The Royal British Legion

Thank you to everyone who has kindly offered their help in House-to-House Collections during the run-up to Remembrance Sunday plus all the shops, hotels and organisations throughout the Port Isaac area that have a RBL box on display. We are hoping to beat last years collection of just under £3,000.

Our Service here in Port Isaac will be held at St Peter's Church on Sunday November 13th, at 10.45am. We are thrilled that Canon Peter Larkin will be taking the Service for us this year. Once the wreaths have been laid at the War Memorial, everyone is invited to refreshments in the Church Rooms. I do hope that all the organisations who have kindly donated a wreath try to be present at the service to lay their wreath around the War Memorial. Many thanks. Let's do our best for all the families who have suffered in whatever way. Thank you.

The Trelights Walker

The first winter breezes make me assume the winter walker's stance – shoulders hunched and head down. Ah, the welcome return of winter!

The view from the top of Church Hill shows Port Isaac at its finest against a backdrop of white capped waves in a darkening sea as the light begins to fade. The walk along the cliff path gives the impression of an almost tranquil harbour as the breakwaters do their job. Yet on the other side you see the sea at its best as the incessant sets of waves cause a maelstrom of foam and spray as they lash and almost tear into the rocks. With the wind blowing even the seagulls are struggling to land and stay perched on the Cliffsides.

As I look across the bay at the white line of surf as it hits the cliffs, sending mini explosions of water up the cliffs, it seems to put into perspective how small and somewhat insignificant I am!

The Lard Man

She did it! Elaine completes her trek on the Great Wall of China

Having been talking about this challenge since March, I am sure you have all thought the day would not come - but I am delighted to tell you I completed the Cornwall Hospice Care Trek on the Great Wall of China!

It was the most amazing challenge. I found the trekking hard but well within my capabilities. Whereas the camping I found very hard and outside my capabilities!!!!

The weather was hot during the day and we were fortunate to have it clear to take in the incredible scenery.

At night it dropped quickly to freezing and, even with thermals, tracksuit, hoody and a sleeping bag (which is designed for temperatures to -14), I found it very cold.

The toilet tent was a sight to behold and an experience I hope not to repeat!

I feel very lucky to have been able to attend this Trek and cannot begin to describe how incredible the whole trip was. On top of this I have managed to raise the grand total of £4600 (with money still coming in!) for Cornwall Hospice Care in memory of my mum.

This total will be matched by Clydesdale Bank with half the matched funding going to Cornwall Hospice and the other half to Help the Hospices nationwide. As you know I personally contributed to this total to ensure my costs were covered outside of the sponsorship and donations.

It is still possible for you to add to this total as my Justgiving Page will stay open for a few weeks longer. It is www.justgiving.com/Elaine-Speakman

A big thank you to everyone who's sponsored, donated and supported my fundraising. I would be grateful to receive any sponsorship pledged but not paid.

The Carnival committee has been working hard planning many fund raising events to raise much needed cash for the Carnival.

2012 calendar

By the time you read this the calendar should be on sale. Well done and thank you to Amy, Kat and Juliet for all that they have done and to Sally Stratton for braving the sights and taking the pictures plus all of the businesses who sponsored a page and all of the men who got their kit off! Priced £5 each, you can reserve your copy by going onto the Port Isaac Carnival page on Facebook.

Psychic Night

This was a great success. It was a great evening and Paul Francis gave a fantastic demonstration of his psychic abilities. Many people in the audience received information of one kind or another. The general consensus after the show was how nice it was for something different to take place in the village. £413 was raised on the night and Paul has expressed an interest in coming back to do a workshop and another show plus a ghost hunt with his group, the KGB. He will need three properties for the ghost hunt so if you have a haunted property please let us know. You can find out more about Paul by visiting his website www.paulfrancis.net

Coming soon

We are planning a Bingo Night in St Peter's Church Rooms on Wednesday December 14th, a Ladies Night in the Village Hall on Friday December 16th and possibly a Christmas fair with kids party. Also in the pipeline are a poker night and casino evening. We would very much appreciate input as to the entertainment that you would like to see in our village.

Carnival entries

By now we hope that many of you are already planning your Carnival entry. Carnival classes have now been confirmed as: Best Royalty Float/Car, Best Visiting Senior Royalty and Junior Royalty, Comic Float, Artistic float, Children's Float, Walking Group and Walking Single and Trade Entry. There will also be prizes for the best decorated float, best original idea and the best in the carnival. In celebration of the Queen's Jubilee we will also be giving a prize for the best Jubilee entry.

All entrants must have own insurance and will be asked to sign a waiver. Floats should be viewable from both sides if possible. The route will start from the Playing Fields travelling down Trewetha Lane and New Road. Floats must be able to take the turning from New Road into Back Hill turning right at the bottom and coming back up onto New Road and returning to the Playing Field. An official application has been made for the roads to be closed.

Businesses can sponsor a cup or trophy (or anything else). To do this contact us on 880984/880920.

