes, Courgettes and Raspberries in abundance; just some of the seasonal foods I adore. I love fried fish with crisp skin, salad potatoes roasted with rosemary and chilli, courgettes in olive oil and butter, slow roasted peppers and cherry tomatoes drizzled with basil and garlic oil - I could go on.

It is difficult to know where to start but I have decided that, rather than leave the best until last, we'll begin with dessert. Raspberries have to be my favourite fruit and the recipe overleaf is for a Raspberry and Almond Tart - it is delicious.

Raspberry and Almond Tart

There is always something about raspberries. The smell, the sweet/sharp thing that tingles the taste buds, married with a frangipane topping. Garnish with extra raspberries and cream. Don't wash the raspberries - they go soggy and yuk!

Almond Pastry

175g (6oz) plain flour
75g (3oz) butter
50g (2oz) ground almonds
25g (1oz) caster sugar
1 egg yolk
2 tblsp water

Frangipane Filling

125g (4oz) butter
125g (4oz) sugar
2 eggs plus egg white from pastry
125g (4oz) ground almonds
25g (1oz) plain flour
2 tsp almond essence
200g (8oz) raspberries
50g (2oz) flaked almonds

1. Preheat oven to 190°/375°/Gas Mark 5.
2. To make pastry - a bit fiddly but worth the fuss. Sift the flour into a large bowl. Rub butter into the flour, using fingertips, until the mixture resembles fine breadcrumbs. Stir in the ground almonds and sugar. Add the egg yolk and enough water to mix with a palette knife to a soft, but not sticky, dough. Chill for 20 minutes before rolling out onto a floured surface. Use to line a 20cm (10") flan case. Roll the rolling pin across the top of the tin to cut off any excess pastry and then prick the base with a fork. If you have any difficulty rolling it out, just patch it up - it'll taste fine. Chill again for a further 30 minutes. Bake blind for 5-10 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, prepare the filling. Whisk the two eggs and egg white together. In a separate bowl, cream the butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Sieve in the flour, adding the ground almonds, eggs and almond essence at the same time and stir until well mixed.
4. Scatter the base of the flan case with the raspberries and cover with the frangipane mixture, smoothing over the top with a palette knife and sprinkling with flaked almonds.
5. Bake in oven for 25 minutes until it is just firm.

You could also make smaller tarts in individual tins; just bake for 10-15 minutes. This recipe also works really well with blueberries.

ENJOY!!!!

Basking sharks have been silently gliding through the water just outside the harbour and round to Port Gaverne. For those who don't know a lot about these magnificent creatures, here are a few Basking Shark facts:

- 1 The Basking Shark is the largest wild animal to regularly visit the UK and is the second biggest fish in the world, after the Whaleshark.
- 2 They can reach 11m (36ft) in length and weigh up to seven tonnes.
- 3 Despite their enormous size, they do not pose a threat to humans. They have tiny teeth and filter-feed on small copepod zooplankton.
- 4 In order to take in enough food, they must filter approximately 2000 cubic metres of water an hour – equivalent to an Olympic swimming pool of water!
- 5 It can take 12-20 years to reach maturity.
- 6 Gestation may take from 18 months up to three years and a litter is thought to consist of five or six pups.
- 7 The Basking Shark has, in the past, been hunted primarily for liver oil. The Basking Shark is extremely vulnerable to high fishing pressure and all fisheries around the UK and Ireland have collapsed in the past.
- 8 The greatest threat facing the Basking Shark today is the high market price the fins fetch on the Asian market. These fins not only end up in shark fin soup but are also displayed in people's homes as status symbols.
- 9 It is illegal to kill, injure or to recklessly disturb Basking Sharks in British Waters; any person committing such an offence could face up to six months in prison.

Jack Collings, A Singer on the Wireless

In answer to Dugald Sproull's suggestion for more information about Jack Collings (Trio 254, June 2005), Eileen Spry of St Minver sent us a copy of an article she wrote about him in Old Cornwall, Vol. XII, No.5, Autumn 1999, and the following is extracted from that.

