What a great day we all had at the Carnival this year! We were so happy to see so many people turn out. There were so many amazing floats and walkers and everybody looked fantastic! Jesterz Entertainment and Tankslapper helped us to party into the evening and I think it's safe to say that a good time was had by all.

We definitely feel that this was the best Carnival yet and look forward to Port Isaac Carnival getting even bigger and better next year. We'd like to thank everybody in Port Isaac for all the help, support and kind donations throughout the year that help make our Carnival such a success. There are too many people to thank individually but you all know who you are and we really couldn't do this without you all. Bring on next year!!

CREW NEWS

CHRISTMAS CARDS

September has been a busy month for fundraising and 2018 has been a busy month for babies at Port Isaac RNLI!

Along with the yearly events our amazing committee put on, we welcomed James and Belinda to the station on September 19th. They are visiting all 238 lifeboat stations in a Porsche 911 in 911 hours helping to raise awareness and an amazing £23,800. Recently retired, they live near Tower Bridge in London where they have had a boat on the river for years. Their love and respect for the RNLI has driven them to purchase a 911 in RNLI orange and get it branded up to the max to raise vital funds. We wish them every success and fair winds for their onward journey.

Also 2018 has seen the crew doing their bit to ensure we have the replacements for when our old bones give up. The six newbies are ...

Ben & Ellen Spicer:
Ailla Louise Spicer

Andy Hallam & Aimee Eaves:
Billie Alexandra Hallam

Tom Brown & Laura Sloan:
Harold Alexander Brown

Damien & Amy Bolton:
Bow Ailani Bolton and May Indie Bolton

Marc & Beth Kendall:
Amelia Rose Kendall

On a training note, the crew have been putting in the hours seeing James Uglow raise up from shore crew to enter a deputy launching authority training programme and "our" Andy Hallam being enrolled onto the helm development programme ... many more to follow but great work gents!

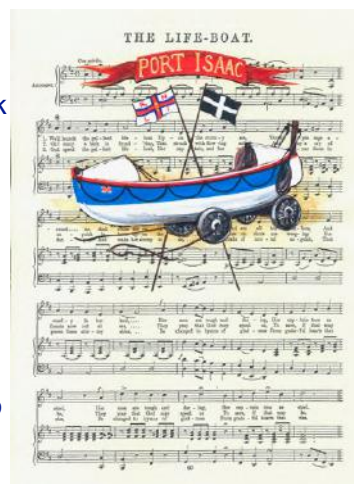

PORT ISAAC RNLI YOUTH TRAINING CLUB ... WHO'S IN?

It has been spoken about for many years and I would now like to spread the word and gauge who would be interested in joining a Port Isaac RNLI based youth type club. My suggestion is that it would happen once a month to begin with and would be offered for all ages from 5-16. There is a lot of planning that would need to go into setting this up but I'm willing to do it if there is the interest there from enough people. With this in mind, if you or you know of someone who'd like to be a part of something like this, please contact me on damobolton@hotmail.com

Continuing the long established tradition of Port Isaac RNLI Christmas cards created by well known local artists, first introduced by Frank McNichol over 14 years ago, local artist Caroline Roberts has created this year's card. Her evocative and atmospheric festive harbour scene, glimpsed through a life saving is dedicated to Port Isaac RNLI. This high quality, single fold card contains the message "Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" and a profile of the artist including details of our sponsor, Sharp's Brewery and lifeboat operations on the back cover. Available in packs of five for £5 from Port Isaac Pottery or contact by email reb37@btinternet.com

Caroline has also created a notelet card with a jaunty historic Lifeboat image. It is blank inside for you to write your own message and is also priced at £5 pack of five cards.

7PM FRIDAY OCTOBER 12TH
AUCTIONEER: ROSS COLLINS
JOIN US AT THIS POPULAR ANNUAL EVENT ... MEET THE CREW AND COMMITTEE ... BID FOR ARTWORK, MEALS OUT, ADVENTURE OUTINGS AND LOTS MORE ...

Well, it seems we are now award winning Gulls ... we won the Comedy Trophy in the Carnival! We had a great time and huge thanks to Martyn "there's a guy lives in Port Isaac swears he's Elvis" Dingle for being our Elvis and to Mark Dawe and Paul Cotton for trusting us with their tractor and trailer.