Children's Competition

Design the Trio Christmas cover

It's that time of the year again, it's your chance to have your picture as part of the Trio Christmas cover. The competition will be divided into two age groups - up to 7 years old and 8-11 years old. Winning designs from each age group will be reproduced on the back and front covers of the Christmas Trio. There will be prizes for the winning entries.

If you fancy having a go you need to get working straight away as designs have to be in by Thursday December 1st. Do not include the Trio header or any other details - we'll add those later. Ideally entries should be made on white A4 size paper or you can do a design on the computer if you prefer. If you need some paper call into Secrets. So get into an artistic mood and get working on your design. When its finished either drop it into Secrets or into Calenia, 3 Trewetha Lane or email it to triopi@mac.com

"will my son still want to play football with his Dad in ten years time?!"

Dear Trio

The Parish Council are pressing ahead with borrowing £376,000 over ten years at 2/5% interest, to do the car park - no toilets, no lighting. I haven't managed to see the plans yet (nor it would seem have most of the parish councillors). The bare bones of the deal are that the Parish Council generally accepts the figures detailed in the October Trio, give or take a few hundred pounds. They are making savings on some things, eg the ticket machines will be under guarantee for five years, Cornwall Council will collect and bank the takings saving admin costs. Cornwall Council will also undertake to pay any shortfall in paying back the loan so there should be no burden on the precept we all pay – instead the whole of Cornwall will make up the difference!! I estimate this will be between two and eight thousand pounds a year. In return for this generous deal, Cornwall Council will take ALL the money from the car park for a maximum of ten years.

The majority of the Parish will not benefit from the car park for ten years (120 months). Any improvements to the playing fields, skate park etc will have to wait until the car park loan is paid off. My children, aged 6, 8 and 10, will be 16, 18 and 20 by the time any major improvements are undertaken. If you have an unborn baby your child might just benefit.

There will be no more money from the Parish Council to do the small things like extra grass cuts in the playing fields. I went to play football on the field on Sunday October 23rd. The grass had been cut to four inches high and not picked up. I had trouble getting the ball to travel more than five feet despite numerous pleadings to the Parish Council to keep the grass cut and picked up. I'll have to wait until 2022 to get a decent kickaround – oh, I'll be 63 years old then and Oscar will be 20 and he won't want to play football with his Dad then!

An alternative is to improve the entrance with the £38,000 paid by Doc Martin and the car park money collected by Byron and Rphil (£75,000 divided 60%/40%) approx £30,000 this year. Add to that last year's car park income – more than enough, you would think. However, to my knowledge this option has never been explored or discussed - and we would be approx £30,000 a year better off. It's not rocket science! As I see it:

Parish Council preferred option - Year One - No money for the Parish, Year Two - No money for the Parish, Year Three-No money for the Parish, Year Four-No money for the Parish, Year Five-No money for the Parish, Year Six-No money for the Parish, Year Seven-No money for the Parish, Year Eight-No money for the Parish, Year Nine-No money for the Parish, Year Ten-No money for the Parish, Year Eleven-£30,000 for the Parish.

Residents preferred option - Year One-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Two-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Three-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Four- £30,000 for the Parish, Year Five-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Six-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Seven-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Eight-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Nine-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Ten-£30,000 for the Parish, Year Eleven-£30,000 for the Parish

John Brown, Port Isaac resident

Dear Trio

I understand that someone has been complaining that two Huskies that live in the village are dangerous. I know these two blissfully quiet dogs well. They walk past my house everyday as their owner takes them for a walk. Both dogs are muzzled and on leads, (only because they are so large and strong and NOT because they have a nasty nature). Believe me these two dogs do not have a nasty bone in their body. Even when my tiny dog Winnie barks at them as they walk past, they do not even turn a hair.

So whoever is complaining about them, frankly they haven't got a clue what they are talking about. If owners (locals or visitors) have no control over their own dogs and let them harrass other dogs, my feeling is they should be more responsible and accept the circumstances. But in the case of Amanda's dogs this would not have been the case.

Annie Price

Dear Trio

I need to raise my concerns over the recent proposals to complete the playing fields car park at the entrance to the village. The September parish council minutes posted at the Co-op noticeboard indicate borrowing of over £450,000. Since John Browns intervention, with figures published in Trio last month showing a possible annual loss of £5000 and loan repayments of £38,000, I understand the parish council has now revised the loan figure down to around £350,000. There is obviously no business plan, there has been no public consultation and I don't believe our parish councillors are quite sure of the commitment they are making on behalf of the parish. Only six elected councillors are left. The remaining five were co-opted by the councillors themselves, not elected. Are they all going to be there at the next election or commit us to years of debt and then walk away?

It was well over ten years ago when the parish council was asked if it would put in a skateboard ramp. I remember the kids coming to the meeting to ask for it. The answer then was 'no money available'. If the parish council commit to this ludicrous loan it will be another ten years at least before any improvements in our playing fields take place as all the revenue will go to paying off the loan.

I would like to propose that the parish council commit to spending at least £20,000 on the playing fields. We know they have receipts from two years car parking plus a large sum from Buffalo productions. This must be nudging £100,000. The tarmac area used for temporary parking in the past is an ideal area to put a skateboard half-pipe. The majority of residents do not benefit from the day visitors who use the car park. The revenue must be used to benefit all in the parish not just the banks!

