Things Village Hall ...

A new year ... we have our first meeting of 2018 at the end of January and will be planning lots of fundraising activities so look out next month.

Once the weather gets a bit better we will be using the money that we have received from the Co-op to do a bit more work on our extension.

And talking of the Co-op, Darren has very kindly offered us the opportunity to do regular Village Hall fundraising in store so look out for our cake stalls and raffles in the coming months.

More news next month but in the meantime, if you want to hold an event in your Hall, get in touch.

NOVEMBER FIREWORKS NIGHT PORT GAVERNE

Reluctantly St Endellion Parish Council has taken the decision to not have a bonfire on Port Gaverne beach in 2018 and for the foreseeable future.

The Fireworks display will continue as usual on a Saturday near to November 5th

Unfortunately the requirements of our insurers of a 75m exclusion zone around the bonfire makes it impossible to legally continue in a safe manner. Plus our requests for 'timber and hedge cuttings only', while supported by most, continues to be ignored by the few. Last years deposits included a car battery, two tyres, a tin of roofing compound and two 5 litre cans of antifreeze. We, along with the National Trust who owns the beach, also have concerns over the remnants of the fire, which may include plastic, being washed out to sea.

On a positive note, this gives everyone a chance to think a little bit outside the box. Is there something else that can go on, on the beach that night? Permission from The National Trust is required. Happy to have a chat.

Malija

Featuring jazz saxophonist Mark Lockheart, bassist Jasper Hoiby and pianist Liam Noble, Malija is a sophisticated, genre-bending trio that has been delighting audiences since 2014, now coming to St Endellion as part of a UK tour promoting their second album Instinct. The band's idiomatic sweep through bluegrass, tango, abstract grooves and shimmering landscapes is delivered with flair and playful abandon.

Tickets £10 (accompanied under 16s free)

Book tickets online at www.endelienta.org.uk; by email tickets@endelienta.org.uk; by phone 07787 944935; or from the Wadebridge Bookshop (concert tickets only).

Port Isaac Chorale

With the Festive season over the Chorale have reconvened and look to the Spring with a fresh new repertoire under the temporary leadership of Gareth Stubberfield. Gareth has moved to the area following a music teaching career at Bethany School where he encouraged young students to join in local large scale Choral Societies of which he was also a Director. We are very fortunate to have his expertise and he has certainly put us through our paces with his amusing warm-ups, exercises, techniques and anecdotes. Whilst our own Musical Director is on vacation, he intends to get us tuned up, tuned in and tuneful as we prepare for the forthcoming Wadebridge Music Festival Competition in March. Will Janet be impressed on her return?

The Chorale are some 40 strong and available to perform at your celebratory or fundraising events. If you would like further details of our repertoire and available dates please contact Secretary Pat, tel: 01208 880969.

We wish you a Happy and Musical New Year.

Friday 23 February, 7.30pm Truro Cathedral Choir

The Truro Cathedral Choir returns to St Endellion with a glorious programme of sacred music and organ solos from across the centuries. The choir, which will have been working in local schools during the day, comprises twelve adult professional singers, joined by young choristers. As well as singing at seven services each week, the choir undertakes regular concerts, broadcasts, webcasts, foreign tours, and CD recordings. Tickets £10 (accompanied under 16s free)

Fisherman's Mission receive a cheque from the Harvest of the Sea project

Throughout last summer lots of events celebrated our village's Harvest of the Sea project. Local businesses sold the FISH PI tea towel and raised nearly £3000 that was divided between St Peter's Church, The Fishermen's Mission and The Ideas Partnership.

On a very windy January morning (were there any January mornings that weren't windy!) Julian Waring, the fundraising manager for the Cornwall Fisherman's Mission Centre, came to Port Isaac to receive a cheque for £910.

Calling all walkers ...

Trying to fit in your 10,000 steps a day, just going for a stroll, walking the dog? Whatever your reason for being out and about in the village, we need your help.

Whilst we are used to and expect tidal flooding at high tides etc we are also at risk of flooding from the land, particularly if the Leats at Port Isaac and Port Gaverne get blocked.

So we are asking if you see anything blocking the Leats, often large items such as wheely bins that get blown in, can you let one of the flood wardens know please. You can call:

Quiz Night

Carol Hambly has got a charity place with Multiple Sclerosis in the London Marathon this year! To raise funds for the charity she is holding a quiz night at the Chapel Cafe on Friday March 23rd at 7pm. The cost is £15 per head, teams of 4, with £100 prize for the winning team. Food will be included in the ticket price: nibbles, fish finger sandwiches & cream teas.

