COMMUNITY

Busy little fingers at the Stay & Play Group and the School were creating all the lovely things that make up their community. Countryside, coastline and cottages are all being featured on the new Port Isaac Community Banner which will be paraded down to The Platt to open and celebrate the first Port Isaac Shanty Festival on Saturday September 7th.

The old Temperance banners are being used as inspiration and the iconic photograph taken in Fore Street at the turn of the last century will be recreated with a modern twist. The new banner will hang alongside the original banners in the Village Hall.

If you, or your community group, would like to add something to the banner please contact Caroline 07966 501156.

THIS EXTENSION IS GOING TO HAPPEN ...

In front of an audience of thousands waiting for the Fisherman's Friends to sing, Ian McNeice handed over a cheque for £1000 to Dee and Cheryl for the Village Hall extension project. He raised the money by charging Doc Martin fans £1 to have their photo taken with him (this photo was a freebie!). Ian then went on to raise just over another £200 during the evening by having more photos taken. A huge thank you Ian.

Things are really coming together money-wise for the Hall. In May we are given a grant of £1000 from The Trefoil Trust and £250 from The Edward Oldham Charity; in June £7500 from The Garfield Weston Trust; in July £600 from The Elmgrant Trust, £275 from being one of the Truro Waitrose's charities of the month and £2000 from The 29th May 1961 Charitable Trust. An enormous thank you to each and every one of you.

The Port Isaac Shanty Festival is our big fundraiser for the year so come along and enjoy yourself on September 7th & 8th on the Platt and around the village.

ART EXHIBITION

Twenty-two artists will be exhibiting at Rock Institute supporting both Port Isaac and Rock RNLI. You can visit the exhibition between 10am-6pm from Monday August 5th through to Saturday August 10th.

Port Isaac RNLI will be occupying the stage area of the hall to sell their range of limited edition prints, all depicting an historic or life-saving theme.

Earlier this year Port Isaac RNLI received a letter from Richard Cotterill. In the letter he said that he, his wife and her twin sister were very keen supporters of the RNLI, that they were all in their eighties and had a bucket list of things they wanted to achieve.

One of the things on their list was to sit on the bench on top of Lobber Point in Port Isaac so that they could look over the village. They had tried to walk there previously but could only make it half way. They wondered if Port Isaac RNLI could help in achieving their wish.

Port Isaac RNLI Lifeboat Operations Manager, Chris Bolton spoke with the land owner and got his permission to drive across his fields. He then arranged for Richard and his family to be collected from the top of the village and be driven to Lobber. As an added surprise they were served a cream tea prepared by Vice Chairman of Port Isaac RNLI, Liz Bolton.

It was a beautiful sunny afternoon and the three of them soaked up views. They were very grateful and presented Chris with a generous donation to the Port Isaac RNLI Lifeboat appeal.

What do your childhood memories of summer include?

I can remember summers that were so wet it even rained in the stories in summer editions of the comics we read ... but my fondest memories are of hot summers and playing on beaches, walks along a gentle river and of milk lollies that only cost 10p. I can remember missing the best sunny days hiding from the heat with my chickenpox and being covered in pink calamine lotion. In my childhood we moved around a lot but our holiday was always to Granny and Granfer in Taunton which became the steady constant to my changing life.

As we plan our summer holidays and activities, as we take pictures and videos to record them and as we share them with friends on social media we - at some level - are aware that these times are special, that they are memories we want to keep. A tapestry of memories helps us to know our journey through life, our successes and joys as well as our defeats and sorrows. It can give us a sense of who we are in world and family and community memories can give us a sense of our place in time and space. Memory making isn't just for summers and for holidays though and some of our most important memories can be of something more mundane; in the Pixar film "UP" Russell, the young boy, is remembering a game he used to play with his now absent Dad. "That might sound boring" he says "but I think the boring stuff is the stuff I remember most."

When we want to make memories for ourselves and for others, we would like it to be the best, the biggest and the newest because we want to give lasting memories above the ordinary - we crave the thrill of the extraordinary and that is quite a normal desire I think.

There are many stories of the extra ordinary things that Jesus did- commanding storms to die down, feeding 5000 people with a boy's pack lunch, raising a girl back to life but it is in the ordinary place of a meal, of a little bread and a little wine that we are to remember him. I believe that today, Jesus still meets us in the bread and the wine of the communion service and Jesus still meets us in the ordinary people we meet through the week, and though it might sound boring, it could be that the boring stuff is what we remember most.