We do not need a fully tarmaced car park. You and I are no longer allowed to tarmac our front gardens for parking because of the water run off. So why should the parish council think its a good idea? I suspect a large part of this loan would go to pay for extensive drainage to prevent the rest of our playing fields turning into a quagmire.

We can dramatically cut the cost of this project by looking at more environmentally friendly alternatives. Sort out the entrance this coming year with the money we have and make improvements as more money becomes available from car park receipts.

Cooking with Martin

Some ideas for Bonfire night, to go alongside the traditional favourites like bangers and mash and hot jacket spuds baked in the fire.

Mulled cider

a hot toddy to keep you warm

- 100 g brown sugar
- 1 pinches salt
- 2 litres cider
- 1 tsp ground allspice
- 1 tsp whole cloves
- 1 pinches nutmeg
- 2 oranges, peel only, cut into segments
- 6 cm cinnamon sticks
- 50 g blanched flaked almonds, lightly toasted

- 1) Combine the sugar and salt, and add to the cider in a large saucepan.
- 2) Tie the spices in cheesecloth, you could use a clean J cloth or tea towel, and add to the cider. Slowly bring to the boil. Cover and simmer for 20 minutes.
- 3) Remove the spices and add the orange peel, cinnamon stick and toasted almonds before serving in a punch bowl.

Toffee apples

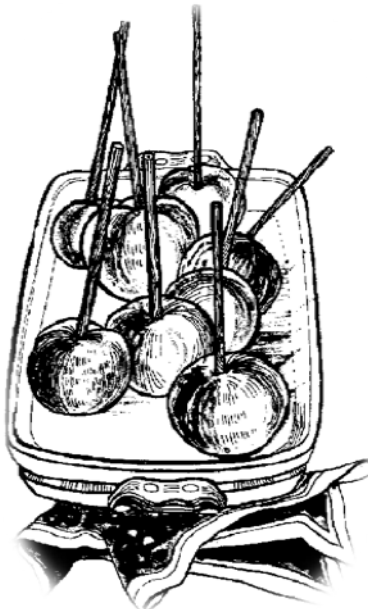

please be careful when making this dish as hot sugar hurts a lot if you burn yourself with it!

- 225 g demerara sugar
- 110 ml water
- 0.5 tsp vinegar
- 2 tbsp golden syrup
- 25 g butter
- For the apples

6 apples

6 wooden skewers, for holding the apples – ice lolly sticks will do

- 1) Dissolve the sugar in the water over a moderate heat. When it has dissolved, stir in the vinegar, syrup and butter.
- 2) Bring to a boil and cook without stirring until it reaches hard-crack stage (138C) or hardens into a ball when dropped in a jug of cold water. This should take around 10 minutes boiling time.
- 3) While the syrup is cooking, pierce each apple with a wooden stick.
- 4) Once the toffee is ready, dip each apple into the hot toffee, turning it around in the syrup so that each one is fully coated.
- 5) Leave to harden on a lightly oiled tray before serving. If you're planning to keep them for a day or two, wrap the apples in lightly oil greaseproof paper.

Parkin

Parkin is essentially the Northern English form of gingerbread. Yorkshire Parkin is eaten on Bonfire Night, November 5th, celebrating the famous failure of Guy Fawkes to blow up the Houses on Parliament in 1605. Guy Fawkes was a Yorkshireman.

This Parkin Recipe is easy to make and creates a lovely, moist sticky cake - though you can eat the cake almost immediately it gets stickier if you wrap and store it for several days.

- 8 oz/220g soft butter
- 4 oz/110g soft, dark brown sugar
- 2oz / 55g black treacle/molasses
- 7oz / 200g golden syrup/ corn syrup
- 5oz/ 150g medium oatmeal
- 7 oz/ 200g self raising
- 4 tsp ground ginger
- 2 tsp nutmeg
- 1 tsp mixed spice
- 2 large eggs, beaten
- 1 tbsp milk

- 1) Heat the oven to 275°/140°C/gas 1, grease an 8" x 8" / 20cm x 20cm square cake tin.
- 2) In a large heavy-based saucepan melt together the butter, sugar, treacle, golden syrup over a gentle heat. Do not allow the mixture to boil, you simply need to melt these together.
- 3) In a large, spacious, baking bowl stir together all the dry ingredients. Gradually add the melted butter mixture stirring to coat all the dry ingredients and mix thoroughly.
- 4) Gradually, beat in the eggs a few tablespoons at a time. Finally add the milk and again stir well.
- 5) Pour the mixture into the prepared tin and cook for 1½ hours until firm and set and a dark golden brown. Remove the parkin from the oven and leave to cool in the tin.
- 6) Once cool store the Parkin in an airtight tin for a minimum of 3 days if you can resist eaten it, you can even leave it up to a week before eating and the flavours really develop and the mixture softens even further and become moist and sticky. The Parkin will keep up to two weeks in an airtight container.