Plus there will be a raffle and the chance to win a bottle of champagne (heads or tails game).

Get your team together and book your place at the Cafe or call 01208 881300.

Thanks to everyone who came along and supported the Race Night which was held at The Point, Polzeath on Friday January 12th. An amazing £486 was raised for the MS charity.

I would like to also say a big thank you to the local businesses who supported the event with sponsorship and raffle prizes: The Slipway, Port Isaac Pottery, The Golden Lion, The Port Isaac Shuttle Service, Wavehunters, Kiln and Camel Glass.

Scott Mann's update from Parliament

I greatly welcome the Prime Minister's recent speech where she outlined the Government's commitment to protecting the environment and clamping down on plastic waste.

Launching the Government's new Environment Plan, Theresa May highlighted our steps for a cleaner, greener Britain that will leave our environment in a better state than we found it for the next generation.

This includes a pledge to eliminate all avoidable plastic waste, encouraging supermarkets to introduce plastic-free aisles, extending the 5p charge for plastic bags to all retailers and issuing a consultation on taxing the most environmentally damaging plastics.

To date, we have used nine billion fewer plastic bags as a consequence of introducing the 5p charge. This has led to a reduction of 83 per cent and J95 million has been donated to environmental educational, and other good causes.

The Government has also launched a public consultation on introducing a bottle deposit return scheme which could significantly increase the amount that we recycle. A system already exists in Germany whereby customers get money or vouchers when returning plastic bottles, which means that they save money on their next shop as well as helping to protect the environment.

It is our duty to leave our planet in a better state for the next generation, with cleaner air, stronger protections for animal welfare and greener spaces.

Readers will no doubt be aware of the challenges facing the NHS this winter, which has seen longer waits at A&E and wards filling up with people suffering from winter illnesses.

In the lead up to this winter, the Government allocated an additional J100 million to A&Es across England, including £1.6m for the Royal Cornwall Hospitals Trust, £2.4m for Plymouth Hospitals Trust and over £800,000 for North Devon.

It is inevitable that during the winter the NHS faces extra pressure, however, after a recent meeting with NHS Kernow, I was told that one-third of people who turn up at A&E don't need to be there and should be going to minor injury units or GPs, and we need to get better at signposting people to the best place for their treatment.

Readers may also have seen recent reports that ten Minor Injury Units were likely to close in Cornwall, including three in North Cornwall. These reports, which were false and politicised, caused great concern amongst people in Cornwall, and NHS Kernow have assured me in person that there are no plans to close MIUs.

A much-needed review is currently underway into the county's health and social care systems, and this includes looking at how best to deliver local NHS services while integrating health and social care to make sure that people can be cared for in their communities instead of in hospital.

The review is being undertaken by NHS Kernow, Cornwall Council and other parties, and the people of North Cornwall can be confident that I will hold these organisations to account and that I want an NHS which delivers high quality local services to everyone.

Thanks to generous funding from the Doc Martin Fund we have been able to reprint the Trevan book. By the time you read this they should have been delivered and they will be on sale at The Pottery, Secrets and other local shops priced £10 each.

Next month we will be telling you about various activities and events that we are to stage to accompany the Trevan book.

In the meantime our exhibition in St Peter's Church is open daily from 10am until around 4pm and is well worth a visit. The displays are regularly changed so there is always something new to see.

Plus all our exhibitions and every back issue of Trio can be accessed in St Peter's on our interactive touch-screen as well as our website

*Remembering
Betty Milton*

Can I just express, on behalf of my brother Nigel as well, our heartfelt appreciation for all who attended Mum's memorial and internment at St Endellion Church on December 6th, and all who have given us their good wishes and support on her behalf.

It serves to remind us of what a special place this is and what special people you are. We are fortunate indeed to have known and know you.

Thank you all so much,

Laurence and Nigel Milton

Rejoice on the good; reflect on the bad

When does winter end and spring start? Do you go by the meteorologists or the sun? So, is it March 1st or 21st? Or by the climate, and how many daisies there are on the lawn? The seasons, no matter how we decide, are changing, becoming blurred. This winter has seen spring plants out in December, summer plants lasting until Christmas, the grass still needing to be cut.