St Endellion Church Graveyard

It is lovely to see so many people taking an interest in St Endellion Church Graveyard, be it people who are visiting their loved ones who are buried there, people who walk through the graveyard and appreciate the peace and views that it offers and visitors to the area who come to look around St Endellion Church.

Sadly, it has been brought to our attention that there is a problem with dog fouling in the graveyard, which is unpleasant both for our visitors and the people who regularly maintain the graveyard to keep it tidy and safe for all.

If you are walking through the graveyard we ask you please keep your dog on a lead so it doesn't wander off and leave us an unwanted gift that you don't see, and pick up after your dog as you would in any other public place.

Please respect the graveyard; it is a special place for many people and help us to keep it clean and tidy for everyone to enjoy.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of all our family, thank you everyone for your kindness and support over the last weeks since Ted died. It really is our wider circle of family, friends and community that has helped everyday.

We have a cheque to donate to Mount Edgcombe Hospice from Ted's collection, in appreciation of the care given to him, in excess of a staggering £3000. Thank-you all so much.

He will miss us all, and his beloved village, as much as we will miss him.

Air Ambulance benefits from Chorale Concert

On July 14th, the Chorale held a very successful concert at St Peter's Church, with proceeds going to the Air Ambulance; a charity close to all our hearts.

The Chorale performed an excellent, varied programme in a concert which featured three very talented local young soloists.

We were so fortunate that these three young people, Fergal Donnellon on the viola, Henry Phippin on classical guitar and Kenya Skerry with her lovely voice, were able to join us. The audience (and Chorale) thoroughly enjoyed their superb performances and hope they can join us in future concerts.

The Chorale provided glasses of Pimms or fruit cup for the audience and the total donations received from the concert was in excess of £200 for the Air Ambulance.

The Chorale will be having their annual summer break now but have a very busy autumn period planned so look out for updates so that you don't miss out – we publicise all our concerts in the Trio.

Entries are invited for poems and for pieces of prose of not more than 300 words on the theme of 'love' for inclusion in a book being produced for the North Cornwall Book Festival being held October 10th-13th at St Endellion.

Entries must be sent to me by no later than 13th August: judithpollinger262@gmail.com

Some will be read at the book Festival service at 11am on October 13th.

ART TALK & TRIP

22nd August

7pm Port Isaac Village Hall

20th century WOMEN ARTISTS IN CORNWALL

Many women artists came to Cornwall in the 20th century to capture the light and the landscape. They found freedom and success.

An informative evening led by art historian
Olive Maggs
Free event
Bar will be open

Planning Applications

Members considered these planning applications and made the following responses to Cornwall Council:

1. PA19/04977, Cloud Nine, Port Isaac – proposed extension to provide additional bedroom with ensuite on first floor and storeroom on ground floor. Members objected on the grounds the proposal would double the frontage of the building that originally had been carefully designed (in consultation with officers) to cause minimum impact to the landscape and the Conservation Area. The proposed balcony and roof terrace would puncture the skyline from viewpoints within the Conservation Area and light pollution would result in harm to the conservation area and AONB.
2. PA19/05264, Cliffside, Port Isaac – proposed new fenestration. Cllr. Penny left the meeting whilst this was discussed. Members objected on the grounds that the site is within the Conservation Area in a highly visible location with a high footfall. The excess glazing does not comply with Policy 5f of the emerging St Endellion Neighbourhood Plan: where within the conservation area... proposal respects the predominant palette... and general window proportions and avoids the use of extensive glazing and panoramic windows.
3. PA19/05118, Summer Salt, 42 Church Hill, Port Isaac – proposed additional bedroom and bathroom within existing roof space to include extension to existing dormer on west elevation and installation of conservation roof light within east elevation. Members had no objection.

Road Safety Issues

1. Fingerpost Refurbishment – the Chairman and Clerk had accepted a quotation from Mr Burnard of approx. £150-£200 to refurbish the signpost at the Roscarrock turning to Longcross, Trelights and the work carried out.

Public Conveniences

- i. Roscarrock WCs – the Parish Council has now formally taken over management of these public conveniences. Members will now draw up plans for their refurbishment which, it is hoped, will be carried out over the winter months.

Playing Field

Port Isaac Carnival – Members were pleased to grant permission to the Carnival Committee to hold part of the Port Isaac carnival in the playing fields on 31st August 2019.