Enjoy and stay safe.

news and views from Port Isaac School

All aboard the Port Isaac School speedboat

When the idea of new playground equipment was raised, one idea stood out from the rest. It was obvious that we should find a play boat. The children already play 'fishermen' on an old donated kayak.

We put an advert out locally for a lonely neglected boat that we could make better use of and give it some love and attention. We'd given up hope until we got a call from Steve Siford (a local farmer) the last week of school before the school holidays.

Following an enthusiastic meeting with a local carpenter (who offered to do the work for FREE), the boat was delivered the last day of term and lowered over the school fence with the farmers tractor.

With one days labour from the carpenter, Paul and his apprentice from Absolute Wood in Delabole, the speedboat now had seats, a flagpole and a proper floor, even drainage so the children won't have to bale water! Although they would enjoy that!

Our very friendly builder Andy Penny from Port Isaac also agreed to work for free, to dig it into the ground. We had a couple of extra very willing volunteers including Tom (his son, age 12), Sam Boothroyd (age 8), Tom Boothroyd (age 5) and Sarah Boothroyd (mum).

The children from Port Isaac School would like to say a big thank you to all those that made it possible, this is community spirit in action!

RNLI BARN DANCE

RNLI
NEWS

This is the year our dedicated and talented Pantomime cast take a well earned rest, put their feet up and take the opportunity to enjoy the village festive activities. Needless to say, we all miss this highlight of the year and will be looking forward to their next production in 2012.

In the meantime with this gap in the Christmas calendar, we shall be once again be swinging our partners with a Great Barn Dance. It's always fun for all ages, a great family event and always well supported. Put a note in your diary and come along to join in the fun. Everybody welcome, tickets on the door.

RNLI HARVEST FESTIVAL

The Port Isaac RNLI Harvest Festival and Auction was held at The Edge Restaurant on Friday October 14th, by kind invitation of Paul Williams and Tom Lane.

Yet again we were lucky to have Jon Cleave as our Auctioneer. In his usual outrageous manner, he made the evening hilarious and encouraged all present to put their hands in their pockets.

The huge array of items to be auctioned were donated by loyal local businesses and friends, who every year never let us down. A huge thank you to you all.

The auction concluded with the sale of the Harvest Sheaf loaf, kindly baked and donated by Barnecutt's (Wadebridge).

On the side, there was a 'Guess the weight of a salmon' which was won by Nigel Andrews (a former crew member) who was correctly guessed the weight at 3.25kg.

As a result of such a really good evening for locals and visitors alike, and due to all your generosity, we raised £1400. A marvellous sum, and thank you for all your support.

During the Harvest Festival, Port Isaac crew and committee presented a framed photograph of Gino with some of the crew, and a Shield and formal Presentation Certificate in recognition of his impressive fundraising efforts. Already he has raised over £2400 on his patrols round the village, which included £200 in support of Andy Cameron's RNLI London Marathon.

Too early for a New Year resolution?

Now's the time to make plans for 2012 which aren't about the Olympics but about your own health and wellbeing. The health benefits of singing have long been recognised so read on and find out how you can approach 2012 with a whole new hobby!

The Port Isaac Chorale are a group of men and women of all ages who enjoy singing a very wide range of music together and we'd like a few new members to join us in January. We are looking for both male and female (although males are particularly welcome).

You will have to have a short, private audition with Janet Townsend MBE, the Chorale's musical director and if successful, you will be expected to attend Tuesday evening rehearsals regularly. These only take place during school term time and there are also occasional concerts so it's not a huge commitment. If you're interested, phone Morwenna Vernon on 01208 880714 or e mail on m.vernon@homecall.co.uk for more information.

The Chorale will be out and about over the Christmas period if you'd like to come and listen. On Tuesday, 13th December we will be having our annual Carols in the Pottery evening when everyone is invited to join us in singing carols, including Port Isaac's own festive songs. This will be an opportunity to really get the Christmas season off to a musical start.

On Sunday 18th December there will be an open carol session at the Red Lion Inn, St Kew Highway where everyone is welcome to join in.

Friday 23rd will see the Chorale singing carols at the Port Gaverne Hotel. This is always a popular evening and we look forward to seeing you there.

Make 2012 the year you join the Chorale and enjoy singing with a new group of friends.

RNLI CHRISTMAS MARKET

The Annual Christmas Market takes place on Saturday December 3rd in the Village Hall starting at 10.30am. As always, Father Christmas will be there to meet everyone and, with a little bit of luck, will be able to make your Christmas wishes come true.

There will be an array of stalls, including mulled wine, mince pies, plus all the RNLI Christmas cards and pictures. Gulls Allowed will be joining us to sing some carols (and I suspect we will all be expected to join in, but with the help of the good food and drink we will be in great voice!) so do come along and join us.

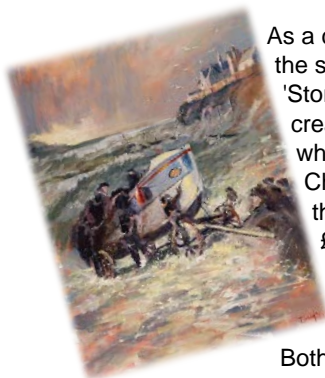

If anyone or any organisation wishes to have a table at the market, please contact me on 880386. Don't leave it till the last minute as tables are going fast and we are limited on space. The cost will be a £15 donation to the RNLI.