When I lived in Newcastle as a child, my mother said we lost spring and autumn, there was only summer and winter. As we approach "springtime", a time of more light, hopefully a bit of warmth, of new growth, of leaf buds bursting open, of more colour in the garden, it is also a time to spring clean! A time of clearing up and cleaning out both inside and outside.

C.S Lewis wrote "He gives them the seasons, each season different yet every year the same, so that spring is always felt as a novelty ..."

The church calendar has the 40 days leading up to Easter as a time of reflection, called Lent.

The word Lent comes from the old English, "lencen," which means spring or lengthening days. That reflection for some includes fasting, for others setting aside time to meditate, and reflect on where we are in life. A time to step aside, to stop the business of life.

So, whenever spring arrives or has arrived, whether you have spring cleaned the house and tidied up the garden or not, take time out to look at your life whatever season it is in. Rejoice in the good, reflect on the bad, see what must be thrown out, what must be cleaned and polished. Enjoy the new growth in the garden of your life and the lengthening days.

RNLI NEWS

A GRATEFUL FAMILY

On March 31st last year, a family and their young spaniel, Bugsy were walking along the coastal footpath approaching Port Isaac when he wriggled through a hole in a dilapidated gate and fell into the water.

Port Isaac RNLI was tasked to the scene and Bugsy was quickly spotted by volunteer crewman George Cleave. Bugsy had managed to scramble onto rocks in a cave. He was safely recovered and returned to his extremely grateful owners who pledged to raise money for the charity as a way of expressing their thanks.

They did just that and Lee Davies, Mark Coles and Cath Davies did the RNLI H2O challenge. This involves NO tea. NO coffee. NO fizzy drinks. NO wine. NO beer. NO juice. JUST water for 10 tough days. They completed the challenge and raised a fantastic £800 which has been donated to the station's newly launched lifeboat appeal to raise £52,000 to buy a new D-Class lifeboat.

Lee Davies says: "The money is to say a massive thanks for rescuing Bugsy. As you can imagine we are forever grateful."

A FOND FAREWELL

Our Crew and Committee are sad to report the passing of one of their very keenest of fundraisers, Maureen Narraway (1935-2017) of St Teath.

This fine lady, with the help of her family and many supporters, arranged a significant number of events over the years raising substantial funds towards the operational training of our crew at Port Isaac. A great character, Maureen, despite failing health, had unbounded and commanding enthusiasm with a unique blend of humour that will be missed by all those who had the privilege of meeting her,

Proud of her connection with the RNLI, particularly of a Presentation Shield hanging in pride of place on her sitting room wall, Maureen will long be remembered by all of her friends within the RNLI.

Committee and operational members of Port Isaac RNLI attended the Funeral Service at St Teath Parish Church on Wednesday January 3rd.

CREW NEWS

2017 has been a great year at the station; it has also been a busy year both with services and training. Coupled with this we have received the awesome news that we will have the privilege of naming our new boat. Our great committee and generous supporting family have already raised over £28,000 of the £52,000 needed to pay for it!

From a training front we have Kevin and Ian nearing the completion of their helm programme which will see them fully signed off by around Easter time and Mark Grills and Tom Brown stepping up into the development programme any day. All parties will be visiting the outstanding training facility at RNLI HQ Poole imminently to take advantage of the facilities they have there.

Training commitment has never been better at the station and the support and facilities made available to us through your generous donations mean we can ensure we stay as safe as possible when out on active service, I am very proud of the crew and their hard work which allows me to boast as having one of the best and most capable crews in the RNLI's fleet!

I would also like to extend a further thank you for all of the support and donations given for the crew's participation in DECEMBEARD. We all became furry for December to raise money and awareness for bowel cancer and managed to raise over £500.

Finally we would like to welcome James Uglow onto the shore crew; he has already made a big impact and will be a great asset.

TWO MEMBERS OF THE PORT ISAAC RNLI FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE HAVE BEEN GIVEN AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN VOLUNTEERING

Jan Rowe and Liz Cooke receive their awards from Father Christmas, Senior Helm Damien Bolton and Lifeboat Operations Manager Chris Bolton

The Awards were made at the same time as Buttermilk Confections made a generous donation of £ 2,294 to the Port Isaac Crew and Committee RNLI Boat Appeal.

The lucky winner of the draw for Roy Ritchie's painting, Christmas Delivery was Mrs Allsop of Marston Green with ticket number 0136.

This image has proved to be the most popular of our Port Isaac RNLI cards published over the past twelve years - 3000 cards and 508 draw tickets being sold.