Miscellaneous Items

1. Little Hill – Members plan to restore the melamine panels at this location.
2. Community Banner / Signage – in principle Members were happy to support a proposal from Mrs Caroline Cleave for a Community Banner / signage. More information on this proposed project is expected shortly.
3. Polling Districts & Polling Places Review – Members have requested the Port Isaac polling station is moved from the village hall, where there is no parking, to a portacabin situated on the hard standing at the top of the playing fields. We are awaiting Cornwall Council's views on this suggestion.

Meeting Dates

Meetings are normally held on the second and fourth Monday of each month, commencing at 7pm in Port Isaac School. Members of the public are welcome to attend. Please check our website for more details.

JB retires and we get a new window cleaner

After 16 years of toil and strife, I am now retiring from my job as the village exterior light technician. I have passed the business on to Lloyd Wren, a local lad. Anyone with a direct debit to me needs to stop it and redirect it to Lloyd,

Scott Mann's update from Parliament

The time before the summer recess is always busy in the House of Commons but this year has been particularly demanding as Members try to see Ministers, and lobby groups promote campaigns before the break.

The Camelford bypass project is always close to the top of my list and I feel like we are getting close. At the time of writing Cornwall Council's Cabinet have the bypass on the agenda for their next meeting and I am keen to see them sign it off from their end, meaning 10% of the funding needed will be in place. From a Westminster perspective, I have raised the issue on several occasions recently in the chamber, including a very clear message to "get on with it" directed to the Transport Minister. We need this bypass for Camelford. Too many cases cross my desk which concern safety and air quality and I feel that if the town is going to flourish we must get this road built.

Continuing the theme of roads, I had a very productive meeting with Highways England this week where we discussed several constituent concerns about junctions and crossing points on the A30. I was extremely pleased to hear that proposed improvements to the Plusha junction have passed the latest hurdle and the case is being presented to Road Improvement Scheme 2. I will continue to lobby the Secretary of State for funding for a study so that we can progress to the next stage and finally get this junction safe for all road users.

We have also had some good news concerning healthcare in North Cornwall, a partnership solution will see overnight services return to Stratton Hospital. The trailblazing proposal will see overnight services return to the Hospital in August 2019, in the form of a new service which is being described as a 'Community Treatment Centre'.

The Community Treatment Centre will be run by staff from Kernow Health CIC which provides the county's urgent care service- NHS Cornwall 111. The services in North Cornwall are improving after decades of underinvestment.

Meanwhile in Launceston ground has been broken on the new expansion to Launceston medical centre, another project which I was very proud to have been involved with over the last few years. It has taken a lot of time and effort to get there but I would like to thank NHS England and Launceston Medical Centre Patient Group for their work on this. It really does show you that a grass roots campaign for better services does pay off.

Parliament may be in recess but my team and I will be out and about in North Cornwall.

We started July with the Year 6 pupils attending their transition days at their new schools. We have pupils joining Camelford and Wadebridge Secondary schools this year. They all thoroughly enjoyed their days, earning Bunsen burner licences and participating in various team building activities to get to know their new classmates.

The Nursery have had a lovely end to their Summer Term. They had a beach trip to Port Gaverne and were lucky enough to have Ben (Lowens's Daddy) take them on a rock pool tour. They saw crabs, shrimps and gobies. Thank you Ben!

Our eagerly awaited sports day took place in fine weather on 10th July. Part one was in the morning with the Nursery holding their races on the field and Classes 1 and 2 participating in various throwing and jumping events in the playground. The Nursery children were amazing and really enjoyed themselves with all of the children trying their best and joining in with the running, egg and spoon and beanbag races.

The running events for the older children took place on the field during the afternoon. The afternoon started with a mini marathon of two laps around the entire field – no mean feat after a full-on roast for school lunch! This was followed by sprints, skipping, egg and spoon and various relay races. We always have a mystery race and this year it involved dressing up! This was also used for our parents' races which the children enjoyed enormously and didn't seem to slow the parents down at all! Mrs Murray very kindly organised and ran sports day for us and as always did a superb job making the day great fun and competitive at the same time. Thank you Mrs Murray – same time, same place next year? (We hope so!)

The children from both classes have been finishing their final projects of the year both in their class work and through a dance project. Class 1 have continued with their environmental topic and created a dance telling us the story of what happens to plastics in the sea. Class 2 have been exploring journeys in life and particularly focusing on our Year 6 children as they move to their new school lives.