RNLI CHRISTMAS CARDS

Christmas is not that far away and it's time to start thinking about Christmas cards. This year Port Isaac RNLI has a choice of two exclusive cards. Local artist, Roy Ritchie has generously donated his painting of Father Christmas speeding away over a snow clad Jamaica Inn. This is just one of several paintings that Roy has donated to the RNLI in recent years.

As a contrast we have the stunning, evocative scene, 'Storm Launch', of the Lifeboat back in the 1890s created and donated by Port Isaac artist Barbara Hawkins, who has created the images for four of our past RNLI Christmas cards. The original painting may be viewed in the Pottery where draw tickets can also be purchased for £1 to win it. The winning ticket will be pulled at the Port Isaac RNLI Christmas Market in the Village Hall on December 3rd.

Both cards, priced £1.25 each, will be available at the Market and can also be purchased from the Pottery or the Peapod Gallery or ordered over the telephone, 01208 880765 or 880581.

RNLI SUPPORTERS

Port Isaac Lifeboat Station Crew and Committee had the pleasure of welcoming two of their great supporters on October 21st. Former Storm Force member Victoria Redman from East Yorkshire has fundraised over the past six years for Port Isaac RNLI. During this time she has raised over £4,000, recognised by the National RNLI Award of Young Fund Raiser of the Year in 2009 at the Barbican, London. With her was Storm Force member George Mayall from Stourbridge in the West Midlands

On this visit Victoria presented a cheque for a further £540 to be dedicated towards the cost of re-equipping our crew with new improved design RNLI Lifejackets, due to come into service in the New Year.

Over the past two years George has kept in touch with the station on a regular monthly basis exchanging frequent letters with the Chairman. He follows the Station's day to day activities very closely and keeps detailed logs of call outs, not only for Port Isaac but the Lifeboat service in general. His detailed knowledge of the RNLI and its operations is second to none and highly valued by all of his RNLI friends in Port Isaac. and other stations with whom he maintains close contact. Damien Bolton presented both George and Victoria with Port Isaac RNLI Lifejackets as a thank you for their support. De Allerton-Baldwin with George Mayall. LAST CALL FOR WINTER BALL TICKETS

Time is marching on and the table reservation plan is now well under way for the forthcoming Winter Ball due to be held at Trewetha Farm on Saturday November 26th. Don't be left out - it is a great opportunity to join our crew and committee and the many friends and supporters of Port Isaac RNLI for what is going to be a very special star spangled pre Christmas get together. Why not let your hair down, put on those dancing pumps and swing to the foot stomping New Orleans music of the Gumbo Flyers and the varied style of that very special group Keiko-Rise. Make this a special night to remember in the lead up to Christmas.

Be sure to reserve your tickets soon.
We are closing the seating plan on Friday November 12th
Available from the Peapod Gallery or phone 01208 881197, 01208 880700

Remember, remember ...

mid the autumn colours and falling leaves, November ushers in a time of remembrance at our churches. On All Saint's Day and Remembrance Sunday, we remember those martyred for their Christian faith and those who died in service of their country. We do so not to glorify violence but to recall the price paid by others and to strive all the harder to resolve peacefully the injustices and conflicts that afflict our world. On All Souls day we remember and pray for loved ones whose memory remains a part of our lives.

All these days invite us to reflect upon the legacy that past generations have bequeathed to us, and question what legacy we will leave to the generations who follow. November is also a time when we should remember the small, everyday sacrifices that so many make to help maintain our communities and village life. For my own part I would like to thank all those who help maintain our local councils, commerce, societies and churches that keep our communal life alive today. Having inherited so much from those that preceded us, perhaps the best way to celebrate their memory is to ensure we transmit a rich legacy and vibrant communities to those that follow.

David Alan Castle

4th January 1951 to 20th October 2011

David was Kathleen & David's second son who spent the early part of life near Liskeard before moving to Port Isaac in 1963. He attended Sir James Smith's School at Camelford followed by Plymouth School of Navigation.

David & Gillian at Kensington Palace

From an early age he had the love of the sea and spent many hours out at sea in the family boat or with Jack and Cyril Spry on the Dawn. When 18 he became a crewmember of Port Isaac Lifeboat and served for six years. As a Merchant Navy Deck Officer he went around the world several times. In 1975 he married Gillian and set up home in Elm Park Essex. David left the Merchant Navy 1982 and joined the Metropolitan Police. In 1984 he was seconded to the Royal Protection Unit based at Buckingham Palace and later moved to Kensington Palace. David left the Met on medical grounds following a brain tumour operation in 1996. He leaves two children, Thomas and Sarah. Thomas also serves in the Metropolitan Police.

Eric Stokes

We mourn the passing of Eric Stokes, who lived in Port Isaac for over twenty-five years, and whose deep love for both the village and its inhabitants was often reflected in the poetry he wrote.