Recorder Lessons

SCHOOLCHAT

news & views from Port Isaac School

Class 2 have started their recorder lessons with Mrs Bridle. They are looking forward to learning some tunes and hopefully putting on a recital for their parents at the end of term.

PE

This term the children are delighted to have outside PE instructors coming into school on a Friday afternoon. The first discipline that they are taking part in is fencing.

Dance Workshops

After the successful choreography for our Christmas production, this term the two classes are doing more work with Sarah.

Class 1 are linking their work to the story of The Mousehole Cat, which they are learning about in Literacy.

Meanwhile Class 2 will be exploring Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves through dance to link in with their Literacy lessons this half term.

Snowy Book Trail

This will be running until half term and it takes place twice a week. Our Year 6 Reading Rangers are in charge of the sessions and everyone, including the adults, is enjoying the 20 minute sessions of reading for enjoyment.

PORT ISAAC RNLI BOAT APPEAL

We had a storming start to our announcement on November 1st 2017 of an appeal to cover the funding of a new lifeboat for Port Isaac Station. As our current D Class Copeland Bell entered its thirteenth year of active service, so the Nathan Outlaw Fish Kitchen made a generous donation of £14,000 to launch the new boat appeal.

The target is to reach £52,000 by 2019. Response has been stunning with letters of support and donations including 6,600 dollars from a dedicated supporter in America. Equally important and just as valued are the smaller donations - every penny counts towards this most important project.

Currently the appeal fund stands at over £28,000!! The result will be in the knowledge that our dedicated volunteer crew, who are on call 24/7. are backed by the very latest and up-to date sea-going equipment of the very highest standard, essential to operations often in hostile sea going conditions along the North Coast Cornwall.

Port Isaac Stay & Playgroup

We meet every Tuesday morning in the Village Hall from 10am-12noon
Our activities for the next few months are ...

- January 20th - Outing to Kernow Playhouse

Planning Applications

The following applications were received and Members made the following responses to Cornwall Council:

1. PA17/09950, 36 New Road, Port Isaac – replace existing dormer bungalow with a detached four-bed dwelling. SUPPORT in principle, but Members had reservations about the balcony which overlooks neighbouring property. Cllr. Phelps said he was in favour of the application as it is.
2. PA17/10456, 30 Dolphin Street, Port Isaac – proposed replacement window, chimney flue removal, re-roof in natural slate and new roof light. SUPPORT, providing second-hand Delabole rag slate is used.
3. PA17/10681, 23 New Road, Port Isaac – proposed replacement dwelling – amendments to approved design under decision PA17/00693. SUPPORT.
4. PA17/10691, Maritime and Coastguard Agency, New Road, Port Isaac – proposed two new dwellings to replace existing decommissioned Coastguard building. OBJECT the building is an over development of the site and causes overlooking issues. The building extends the building line forward towards the SW coastal path and creates a precedent for development in gardens in this character area which to date has been refused.
5. PA17/11068, Little Tremiro, Lower Trefreock, Port Isaac – construction of extensions, subterranean garage and garden studio. SUPPORT.
6. PA17/10144, 3 The Platt Store, Fore Street, Port Isaac – listed building consent for re-roofing 3 of the stores with the same Delabole Rag slate that is on there now with treatment of the timbers and felt underneath. SUPPORT.
7. PA17/09309, 89 Fore Street Port Isaac – front and rear extensions, re - roof, new dormer, windows and internal alterations. OBJECT because this is in a conservation area and the flow of the terrace would be spoiled by the installation of double doors. Members refer to previous historic refusal for alterations to the street elevation of the terrace.
8. Site adjacent to Under Town in Trelights – a draft plan for a possible housing development was previously circulated via email. Cllr. Bell said there were no amenities in Trelights and he felt this application was inappropriate. Social housing is needed in Port Isaac. There is a high turnover of tenants in the existing development. Messrs. Evans and Slatter (NP Consultants) did not believe planning permission would be granted. Cllr. Phelps said he was in favour of affordable housing, but felt this development was too large. Cllr. Penny said he would only be in favour if it were a self-build project. Cllr. Williams pointed out that as a Parish located in an AONB we have a zero housing allocation. The density of the proposal would introduce a large amount of traffic into a location that has a challenging local road network with no pavements or street lighting. Resident children would have to be driven to school in Port Isaac as the local road network is perilous. Access via Undertown is unsuitable. Parking in Undertown is on the opposite side of the street from the housing, there are high volumes of pedestrians crossing and children playing in the cul-de-sac. Members felt the site was unsuitable for development. The Clerk advised Ocean Housing accordingly.
9. PA17/11431, Land NE of 33 Middle Street, Port Isaac – conversion and extension of storage shed into annexe. SUPPORT.
10. PA17/11843, 7 Brentons Park, Trelights – single storey utility extension at rear; new balcony at rear; retrospective planning consent for 4 no rooflights on side and rear facing roof slopes. SUPPORT.
11. PA17/11992, Merrywood, Road from Chapel Villa to Rose Cottage, Trelights – reserved matters application for the construction of two dwellings. (Details following application no PA17/03682 dated 14/06/17.) COMMENT: Members would like to see a condition that this is dependent on replanting the trees that were felled.