"Jack Collings was born at Port Isaac and his brother Tom was also a good singer. He married Eva and lived in Church Hill and had one son, Dennis (later a schoolmaster) and daughters Nona, Beryl, Maureen, Shirley, Velma and Peggy. He was initiated as a Cornish Bard at Perran Round in 1946, taking the Bardic name 'Pyscador a Gan' (Fisherman of Song).

Jack launched his career in St Kew School Room. Dr Wilson Gunn, conductor of Wadebridge Male Voice Choir, was struck with the richness of his voice and asked sing bass in the choir; 12 years later he gave up fishing. His father, 79 years old, still went searching for the elusive fish in a little lugger, Hilda.

Topical Times (1924) said Jack Collings "gave pleasure with his songs of Cornwall". At music festivals in 1927 he won 13 firsts and three silver medals. All listened to him in perfect silence as he faded his voice in 'After the Storm' and 'Skipper of St Ives' (Western Morning News, August 1927).

Jack's first broadcast, transmitted from the Foster Hall, Bodmin, was with St Dennis Band before a full audience on a Sunday afternoon. In 1928 he went to London to sing at the annual Devon and Cornwall Cornish Festival in the Wesleyan Central Hall, Westminster. Two thousand West Country people attended. Jack brought the house down with 'Pasties and Cream' and ended with 'Pasties of Polperro, Polruan, Lansallos and Looe'.

A concert of Clayworkers' and Fishermen's Choirs sang to an audience of 600 in Bodmin and this was relayed on the BBC West regional transmitter to the National wavelength. The wireless reception was excellent and monthly concerts followed. Jack sang with deep feeling of the sea he knew so well and was heard by thousands up and down the country. Said Jack, "I have had letters from so many people I do not even know".

A few more words of wisdom from the SOG

SO Live 8 and G8 came and went ... What was achieved?

I don't know if I know the answer to that. Everything has been somewhat overshadowed by the terrible events in London.

It still leaves the question. Did Live8 raise any awareness about the need to fight poverty? Did the G8 go anywhere near the job of tackling poverty?

Probably not, mainly because I don't think there is anyone around, living today, who doesn't know that almost half the world are needlessly starving. I say needlessly because the world has the capacity to feed all these people, there is a choice being made not to. Now I've heard all sorts of high moral arguments of why we shouldn't feed these people, but what I hear in them is ill-informed, pseudo-intellectual tabloid philosophy which just gives us enough of a comfort feeling to carry on being selfish.

I have also heard a great deal of counter arguments as I am sure all of you have. For that reason I am going to cease talking about debt and food for the world for the time being. Not because I think it isn't important, I think it is very important. No, it's because I can hear people's groans already with yet another person babbling on about the same subject.

Instead I will talk about ... the Olympics, another topic I am well informed about. Almost everyone who has voiced an opinion on this has come down in favour of London staging the games. But I have a strange feeling that this is because we beat the French to it rather than the prestige of holding the biggest sporting event in the world.

Is anything wrong in that? I hear you ask. After all, they are trying to get us to give our rebate back, this is the least we could do. I understand that the French have accused us of cheating to get the games. They're probably right. I'm not sure that I was ever a fan of that Lord Coe, but I think if it was looked into closely we would probably find that what we did was to cheat better than the French did. In my opinion, if we did that, then in its own right, there is an achievement worth celebrating.

Of course I am now falling into the trap of having a go at the French, because it is easy. I make no apology for that as they appear to make no apology for having a go at the Brits as often as they can. I am hoping we are all doing this with tongues firmly placed in our cheeks.

Now I know how the French are planning their revenge. No not in the EU or any other diplomatic circle. They are just going to try and win more gold medals than we do. Or is that just too straight forward for the complicated relationship that is Anglo-French?