Born in South Norwood in 1923, Eric grew up in a large family. After he'd finished school, the announcement of war halted any further plans. Eric joined the R.A.F 600 squadron and his subsequent years in the war took him to Algeria, Italy and Greece. In particular, Eric looked back on his time in Italy with fond memories, often joking about his ability to charm sophisticated Italian beauties! The end of the war brought Eric back to London. Although happy to be home, the memories of the war never left him. Among his poems about Cornwall's charming cliff paths and crashing oceans, there were poems about the futility of war and the brave friends that he'd lost but not forgotten.

In 1951, Eric married Audrey Weekes and their son, Stephen, was born in 1955. Around this time, Eric became the manager of a building company that worked on some of London's most famous sites. After their son had grown and married, Eric and Audrey decided to leave the bustling city in search of a quieter life. They settled in Port Isaac where they opened a clothes shop 'Eric & Audrey's'. Eric fell in love with the rugged beauty of Cornwall and the warmth of Port Isaac's small community. Eric soon became a fixture in the village, known for his stripy shirts and poetry writing. The new millennium brought Eric an opportunity to be Quiz Master in his local pub- a role he cherished. Even after he retired from it, Eric often attended the quiz. He remained a recognised and well-liked character in Port Isaac.

Eric Curtis Stokes passed away peacefully on Monday the 17th of October 2011. He is survived by his wife, Audrey, his son and daughter-in-law and his two granddaughters. He will be greatly missed by his family, his friends and by the village of Port Isaac, his feelings for which he summed up in the final lines of his poem 'The Soft Heart A' Beating';

"I came as a stranger, you called me your friend,
With these humble verses this 'thank-you' I send,
God prosper your village, and still to the end
Keep your soft heart a' beating"

Eric's funeral will be held at St. Endellion Church at 2.30pm on Wednesday November 2nd. All are welcome to attend. No flowers, donations to Cornwall Air Ambulance please.

Jack Legge

Jim and Heather would like to thank everyone in Port Isaac who made their son, Jack, such a welcome visitor in his wheelchair.

Though born and brought up in Sutton Coldfield, Jack came to Port Isaac regularly every year since he was a baby. He would sit happily at the front of White House Cottage listening to his story tapes and watching life unfold on the Platt. Pulling a mackerel out of the water with John Brown on Winnie the Pooh, hearing Nicki B tell someone off from the other side of the harbour or popping into the Golden Lion with his Dad for a quick pint of Tinnens; all would bring a beautiful smile to Jack's young face.

Jack died peacefully in his sleep on October 9th but recollections of his lovely times in Port Isaac will always be treasured memories. Fittingly the music of the Fisherman's Friends singing 'Union of Different Kinds' accompanied his farewell service.

Jackie Hicks

25/07/53-24/10/11

People in the village will remember Jackie, the daughter of Jack and Daisy Hicks and the sister of Mary, Wendy, Carolyn and Nicky. As a young child she often sat in the butcher's shop greeting the customers. Although she had cerebral palsy she led a very full and happy life.

For the past 26 years Jackie lived in the Scope home at Camborne where she was greatly loved and will be sadly missed. The family are very grateful for all the support the village has given Daisy in the past in helping her to raise funds for the home.

Jackie had many interests, particularly music and film. She loved comedy and was a great practical joker. She also painted and was skilled in interior design.

A funeral and celebration of Jackie's life will be held at 11am on Saturday November 5th at St Endellion Church, followed by a burial. All are welcome. Family flowers only please but donations to Scope, Tehidy Road, Camborne TR14 8FD. If transport is a problem please phone Carolyn on 01462 622746.

Sweet Kathleen

Lynn Wright Dutton of Tintagel has written a sea shanty, Sweet Kathleen, especially for her twin brother Gary.

They were recently in Port Isaac filming Gary singing the shanty in the harbour and on board Sharicmar.

You can hear the shanty on You Tube – just type in Sweet Kathleen.

Building Village History

the stories behind the buildings of Port Isaac

open from Thursday November 17th

We're aiming to show the stories behind the buildings of Port Isaac; who lived where and when, the former inhabitants and the street tales. If you know the previous history of your home, it's not too late to let Dee know and it will be included in the exhibition. We're also hoping that visitors to the exhibition will add information to the exhibits.

January - March 2012 Exhibition (in conjunction with Plymouth University)

Prof Catherine Hennessy and Dr Gloria Lankshear of Plymouth University are well known to many in Port Isaac following their research into the quality of life of older people. The resulting findings are going to be shown as part of an exhibition, curated by Bournemouth University, which, we are delighted to announce, should be launched at our PISCES project sometime in January. As soon as we know the details we will let you all know. This has postponed the launch of the 'Schooldays' exhibition until Easter time.

Interactive touch screen technology

Following our recent meeting, we have made the decision to use Asus Eee Pads which can be used for touch-screen technology and recording. As they are a much cheaper option than our previous plans, we're hoping to start using them early in 2012. There is the exciting possibility that we can have two or three in use as a permanent part of the PISCES exhibition space.