Planning Applications Approved by CC – information only

- i. PA17/08693, Archer Farm, Access to Archer Farm, Trewetha – proposed 3-bedroom dwelling.
- ii. PA17/08446, The Rectory, St Endellion – extension and alterations.
- iii. PA17/08446, The Rectory, St Endellion – LBC for extension and alterations.
- iv. PA17/07753, Maritime and Coastguard Agency, New Road, Port Isaac – change of use from coastguard vehicle and cliff rescue equipment store and training accommodation to non-food retail shop and five car parking spaces.
- v. PA17/07754, Maritime and Coastguard Agency, New Road, Port Isaac – advertisement consent for erection of 2 no.

“Together we can make great things happen in your community”

Please continue to use your Co-op card and support either the Stay & Playgroup or the Village Hall. Remember that 1% of your spend will go to your choice (as well as 5% for you). Mel, our community pioneer, is on hand to help anyone or give assistance if you haven't got a card.

And don't forget - the used book shelf in the Co-op supports the Hall and the Playgroup. If you have any books to donate just take them up to the Co-op and put them on the book shelves - they are near the cash point.

Footbridge Repairs

Repairs are to be carried out to both supporting posts and a new hand rail fitted on the footbridge at the Slate Quarry, Port Gaverne. In the interim a barrier had been placed across the entrance as the structure is considered dangerous.

Catering Concession

Expressions of interest in acquiring the concession had been invited and a decision on the allocation of the concession will be made at the February Full Council meeting. NOTE – closing date for applications, noon on Friday February 9th 2018.

Meeting Dates

Meetings are normally held on the second and fourth Monday of each month, commencing at 7pm in Port Isaac School. Members of the public are welcome to attend.

Edward, age 8

Here we are again. It's been a while but anyone walking round our village will realise that we have a big problem ... with dog poo. So much so that two brothers who live in the village, Edward, aged 8 and Dominic, aged 5, have produced some posters reminding people to pick up after their dogs. By the time you read this you will no doubt have seen these posters around the village reminding dog owners of their responsibilities.

With few visitors around at the moment, we cannot blame the problem on them (or their dogs!)! There are plenty of dog bins about and remember, you are breaking the law if you don't pick up after your dog.

Stranded Animals along our coasts...

If you come across a stranded seal or dolphin, you can help by knowing WHAT TO DO and WHO TO CALL

SEALS

Seals regularly come out of the sea to rest. Pups are often left alone on the shore by their mothers who may be offshore, where they can be surprisingly hard to see. Adults and pups can be safely watched from a distance, but don't approach too close as the parents will be scared off and may abandon the pups.

If you think a seal is sick, injured or really abandoned...

- Telephone for help
- Keep people and their dogs away until help arrives
- Don't get too close to the seal or pup - they can bite!

DOLPHINS AND PORPOISES

Whales, dolphins and porpoises breathe air and when stranded on the shore need to be kept cool with water. If you find a live stranded whale or dolphin...

- Telephone for help immediately - then:
- Calmly approach the animal, but be careful, these animals can make sudden movements
- If you can find adequate assistance, gently roll the animal over onto its front and keep its skin wet by dousing with seawater. Do not pull on its fins or tail and be very careful not to get water down the blowhole, which is on the top of its head
- Keep dogs and crowds away
- Reduce noise or sudden movement to a minimum to avoid further stress to the animal
- Do not attempt to drag the animal
- Avoid the teeth and tail - you could get injured

SEND FOR HELP DO NOT PUT YOURSELF AT RISK

Send for help as soon as possible, ensuring that the caller can give an accurate location and description of the animal. Rescues for live stranded marine mammals can be called 24 hours a day on the following numbers.

