CARNIVAL

A fabulous carnival day was had by all on Saturday August 31st. We want to thank everybody from the bottom of our hearts for the effort and enthusiasm that was put into making and organising all of the floats - everybody looked fantastic and the procession was bigger and better than ever. We know how busy August is for everybody in Port Isaac so we were so happy to see everyone getting so involved and really love seeing everybody enjoying an end of summer celebration!

We need to thank all the lovely people who came up on the day to help with the stalls and to help with marshalling on the road. We couldn't do it without all of you. Special thanks goes to Yvonne and Ann who stayed on the raffle table for hours and helped raise lots of money, to Andy Penny and Nick who ran the bbq all day for us, Joyce for running the craft table and Abi and Katie for glittering and face painting and generally making everybody look fantastic!

There was a new trophy this year in memory of the wonderful Jill Aldridge. She was such a great supporter of the carnival and we so missed seeing her smiling face and hearing that cheeky laugh this year. It was important to Tom and John that the category for the trophy was for Best Children's Comedy as Jill's sense of humour and her love for anything to do with young people were in equal measures.

The JILL ALDRIDGE Memorial Trophy went to Port Isaac Playgroup (Cowboys & Indians)
The rest of the winners were:

SECRET'S Artistic Float - SR Hewett and Sons (Queen)

Best Trade /Business - Old School Hotel (Drum and Sea Bass!!)

Children of Men envisages a world one generation from now that has fallen into anarchy on the heels of an infertility defect in the population. The world's youngest citizen has just died at 18, and humankind is facing the likelihood of its own extinction. Set against a backdrop of London torn apart by violence and warring nationalistic sects, Children of Men follows disillusioned bureaucrat Theo as he becomes an unlikely champion of Earth's survival. When the planet's last remaining hope is threatened, this reluctant activist is forced to face his own demons and protect her from certain peril.

Find us on Twitter @PortIsaacCinema and like our Facebook page: Port Isaac Community Cinema to get up-to-date information about our films. If you have any ideas of films you would like to see or would like to help out at PICC, please let us know.

This year's Poppy Appeal is soon to begin. I would so appreciate any help anyone can give to the Appeal either collecting in the Co-op or House-to-House collections.

Last year the British Legion helped over 92,113 families in so many ways. Let's all pull together to help even more in need.

Our Remembrance Service will be held on Sunday November 10th.

LIFEBOAT SHOUTS

At 15:54 on 30th August, Port Isaac lifeboat was tasked by the Coastguard to attend two teenagers cut off by the tide at Lundy Hole near Polzeath. Polzeath Coastguard were on scene and established that although cut off there was plenty of time before high water and that the RNLI lifeboat was the best rescue option. The two teenagers were picked up by the volunteer lifeboat crew and were returned to their car. Please ensure you check tide times before you set off as these situations can be easily avoided.

The lifeboat was again called to service at 14:08 on 17th September to reports of a cliff faller at Pine Awn. The boat launched with full crew as well as deputy Launching Authority and paramedic, Richard Hambly. The air ambulance were already on scene and Port Isaac Lifeboat crew along with Polzeath and Boscastle Coastguard offered support with the casualty who had sustained significant injuries to his head, leg and ankle. With the casualty stabilised it was deemed necessary to winch him from the rocks rather than try to move him back up the cliff. Rescue 924 was mobilised and the man was winched into the coastguard helicopter and after a quick touch down to pick up the casualty's wife he was transferred to hospital. We wish the casualty a rapid and full recovery.

Many thanks to all who responded in these two multi agency events.

Fish P I (E) Competition & Community Lunch

Saturday 12th October
Port Isaac Village Hall

FISH P I (E) is planned to celebrate the rich heritage of fishing in our village and the onset of autumn and the harvest. In days gone by there were always great harvest celebrations in Port Isaac so we are recreating a sense of this with this event. Everyone loves eating together so to combine fish and community with our Harvest Lunch and a competition with a fish theme seemed perfect. There wasn't a Fish P I (E) competition anywhere else in the world so we claimed it for Port Isaac!!! We are thrilled that Nathan (Outlaw), with his passion for fish, is so supportive and takes the judging very seriously along with new judge for 2019, local chef Karen Smith.