We have seen a total of 12,500 visitors in St Peter's since PISCES began 12 months ago . The comments left in the visitors' book all say how wonderful and interesting the history of Port Isaac is.

PISCES and the Golden Circle

We would like to invite the Golden Circle to join us for afternoon tea at their January meeting on Thursday January 12th 2012. Put the date in your diary now .Annie Philp will be happy to organise lifts for anyone who needs transport.

PISCES Cookery book

A reminder that we would love to have your recipes and stories for the fundraising cookery book we are putting together?

And if you have any drawings or paintings that you'd like to be included, please give them to Cheryl Webster, who is gathering it all together (tel 01208 880802).

Dates for 2012 include:

The Port Isaac Memory Christmas Tree

PISCES is putting up the Memory Tree this year. As usual it will be in its usual spot on Little Hill and we would like to thank Trevathan Farm for donating it to the village. Cliff Bulgin has donated the lights so thank you to him too.

As well as your ribbons you can also write a message or a name on a CD that you can hang on the tree. These CDs are available from Dee at Secrets and will look lovely shimmering in the fairy lights. The tree will go up during the first week in December and you can add your decoration whenever you wish. It's a lovely way to remember and celebrate friends and loved ones.

PISCES Christmas Evening

St Peter's Church
7 pm
Friday December 9th

Come and join us. We're going to light up the Christmas tree, listen to a few carols from Gulls Allowed (and join in if you wish), enjoy some mulled wine and mince pies and tell us your stories of childhood Christmases in Port Isaac. Can you remember what Father Christmas brought you 'in the old days'? What did you eat for Christmas dinner? Do come along for an hour or so and share your memories and enjoy the evening with us.

Could you save a life?

The PORT ISAAC COMMUNITY FIRST RESPONDER SCHEME is looking for volunteers to join the team who respond to specific emergency calls.

Full training is given to enable you to support the patient until the Emergency Ambulance Response arrives.

This is a vital resource for our small community and we really need your help. Responders can really make a difference.

If you are over 18yrs of age with access to a car and would like further information/application form please contact Deb Tidey on 01208 880783

PIGS ON TOUR

The boys dusted off their passports and rode off into the sunset heading for Wales. Unfortunately, due to work commitments, I didn't go so this is all written on hearsay! After speaking to a few of the lads on their return, all I got from them was 'Wow', 'Wow' and 'Wow'. The service, the food, the hotel, the golf were all just ... 'WOW!'

When they arrived at the Celtic Manor on Sunday lunchtime their clubs were taken to the driving range and they were given complimentary balls to hit on the range. From that moment on, they didn't see their clubs again until they were waiting for them on the first tee – and they arrived CLEANED! If any PIGS wives or girlfriends are reading this then please take note – we will be expecting a lot from you!!

Behaviour at The Manor was impeccable due to PC Ian Chambers – yes, he is a real rozzar and future son-in-law to 'The Adonis'. He kept everyone in line which is something I haven't been able to do in twelve years!!

Before leaving it was agreed that the three courses were going to offer severe challenges to several members but a few of them did manage to score well – notably 'The Copper' on the 2010 Ryder Cup Course, carding a very good score of 33 points. However, the overall winner over the three courses was 'Shandy' Grills. The full results can be seen on our Facebook page – just type in 'Port Isaac Golf Society' for results, news, photo evidence and future fixtures.

The main consensus of opinion is 'When can we do it again, it was ... WOW!'

And on the first tee on the last day, as the boys gathered for their final round, a steward asked if they were the PIGS who were in the Spike Bar the previous night after playing the mighty 2010 course. The reply was, 'Yes, why?' 'Well' he said, 'you lot celebrated more than the Ryder Cup team did!' The PIGS have left their mark again!

The Lardman

PS The next match is November 7th at Falmouth.

PISCES Memory Booklets

Has our mention of Christmas got you thinking about presents? If so our 'Everybody has a story to tell' Memory Booklets, priced £3 each, would make lovely little stocking fillers - or buy the whole set for a lovely big present.

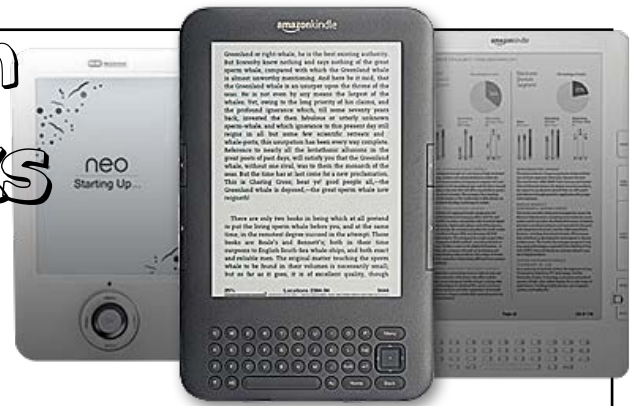

They are available from the exhibition, Secrets or the Pottery and wherever you buy them from, all the money goes to PISCES.