'With clear blue skies and a nice bit of lumpy water, Port Isaac Rowing Club welcomed 10 clubs from around the region, plus London Cornish Pilot Gig Club for its annual regatta at beautiful Port Gaverne. A perfect day of sunshine and rowing. Thanks to those who joined us for some excellent racing, and it was our pleasure to loan our gig Unity to London Cornish for the day. You looked after her well!

On the podium were Boscastle & Crackington Gig Club in 1st place, followed by Appledore Pilot Gig Club in 2nd, and Torridge Pilot Gig Club in 3rd position. Well done to all competitors!

Our thanks too, to all who helped make this day happen, particularly the incredible cake stall and delicious BBQ, which fuelled our day! Mike was pleased to win the marvellous special cake, gifted to us by London Cornish - well deserved after your day-long dedication to the BBQ Mike! Cheers again to Sharp's Brewery for powering our day. Your sponsorship of our club this year has been most welcome! We are also very proud to be supporting Concern Wadebridge this year, a small independent charity supporting local people living in Wadebridge and surrounding areas. They provide a vibrant Community Hub where people are always welcome, can enjoy various activities or just come and enjoy a cuppa and meet friends old and new.'

Mrs Townsend has for many years has played a very important role in our children's education. Part of this has been as a governor and also in singing with the whole school. Mrs Townsend is determined to ensure that the traditional songs must not be forgotten. It is always interesting walking around the school during these session as any adult not needed in the hall is to be found working in the classrooms and singing along! This term Mrs Townsend has been focusing on Cornish songs.

We concluded both projects with a performance for parents and friends. As we had a Cornish theme with our songs we decided to make pasties to share with everyone after the performance. We had quite a production line going in the hall and all of the children made their own pasty to share with their parents. The afternoon was fantastic with superb dancing and beautiful singing rounded off with pasties and a cup of tea: perfect!

This is also the time of the year when we bid farewell to some of our pupils. We are sad to see 10 of the nursery children leave Nursery after the summer holidays and we celebrated their Nursery days with a special assembly for them. The great bit about the Nursery children is that we will welcome them all, as our new Reception children in Miss Martin's class in September; Hooray! We know they will all love being at school and the Nursery staff enjoy the fact that they are only next door so they can carry on watching their progress.

Our leavers assembly for Year 6 children and their families was lovely; the children and their friends shared their memories of each other, certificates were awarded exemplifying their qualities and Class 1 presented them with portraits they had painted. It was very apparent that this was a Year 6 group who worked hard, were very kind, especially to the younger children, had a great sense of humour and were great fun to be with. We all wish them well in what I am sure will be a very successful future.

This will be my final news update for Trio as I am leaving at the end of the term. I have thoroughly enjoyed my six years at Port Isaac. The kindness and support the school receives from the village is second to none. I have enjoyed the many projects we have completed alongside the village with Pisces and Caroline Cleave in particular. I am also indebted to my colleagues, our governors, the School Association and our parents for their help and support. It is a willingness to give so freely of their time, be it for planning lessons, accompanying trips and visits, fund raising or tidying up the school grounds which makes the school community special and unique.

I wish the school and village good luck and continued success in the future.

Best wishes, Sarah Duffy

Well summer is here, it's hot, humid and you can't be bothered to cook. The bbq is scrubbed down for another season and the sale of sausages, burgers and chicken rocket at the supermarkets (use independent suppliers, much better value and quality). And let's not forget the vegetarians ... hummus, roasted vegetables and salads.

So as you are outside taking in the rays, supping Pimms, you can be making the best summer dessert, apart from my Kim's lemon posset of course!

Chef Lanyon's best summer dessert

You will need an 8" baking tin, buttered well. Preheat your fan oven to 160° c

The day before get a small pot and put some Demerara sugar and some cinnamon and infuse together

Ingredients:	4oz butter	2 large eggs
	5½oz caster sugar	1/2 tsp vanilla bean paste or extract
	1tsp baking powder	5oz plain flour
	Pinch of salt	2 large handfuls of berries of your choice
		2 tablespoons of cinnamon infused Demerara sugar.

Method:

- In a medium bowl beat sugar and butter till light and fluffy.
- Add beaten eggs little at a time then stir in salt, baking powder and vanilla along with flour and mix well.
- Spread evenly in your tin and arrange berries on top.
- Sprinkle over Demerara infused sugar and bake for 40 - 45 mins.