We hope you can come and support this wonderful event again in its third year.

There are three categories:

Fish Pie (hot)

A recipe of your choice but must have a mash potato (any type) topping and fish base, dish size optional.

Fish Quiche

For those who are good with pastry. A Quiche can be made and entered hot or cold but must contain fish of some sort.

Fish Cake

A sweet cake of your choice in the shape of, or decorated with, a fish design - this can be any size.

Fish Plate

A paper plate decorated using any material with a fish theme

Please label your entry with name, address, entry category and contact telephone number

Anyone can take part ...

Deliver your entry to Port Isaac Village Hall between 10.30am and 11.30am on the day for judging. The winners and prizes will be announced during the Community Harvest Lunch.

Holy Habits, 'Eating Together'

Breakfast on the beach, picnics, feasts, lunches and suppers and all ways of eating together has been the subject of our discipleship in the North Cornwall Cluster of Churches throughout September and October. The tradition of eating together is a sign of God's Kingdom which goes back into Judeo-Christian history. Jesus lived this tradition sharing food as a sign of the inclusivity of God's Kingdom and refusing to discriminate against the marginalised. He ate with people from different cultural and social backgrounds bringing unity, healing and peace. Through food and friendship, Jesus shared the love of God for others genuinely and personally.

As a cluster of churches we have been following Jesus' example. We have had such great fun! Who doesn't like eating and drinking? We have met together in small groups, shared breakfast at the Good Morning Community Café at St Kew Academy and lunch at the Souper Lunch in St Kew Highway Community Centre. When we engage in eating together with others, we show them love and generosity and concern for their wellbeing, both hosts and guests have been greatly blessed.

Harvest Festival time is an especially good time as we remember, give thanks and share all we have, alongside praying for equality, fairness and justice in the distribution of food and for the farmers, fisher people and all who grow and manufacture our food. Perhaps during this harvest season of plenty we might extend that blessing of inclusivity that Jesus showed us? Inviting those we do not know so well to eat with us? Building community and deepening relationships with each other. In that spirit, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you to join us at any of the events and services we have on offer within the cluster. It will be great to meet you and share food and fellowship with you.

Every Blessing, Rev'd Geraldine

Hello from the new curate!

Let me begin with a confession: before February this year, I'd never watched a Doc Martin episode. So when I heard the good news that I'd be joining St Peter's and the North Cornwall Cluster of Churches as a new curate, I decided I'd better rectify that situation. I tuned in with intrigue to an old repeat episode – intrigue which swiftly turned to horror as I watched a new curate called Rosie join the village, get accidentally high at her first wedding, knock herself out on the church step and (briefly) die.

Hello. My name is Rose and I'm your new curate. I'm hoping not to get stoned or die at any of your major life events.

Port Isaac is a new part of Cornwall for me. I grew up further west in Redruth, coming to Port Isaac only for folk gigs in what's now the Chapel Café. When I turned eighteen I moved up to London to study contemporary music, and stayed for a few years working as a musician and running social media for small record labels. I loved it, but after a few years I got longing for coast and carn again.

Although I'm curate for the whole Cluster of churches, I'm at St Peter's almost every Sunday, and I'll be spending much of my time in Port Isaac. I'm particularly fond of live music and good ale, so you might spot me at events which feature one of the two (the dog collar's a bit of a clue). And of course, you're always welcome to St Peter's church, either on a Sunday for our 9.30 service, or during the week for a quiet place to reflect or pray, and to see the excellent PISCES exhibitions. I'm always up for a pint and a chat, so if you'd like one, drop me a line (revrosejones@gmail.com).

It's great to be here and have the opportunity to get to know this beautiful village and its vibrant community. I'm looking forward to meeting more of you over the next weeks and months; if you see me around, do come and introduce yourself.

Julia Treglown would like to say a huge thank you to all those who supported the Beyond the Sea concert on the Platt in August. It was a lovely evening of singing from some hugely talented young performers and the donations raised will help to support the Chris Treglown Foundation Fund .

WANTED: BABY CLOTHES for KOSOVO

Do you have any good quality second hand baby clothes (especially babygrows) that you would like to donate to TIP (The Ideas Partnership), which is the charity supported by many in Port Isaac for the poorest children in Kosovo.