Oil top-up service

HOP Oil offers a top-up oil service with a special price for bulk delivery. Some of the residents of Rose Hill already take advantage of this service. However, if more people in the village want to join in it may be that an even better rate could be negotiated.

If you would like to join the list of people who get a regular two monthly top up to their oil tank contact Mandy Jeffs at HOP on 01208 851195 or email her at mjeffs@hopoils.co.uk

Websites of the month the world of ebooks

This month's column is all about electronic books (ebooks), which have become popular through ebook readers like the Kindle. This is a good example of a company, in this case Amazon, turning a threat into an opportunity when it seemed like books would become much less attractive to people as they could get all the information they needed through the television or the internet. Amazon, the biggest online retailer of books, came up with the Kindle book reader and this has stimulated a rapid growth in the electronic book market. Now you can get the free Kindle ebook reader for your computer (windows or mac), for the iPad, for various smartphones including the iPhone.

Cleverly they linked up the reader to the Amazon online book store, so that you can purchase books from them and then read them on your Kindle, or any of your appliances that happens to have the Kindle reader installed.

The amazing thing about this is that as well as stimulating the book market for recently published books, it provides a way of reading classics which are out of copywrite and can be obtained for nothing. It is sometimes a bit complicated so I thought I would use this column to explain.

I have recently downloaded some of Joseph Conrad's books, all for free. Heart of Darkness might not be your cup of tea, but I thoroughly enjoyed it, and wouldn't have read it probably if it wasn't so easy to get.

Now the next bit is quite technical, so probably a teenager might be useful here if you have trouble. And things might go wrong, so proceed at your own risk. It shouldn't as Amazon has taken great care to make their Kindle 'app' very resilient and it should work on most computers.

Anyway, I will press on as it is worth the effort. So to start with you need to install a copy of a free Kindle reader and I will take you through what you need to do if you have an ordinary Windows PC. First of all you need to log on to Amazon (www.amazon.co.uk) and find the Kindle download page (<http://tinyurl.com/6dn7g9r>). Click on download and then install (run the programme). This should work fine as I mentioned above.

Having downloaded and installed it you can click on the icon and it will open up with a nice startup screen. You may be asked to register it with Amazon, and I am not sure if you have to as I have been registered with them for some time and forget whether you need to.

Once the programme is open you need to locate where your ebooks are stored. There is a toolbar along the top with a tab called 'tools'. Click on this and then click options, then to 'content' which will show you where the folder 'My Kindle Content' is. This is the place the computer stores your ebooks. You will probably have some free gifts from Amazon already in there.

Ok, now to the good bit where you can get your free books. Firstly if we have a look at Project Gutenberg. Johannes Gutenberg (born in 1398) as you will probably know, was a blacksmith who invented the first printing press. Project Gutenberg (www.gutenberg.org) is named after him and has the same aim of bringing books to as wide a readership as possible. It offers over 36,000 free ebooks to download.

Supposing you wanted to get Charles Dickens' 'A Christmas Carol' (it being that time of year), you put the title in the search box and up it will come. You can download two versions, one with and one without images. When you download it, save it to the folder called 'My Kindle Content'. Then when you open up Kindle it will be there for you to read.

A rather advanced tip, but well worth a try, is to download copy of the magic catalogue from <http://freekindlebooks.org/MagicCatalog/magiccatalog.html> and load this into your Kindle reader. When you read this catalogue you can click on the book titles.

I did 'Alice's Adventures in Wonderland' and it takes you straight to it online in the project Gutenberg website and download it for you. You only need to make sure it's saved in the right place, ie 'My Kindle Content'. For an entertaining video about how to get the best out of your Kindle for PC, have a look at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R3Eos6C2hAQ>

If you are interested in Cornwall and the Cornish, and why wouldn't you be, The Federation of Old Cornish Societies has a cracking website and you can download over 400 free ebooks about Cornwall from there - www.oldcornwall.org/Library.htm Project Gutenberg also has a few historic books about Cornwall.

Hope you enjoy the read.

Children's Nearly New Sale Success

The latest sale was held on Saturday 8 October and proved to be as popular as ever. Long queues of buyers were waiting, looking for quality childrens equipment, clothes, toys and books. We have now been running for over three years, holding sales in April and October and have managed to build a reputation based on the excellent quality of the items on sale.

Thanks to our loyal team of volunteers who have again managed to help us raise funds for St Teath School, and also those who came to support us.

The next sale will be held in April 2012 – keep an eye out for dates (posters, st Teath website and Facebook will be updated with details when they become available).

TREVARNER GUEST HOUSE

A little bit of Port Isaac on the shores of the Solent

Tony and Kate Provis have just opened their guest house in the delightful village of Hill Head on the South Coast of Hampshire which is also home to a small harbour of the same name and it's immediate neighbour, Titchfield Haven National Nature Reserve. Located on the coast road our guest lounge has spectacular sea views of the Solent and the Isle of Wight.

An ideal spot from which to conduct business at both Southampton and Portsmouth as well as to tour the South Coast and visit the famous local landmarks or to base yourself for sailing, windsurfing and kitesurfing.