We then had a great night singing in the Golden Lion as part of the SS Milly commemoration. We managed to squeeze into a corner next to an enormous black dog who took up nearly as much room as we did but he, and everyone else, seemed to like us.

And if you liked us, or if you haven't heard us and want to, why not come to the Village Hall on Saturday October 27th for our BIG Children in Need fundraising night. Ross Collins is our compere for the night and we have guests, The Hummingbirds from Yorkshire, joining us plus Paul Johnson and Johnny Mac and the Little Chicks. Tickets are just £6 each and you can get them from Secrets or reserve on 01208 880862.

We are then singing in a British Legion Concert at the Betjeman Centre in Wadebridge on Friday November 9th and it looks like being a very special night.

And then its all systems go as we start practicing our Christmas repertoire ... more news on where we will be singing next month.

Treights Methodist Church

The Chapel members wish to say a very big thank you to Peter and Pam Hall for the use of their lovely garden as a venue for the Garden Party on August 7th.

The event was opened by the new Methodist Minister, Rev Alistair Sharp, who mentioned how important these occasions are for the community.

Fine weather added to the enjoyment of the many people who gathered around the stalls, played the games or sat and chatted over cream teas made with delicious home baked scones.

A new kitchen door on the Chapel premises has to be specially made so the proceeds of the Garden Party will go a great way towards the cost.

Many thanks to all our loyal supporters and helpers who welcomed and chatted to the visitors who were given a good taste of Cornwall. A special mention of thanks to Ross, our "structural engineer", without whose help we could not have managed.

A lovely day was had by all. Thank you.

The War Memorial ... it's been moved ... and it's looking good

At 6-30am on Saturday September 15th, Stonemason Paul Drew and his crew, started the difficult task of moving the Port Isaac War Memorial to its new site. By 9am the task was safely completed causing little disruption to early morning traffic.

Slabs have to be laid and the cross cleaned but by the time you read this these jobs may have already been completed. The plaque containing the names of the Fallen of the two World Wars will also be restored. Please let me know any ideas of how the area can be made more attractive.

After the Remembrance Service on November 11th, all the wreaths will be brought up from St Peter's Church and laid around the Memorial at 3pm

Pat Pearson, Chapel Warden

The National Health Service is 70 years old this year ...

I was born as the NHS was being debated and about to come into being and worked in it for 37 years. Whilst it is far from perfect for many reasons, we should not forget what was happening before it came about. My predecessor in general practice saw the changes first hand. He had three types of patients in the practice all treated in a different way! The private patients had priority both in time given to them and in appointments. Even their medication was given to them in brown paper bags, so nobody could see it! Then there were the panel patients- from back in the days of Lloyd George – certain companies' workers and families were able to access a doctor paid for by the employers. He was the Post Office doctor and saw many postmen bitten by dogs amongst all the other illnesses you would expect. Then there were those who could not pay, most family doctors like solicitors of old worked 'pro bono' offering free time to those less well off in their community (pre 1934 they looked after those in the work-house as well). 1948 changed all that-all were to be treated equally and free at the point of access- there were no new hospitals, no more doctors and nurses just a radical change of organisation. It came about after many years of discussion and we should thank Beveridge and the like for their passion for looking after the needs of all, not just a privileged few.

The NHS appeared at a time when Britain saw health care as crucial to one of the "five giants" that Beveridge declared should be slain during post-war reconstruction. (want, disease, squalor, ignorance, idleness) The cataclysm of war provided an opportunity that might not have been taken in quieter times. It was just one of five post war problems that the NHS addressed, 70 years on we could question as to how we are dealing with the other 4. They are not new problems. The bible has almost 3000 verses dealing with poverty and injustice and how they should be overcome, of God's heart for the poor and oppressed, about want and squalor, for healing. It is there in nearly every page. You can even buy a bible with them all highlighted in modern English (The Poverty and Justice Bible).

So, 70 years of the NHS, rejoice and celebrate, not perfect but way better than what was happening before. But it is only a start, Beveridge had ideas on the other 4 giants as well. God and the bible have a few ideas too!

Back to Singing for the Port Isaac Choral

The Choral were very fortunate to have two really enjoyable events at which they were asked to sing as their first engagements after the summer break.

On Thursday, 6th September we were honoured to sing at the service held outside the Golden Lion commemorating the 100th anniversary of the loss of the SS Milly. What a moving experience that was - a true community event.