British Divers Marine Life Rescue
01825 765546 or 07787 433412
(Weekdays 9am-5pm) (Outside Office Hours)

RSPCA
0300 1234 999

Dead whales, dolphins or porpoises should be reported to the Cetacean Strandings Investigation Programme hotline on 0800 652 0323

For more information please visit www.bdmr.org.uk

WARNING

Marine animals are wild animals. They can carry diseases which are transmissible to humans, and they can cause injury. DO NOT put yourself at risk of injury.

- Approach animals with care. If it doesn't want to help, do not attempt to touch or handle the animal without adequate assistance and equipment.
- Always wash your hands thoroughly after contact.
- Children are particularly at risk from marine mammals and should stay well clear of them.

Two tasty veggie recipes from Martin

Welcome back dear reader, and to start the year off a couple of tasty veggie dishes for you to try

Purple-sprouting broccoli with rice noodles

2cm piece ginger, peeled and chopped
1 medium green chilli, deseeded and roughly chopped
1½ lemongrass stalks, outer layer and tough ends removed, chopped
1 garlic clove, crushed
½ shallot, peeled and chopped
½ tbsp coriander seeds, ground
½ tsp cumin seeds, finely ground
Grated zest and juice of ½ a lime
2 tbsp vegetable oil, plus extra to sauté the onion
1 bunch fresh coriander, stalks, roots and all, washed

600g purple-sprouting broccoli	450g wide rice noodles
1 red onion, finely chopped	4 tbsp sesame oil
1½ tsp palm sugar	3 tbsp lime juice, plus more to finish
7 kaffir lime leaves	2 tbsp sweet basil, shredded
400ml coconut milk	75g toasted pistachio nuts, chopped
	salt

Start by making a curry paste. Put the first 10 ingredients in the small bowl of a food processor and blend to a paste. You can also do this with a large pestle and mortar.

Trim any leaves from the broccoli and divide into large florets. Heat a tablespoon of oil in a saucepan and sauté the onion for two to three minutes until translucent. Add the curry paste and cook, stirring, for two minutes. Add half a teaspoon of salt, the palm sugar, lime leaves and coconut milk, bring to a boil, then turn down the heat and simmer for five minutes.

Have ready two saucepans with boiling salted water. In one cook the noodles as instructed on the packet, and in the other cook the broccoli for a minute or two. Drain both. Rinse the noodles briefly under hot water, drain, toss in three tablespoons of sesame oil and the lime juice, and season well with salt. Drizzle the remaining sesame oil over the broccoli and sprinkle with a pinch of salt.

Divide the noodles between wide bowls and top with the broccoli. For each serving, spoon three to four tablespoons of sauce over and around the broccoli, and finish with basil, pistachio and a squirt of lime.

Fried rice cakes with creamed leeks and egg

1 tsp saffron strands
400g cooked rice of any variety
100g diced gruyère
Salt and freshly ground black pepper
2 tbsp olive oil, plus extra for frying the cakes
3 leeks, trimmed and cut into 1cm-thick slices
250ml vegetable stock
100ml double cream
Freshly crushed black peppercorns
2 tbsp chopped tarragon
5 free-range eggs

In a small bowl, stir the saffron with about a tablespoon of boiling water, leave to infuse for a couple of minutes, then stir into the rice. Add the gruyère to the rice mix, and season well.

Next, heat the olive oil in a large frying pan and, on high heat, fry the leeks for three minutes to give them a little colour. Add the stock, cream and plenty of crushed black peppercorns, and carry on cooking on a slow simmer for about 10 minutes, until the leeks are soft and the sauce is thick. Add salt to taste and keep warm. Stir in the tarragon just before serving.

Add one egg to the rice mix, and stir well. Pour a tiny amount of olive oil into a large, nonstick frying pan and place over a medium heat. With a spoon, take some of the rice mix and press it down into the hot oil to create four flat cakes about 1cm thick and 7cm in diameter. Fry them on both sides until crispy and brown, about four minutes a side. Transfer to absorbent paper and keep warm while you make another four cakes.

Once all the rice cakes are made, crack the four remaining eggs into the same pan and fry, seasoning just before they're done. Serve two cakes per person and spoon over some of the creamed leeks. Top each portion with a fried egg and serve.

I hope you give these recipes a go,
enjoy Mx