Year 5 trip to Sir James

On Thursday 30th June, the year fives went to Sir James High School so we could see what it was like. Emily Thomas and Daniel Mountain showed us round and told us what classes we were going to. First we had Humanities and learned some Japanese and how to be a citizen. Then we had maths which wasn't very exciting. Next we did some science with chemicals that we mixed with acid then put on a Bunsen Burner and it turned all different colours. We had lunch at one o'clock and then we did English. We had to write a poem about red because there was a piece of red paper on the board. It was great fun and the school is lovely.

Teddy Bears Picnic

On Friday the 4th of July the year fives all brought in their teddy bears and in the afternoon we went out on to the grass and had a picnic. There were cakes that we iced our selves and then decorated. Jack had six cakes because he liked them so much! It was fun and it was just the right weather.

Book Review: King Arthur

This book is set in the Isles of Scilly. The author is Michael Morpurgo. The illustrations are by Christian Birmingham. It is suitable for age 7 upwards.

The main characters are a boy and a storyteller. It tells the story of a young boy who drowns and is washed up on the Isles of Scilly. He meets the storyteller who tells him exciting stories from his past. I especially enjoyed this book because it starts off in the present and goes back in time.

PIGS

Killiw Golf Club

July 2005

Killiw Park Golf Club is set in a beautiful wooded valley between Truro and Falmouth. However, this course held a very dark secret. The greens have been designed by the Devil himself; undulating, fast, tiered. In fact, everything that could have been done to a green was done and the pin placements were in some cases ridiculous (Ed: Perhaps if you were sober, things might look different?) But, as usual, us PIGS do like a challenge and Killiw certainly offered one of those!

Following Paul Honey down the windy drive (Ed: windy as in twisty not as in blowy), it was like looking at possibly the worst drunk driver, with Paul trying to miss every pot-hole. At one stage it looked like he was going to get out of the car and carry it the rest of the way to avoid any damage.

The first early arrivals were greeted with fresh coffee, fantastic bacon rolls, leather couches and pornography on the telly – well, it looked like porn but we were told it was a 'fitness' programme, yeah, right.

It seemed like every hole was a blind one, and possibly some of the players were as well, but that's another story! Unfortunately, I think that we have become a little soft over the months with the use of buggies on most of our previous excursions, because half way round this 'buggy free' course, most of us looked and felt knackered – hot weather and steep hill climbs, not a good combination. Of course, there has to be a few exceptions and these were Marion and Barbara (fitness goddesses) who took it all in their stride, literally. Thank you for making us all feel so totally inadequate, old and past it!

Eric Morecombe and Ernie Wise on Golf

Eric: My wife says if I don't give up golf, she'll leave me.

Ernie: That's terrible.

Eric: I know - I'm really going to miss her.

The results of the day's play were:

- 1st Mark 'The Beach Bum' Forbes with 28 Stableford points
- 2nd Andrew 'Dyson' Grills also with 28 points but lost on countback
- 3rd Paul 'Beaver Boy' Honey with 25 points

Longest Drive was Karl 'Potato Head' Daly

Nearest the Pin was Mark Forbes (Ed: Note Lard Man's respect for his boss!)

A good day's golf was followed by a nice dinner on the verandah and the now customary few beers.

The next event will be held at Launceston Golf Club on August 1st. September's is on the 5th at the Old Course, St Mellion.

The Lard Man

And the person who put oak trees in the middle of fairways should be shot!

Why men are happier people – allegedly!

What do you expect from such simple creatures? Your last name stays put. The garage is all yours. Wedding plans take care of themselves. Chocolate is just another snack.

You can never be pregnant. You can wear a white T-shirt to a water park. You can wear NO shirt to a water park. Car Mechanics tell you the truth.

You don't have to stop and think of which way to turn a nut on a bolt. Same work, more pay. Wrinkles add character. People never stare at your chest when you are talking to them. The occasional well-rendered belch is practically expected. New shoes don't cut, blister, or mangle your feet. One mood all the time. Phone conversations are over in 30 seconds flat. You know stuff about tanks.