On Saturday, 15th September we sang at St James Church, St Kew at the wedding of Gareth Owen and Laura Pollard. The Choral always enjoy singing at weddings, and on this occasion we sang two of our favourite pieces, You Raise Me Up and New Day - a song made famous by the Kings Singers and which is particularly apt for a wedding.

Looking forward, we have started rehearsing for our concerts to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1. Four years ago, we presented similar concerts to mark the start of the war and these were incredibly popular. The concerts include a host of songs popular at the time and audience participation is essential!

The concerts will be held at 7.30pm on the 6th November in Port Isaac Village Hall; 9th November in Wadebridge Masonic Hall and 11th November in Delabole Methodist Chapel so please write it on your calendar to make sure you don't miss this opportunity.

Belly Pork

to truly enjoy, stop worrying about the fat ... start loving it ...

because the truth is that with pork belly, it's all about the fat. The delicious fat, when slowly rendered, melts lovingly into the surrounding flesh, providing the lucky eater with a sumptuous, silky texture. Then, of course, there's the skin, which crisps up like a dream if handled properly – just don't be too alarmed if you're faced with the odd hair or nipple.

Pork belly with apple purée and sprouting broccoli

PORK BELLY

1.5kg pork belly, skin and bones left on 50g of sea salt
3 medium onions, peeled and roughly diced
2 carrots, peeled and roughly diced
4 celery sticks, washed and roughly diced
1 fennel bulb, roughly sliced
2 bulbs of garlic, peeled and roughly crushed
5 sprigs of fresh thyme
10 white peppercorns
2 bay leaves
2 star anise
chicken stock, to cover

APPLE PURÉE

6 Bramley apples, large
70g of butter, diced
2 tbsp of light brown sugar
salt
50ml of water

PURPLE SPROUTING BROCCOLI

700g of purple sprouting broccoli
salt
25g of butter

SAUCE

3 shallots, peeled, root removed and thinly sliced
250g of button mushrooms, washed and thinly sliced
1 tbsp of tomato paste
3/4 bottle of red wine, medium
25g of flour
25g of butter, softened
vegetable oil

Rub the sea salt into the pork belly and leave overnight in the fridge, or for 12 hours. In the morning rub off the salt and rinse of any excess under cold running water.

Place the pork belly in a deep roasting tray, arranging all the vegetables, herbs and spices around it. Cover with chicken stock and braise in the oven at 140°C/gas mark 1 for 3 ½ hours. The belly is done when you can pierce the flesh easily.

Remove from the oven and allow to cool for 30 minutes in the stock. Line a tray with greaseproof paper and carefully transfer the pork belly onto a tray, skin-side down. Remove all of the rib bones and white cartilage. Place a sheet of greaseproof on top of the pork belly, lay a flat tray on top and weigh down with 4-5kg weight to press the belly in the fridge overnight..

Pass the remaining stock through a fine sieve and reduce by half, be careful if you used powder stock, as it will become quite salty. Store in a container until needed.

The following morning cut the pressed pork into 6 equal squares, enough for each person and place back in the fridge until required.

For the apple purée, peel and core the apples and place into a high-sided tray. Add butter, sugar, a sprinkle of salt and 50ml of water. Place into an oven at 180°C/gas mark 4. Cook until the apples have a mushy texture, approximately 25-35 minutes. Carefully pour into a jug blender and blitz until smooth. Adjust the seasoning by adding more salt and sugar as desired, pass through a fine sieve and store in the fridge until needed

To prepare the broccoli, remove the outer leaves, leaving the florets attached to the stalk. Remove 1cm from the bottom part of the stalk - the woody part of the vegetable. Blanch in heavily salted boiling water for 2 minutes. Check they are done by using the tip of the knife to pierce the stems: it should go in with a little resistance. Refresh in ice water, drain and leave in the fridge until required.