ANSOME served with a quenelle of clotted cream or vanilla ice cream
Enjoy. Chris

Kim's Lemon Possett

900ml double cream 300gms caster sugar 2 lemons (juiced)

Put the cream and caster sugar in a largish saucepan (big enough to let it boil up but not over the pan).

Bring to the boil stirring constantly, once boiling turn down the heat and still stirring keep it boiling for 2 minutes.

Take it off the heat and add the lemon juice again stirring vigorously it will start to thicken a little.

Put into 6-8 glasses or small dessert dishes, and leave in the fridge to set.

This is a lovely summer dessert and is delicious and easy for a dinner party as you can make in the morning or night before. It is very nice served with homemade (or shop brought shortbread). You can add lime juice instead of, or as well as, the lemon juice if you would like that.

TREES for FREE!

Would you like to make your own small difference to climate change?
Would you like some free trees to plant this autumn?

If you have an area of land in our parish where you could plant wildlife-friendly and environmentally-friendly hedging or shrubs or native trees, please get in touch!

St Endellion Trees Group will be making an application this autumn to the 'I Dig Trees' programme which provided a group of trees planted on National Trust land at Pentire Head last year.

As a group we can apply for up to 1000 saplings. In previous years trees were available in the following bundles of 50 plants, comprising 10 of each type:

Parkland: (English Oak, Lime, Green Beech, Silver Birch, Hornbeam)

Large garden: (Downy Birch, Rowan, Alder, Wild Cherry, Field Maple)

Small Garden: (Rowan, Bird Cherry, Hazel, Common Crab Apple, Grey Willow)

Wildlife environment shrubs: (Blackthorn, Guelder Rose, Hawthorn, Common Dogwood, Goat Willow).

Bundles of trees can be split if, for example, you'd just like 20 or 25.

Interested? Please contact Sue Andrews – sueandrews7@icloud.com

St Endellion Trees Group is run under the auspices of the Parish Council.

Energy supplier OVO runs the I Dig Trees programme for conservation in partnership with the Community Volunteers network (reg charity 261009)

Websites of the Month

Those of you with long memories will recall that in May 2012 as the Spring flowers were coming out, I wrote in this column about the Cornwall and Isles of Scilly Federation for Biological Recorders (CiSFBR) and I thought I would come back again to how to record your sightings of animals and plants in Cornwall.

You can download some really useful checklists from their website www.cisfbr.org.uk/Downloads.html including ones for:

- Flowering plants and ferns of the Isles of Scilly
- Butterflies of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly
- Grasshoppers and crickets of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly
- Dragonflies and damselflies of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly

You can also download a list of Cornish Red Data Book species and read the book itself covering all the species that have been recorded in Cornwall www.cisfbr.org.uk/CRDB?StartCRDB.html

I thought about this as there has been a lot of publicity about the large influx of Painted Lady butterflies this year. They are among a number of migratory butterfly species that have made the journey in larger numbers than usual and we are being encouraged to record them. The easiest way is to join the Big Butterfly count <https://bigbutterflycount.org/>. This is a really nice website that has a free butterfly identification chart with 19 different species, including the Painted Lady. The plan is to find a spot where there are likely to be butterflies and moths and spend 15 minutes in July to August and record what you see on the chart. These can then be recorded either online or using the app that you can download for iPhone or Android. This makes it a bit easier in some ways as it will know your location and all you have to do is give your location a name, and then select the type of location – garden, park etc. It has clear instructions on the app, and with the chart to help identify the species you are all set.

Another nice site is Wildlife Insight which has a section on coastal wild flowers in Cornwall. This gives you a list of some of the species and also some beautiful photography (<http://tinyurl.com/7qmzfcm>). It covers other plants and animals across Devon and Cornwall, with stories and links about them.

For the technically minded there are a couple of other sites. One is the Environmental Records Centre for Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly (ERCCIS) <https://erccis.org.uk> and this also has an app for recording – although I'm afraid I didn't manage to get the login to work. But using the website (that I did get to work) you can record your sightings of different species of plants and animals.

The other is an important government body that deals with the issues of conservation called the JNCC <https://jncc.gov.uk/our-role/the-uk/> that I think stands for Joint Nature Conservation Committee and it has lots of information about how the UK is doing in its conservation efforts. It also has a list of the plants and animals that are rare and need protecting, so if you record one of these its location will apparently be kept secret. Some details are on the archived website <https://archive.jncc.gov.uk/page-3408>

Enjoy your nature spotting. The picture is one I took recently. Can you identify it?