A five day holiday requires only one suitcase. You can open all of your own jars. You get extra credit for the slightest act of thoughtfulness. If someone forgets to invite you, he or she can still be your friend.

Your underwear is £10 for a three-pack. Three pairs of shoes are more than enough. You almost never have strap problems in public. You are unable to see wrinkles in your clothes. Everything on your face stays its original colour. The same hairstyle lasts for years, maybe even decades. You only have to shave your face and neck.

You can play with toys all your life. Your belly usually hides your big hips. One wallet and one pair of shoes one colour for all seasons. You can wear shorts no matter how your legs look. You can "do" your nails with a pocket knife. You have freedom of choice concerning growing a moustache.

You can do Christmas shopping for 25 relatives on December 24th in 25 minutes.

No wonder men are happier!!!

The following report is not based on approved minutes signed by the Parish Council.

Parish Council News

LIGHT NIGHT REVELRY

Complaints had been received that there has been a great deal of noise and late night partying on the Platt and in the harbour area which has been disturbing local residents. It was agreed that the Parish Council would take this up with the Police, the Harbour Commission and Environmental Health Department, to ensure that this problem did not get out of hand.

VEGETATION AT LITTLE HILL

Several people have commented on the state of the vegetation on the cliff side of the wall at Little Hill, which has grown up to obscure much of the harbour view. As a cliff-top site, this is a difficult place to work, but the Parish Council has now located and engaged a contractor prepared to clear this.

INFORMATION GATEWAY PROJECT

It is hoped the grant aided illustrated panels will be in place within the next few weeks, to provide locals and visitors with information on our local heritage and diverse birds, flora and fauna.

TRELIGHTS

The Chairman reported that, with other Council members, he had met with Matthew Odger, Assistant County Tree Officer, regarding work to the very fine horse chestnut tree on Coronation Park, Trelights. He recommended sensitive crown raising and some branch reduction close to electricity cables and he would be on site when the work was carried out. The Parish Council would obtain quotes for this work and also apply for planning permission as this tree is subject to a Preservation Order.

At the request of Trelights Village Green Committee, it was agreed that the Parish Council would write to North Cornwall District Council requesting a dog bin with an appropriate pick-up sign to be placed at Coronation Park, Trelights as there are many more dogs in the village and more children are using the park.

REFUSE BINS – COAST PATH & PLATT

A proposal was put to the Parish Council that, as the existing bins along the Coast Path and on the Platt are inadequate, North Cornwall District Council be asked to provide larger size bins in these locations.

VISITOR CENTRE

Since the loss of the shared Mobile Visitor Centre in the car park, Port Isaac is now the only village, once served by that Centre, that has no permanent Visitor Information Centre. It was proposed to the Parish Council that they approach North Cornwall District Council to investigate the possibility of siting a permanent Visitor Information Centre in Port Isaac Village. Two suggested sites were - in front of the NCDC toilets in the car park or the Church Rooms.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

The Chairman reported that he and other Council members had met with Robert Constance from Cornwall County Highways at Trewetha to discuss traffic calming measures.

NEXT MEETING

This has been arranged for Monday, 8th August, at Port Isaac County Primary School, at 7.30 p.m.

Robin Elgar, Parish Councillor

Although the council appreciates the improved style of property, it was felt that 4 properties was overdevelopment of the site and 3 would be more appropriate. ## Sounds familiar?

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house and, after eating, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. The two elderly gentlemen were talking, and one says: "Last night we went out to a new restaurant, and it was really great. I would recommend it very highly". The other man says, "What's the name of the restaurant?"

The first man knits his brow in obvious concentration and finally says to his companion, "Aahh, what is the name of that red flower you give to someone you love?" His friend replies: "A carnation?" "No, no. The other one", the man says. His friend suggests "The poppy?" "Nahhhh", growls the man, "You know - the one that is red and has thorns". His friend replies, "Do you mean a rose?" "Yes! Thank you!" the first man says.

He then turns toward the kitchen and shouts, "Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?"