For the sauce, heat some vegetable oil in a thick-bottomed pan over a high heat. Fry the shallots and mushrooms until golden. Be careful not to burn them or it will make your sauce bitter. Once golden, stir in tomato paste and after about 10 seconds add the wine and reduce until it just coats the bottom of the pan. Add the reserved pork cooking liquor and bring up to the boil. Meanwhile, mix the flour and butter together so it forms a paste. Once the pork sauce has come to the boil, gradually whisk in the flour and butter mix, pea-sized amounts each time. You might not need all of it, just enough to make the sauce thick enough to coat the back of a spoon. Pass through a fine sieve and set aside

Preheat the oven to 180°C/gas mark 4. Heat a thick-bottomed pan, without oil, and add the pork belly, skin-side down. Once the skin starts to colour, place the pan into a hot oven and leave for 15 minutes. Check to see if it's hot by using a temperature probe, it should read 65°C

Meanwhile, reheat the purée and sauce until hot. Prepare a pan of boiling water and melt the butter in a wide pan for the broccoli. Just before serving, drop the broccoli into the boiling water. Remove after 30 seconds and then toss in the melted butter and season with salt

To serve, spoon the purée onto plates, followed by the broccoli and pork belly. Drizzle over the sauce and serve immediately

So now, with a heavy heart, I have to tell you that this part of my Cornish adventure has come to an end and for family reasons I will be moving back upcountry. However, I fully intend to return as soon as I can. But family is family and sometimes in life you have to do the right thing. In my time down here I have met so many amazing people, and have had the privilege to be welcomed into a fantastic community. Port Isaac I will miss you, one and all.

From October 20th there will be an exhibition from our PISCES First World War archive

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank all those people who have supported the reprint of our Award winning cookery books (reprinted 3 times!!). Thank you to John Brays, Fresh from the Sea, Just Shellfish, May Contain Nuts/Port Isaac Walk & Talk, The Mote, Nathan Outlaw, The Old School Hotel, Port Isaac Pottery and Chapel Café, The Slipway and Trevathan Farm plus thank all the shops that sell our books for us.

Our books are priced at £10 each. Copies are available online from our website shop www.portisaacheritage.co.uk

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY: A good old Christmas sing song of the old Port Isaac carols on Sunday December 15th in the Village Hall at 5pm

PISCES aims to keep all the stories and memories of Port Isaac alive before the history is lost and gone forever

Our PISCES website is:

The Port Isaac Poppy Trail

On November 11th 1918, the guns fell silent; the Great War, the First World War, the War to end all Wars, World War One was over ...

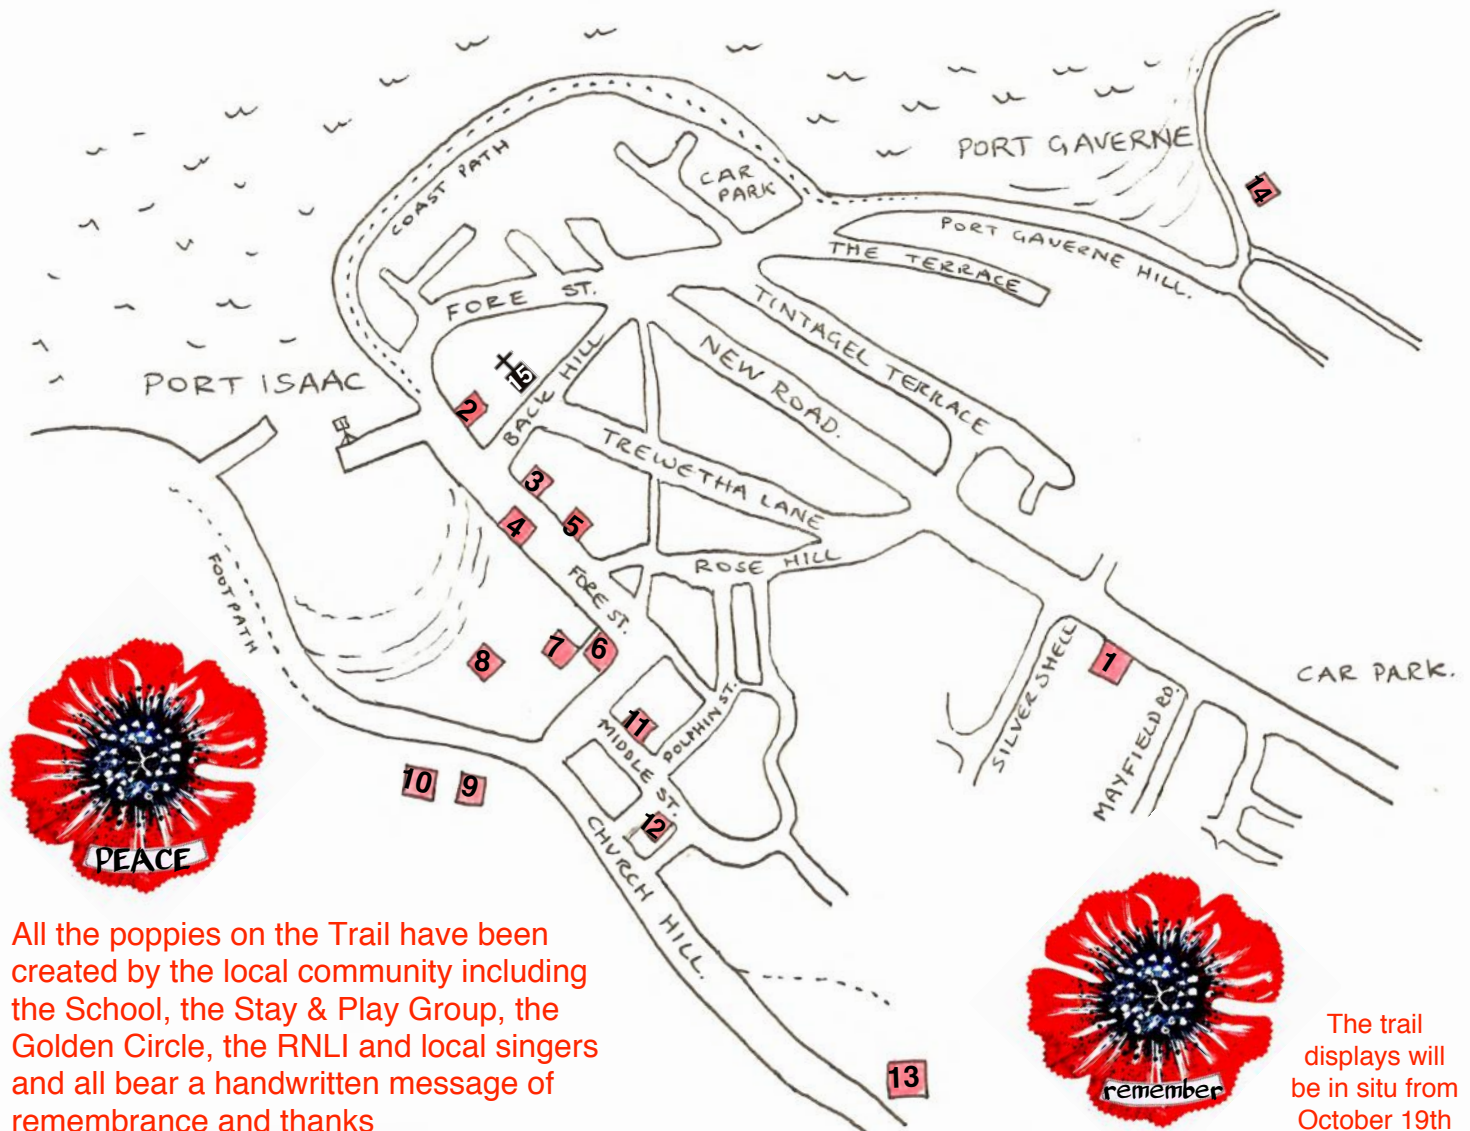

Here in Port Isaac we will remember those who were born in our cottages, who went to our school, who walked our streets, who worked and played in our harbour, who lived their lives here ... we will commemorate this now distant generation ...

The PISCES Poppy Trail will take you back in time to places where you can step back in time and remember ...

This is the PISCES Poppy Trail around Port Isaac, marking various landmarks that have a special reference to WWI and ending at St Peter's Church where the PISCES World War One Exhibition will be on display

AT EACH MARKED POINT WILL BE WRITTEN DETAILS OF ITS WWI SIGNIFICANCE

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. The War Memorial | 9. The bottom of Roscarrock Hill |
| 2. The Fish & Chip Shop | 10. The old Chapel on Roscarrock Hill |
| 3. Secrets | 11. Kiln |
| 4. Boathouse Stores | 12. The old Butcher's Shop |
| 5. May Contain Nuts | 13. The Telegraph Pole on Church Hill |
| 6. Port Isaac Trading | 14. Port Gaverne beach |
| 7. The Gun outside the Golden Lion | 15. St Peter's Church |
| 8. The beach | |

All the poppies on the Trail have been created by the local community including the School, the Stay & Play Group, the Golden Circle, the RNLI and local singers and all bear a handwritten message of remembrance and thanks

The trail displays will be in situ from October 19th