For those who don't know about the Port Isaac – Kosovo link, Elizabeth Gowing and Robert Wilton have their home in Port Isaac but live and work at present in Albania and Kosovo. Whilst out there they saw how deprived some of the families were, especially the women and children and they sought to make a change. Their charity has attracted royal visitors and support, namely from Prince Charles and Camilla. Port Isaac has been very generous over the years in supporting this charity.

With your generous support we are hoping to send out a consignment of baby blankets and baby clothes this winter. Please drop any donations in to Port Isaac Pottery or give us a ring and we will come and collect: 01208 880703/625.

Thank you!

Planning Applications

Members considered these planning applications and made the following responses to Cornwall Council:

1. PA19/04977, Cloud Nine, Trelights – proposed extension to provide additional bedroom with en-suite on first floor and storeroom on ground floor. New plans had been submitted. There were further objections from the ANOB. Members maintained their objection in line with the AONB comment.
2. PA19/06637, 1 Castle Rock, Port Isaac – garden room extension to front and bedroom extension to side. Cllr. Williams read an objection from a neighbour but added she did not believe there were grounds for objection. Members made no comment.
3. PA19/07104, Stargazy Inn, 1 The Terrace, Port Isaac – proposed works to the Stargazy Inn site along with new extensions and first floor terraced area with variation of condition 2 of PA18/01173. Members objected on the grounds of lack of a parking assessment.
4. PA19/02261/PREAPP, Stargazy Inn, Bay Hotel, 1 The Terrace, Port Isaac – pre-application advice for the construction of a single storey accommodation block extension to the rear of the Stargazy Inn. Members objected on the grounds there is insufficient capacity to park up to 8 additional vehicles on the site and, again, Members request a parking assessment; there will be an increase in traffic in a residential area and the design does not sit comfortably within the context of neighbouring properties.
5. PA19/07288, The Beach House, Port Gaverne Hill, Port Isaac – Listed Building Consent to Raise the rear lean-to roof to bear off a pre-existing wallplate, change of rear lean-to internal layout and change of colour to plinth, fascia and guttering. Members supported this application.
6. PA19/07482, 5 Tintagel Terrace, Port Isaac – construction of a new roof structure with flat roof dormer to the rear with associated terrace and two pitched dormers to the front elevation. Cllr. Williams left the meeting whilst this was discussed. Members supported this application.
7. PA19/07120, Land NE of Port Gaverne Hotel – Certificate of Lawfulness for existing use for boat storage and fishing related items. Members do not comment on this type of application.

Planning Applications Approved by Cornwall Council

1. PA18/04084, Land S of Harbour Heights, Rose Hill, Port Isaac – residential development for the construction of three dwellings (including affordable housing).
2. PA19/05118, Summer Salt, 42 Church Hill, Port Isaac – proposed additional bedroom and bathroom within existing roof space to include extension to existing dormer on west elevation and installation of conservation roof light within east elevation.

Road/Footpath Closures

1. Between Trewetha Lane and Pendoggett Road, Port Isaac – 28th-30th October 2019 (07:30 to 18:00). The Clerk had asked Highways to reconsider the order to close the road. Members felt the use of traffic lights was essential.

Grants – Members have made grants of £250 to each of the following organisations:

- 1. The Sowenna Appeal.
- 2. Cornwall Hospice.
- 3. Cruse Bereavement in Cornwall.

Miscellaneous Items

1. War Memorial – Members have arranged for our contractor, A1 Tree and Grounds, to cut back the trees behind the memorial on Trewetha Lane.
2. Car Park – Members were in favour of changing the car parking machines to enable credit cards to be used. We will also look into the possibility of installing CCTV at The Main car park and to help protect the play equipment from vandalism.

3. Monitoring Officer / Clerk of Works – a meeting of the Working Party is to be held on 23rd September 2019, to consider the tasks for this post.

Meeting Dates

Meetings are normally held on the second and fourth Monday of each month, commencing at 7pm in Port Isaac School. Members of the public are welcome to attend. Please check our website for more details.

Scott Mann's update from Parliament

When the British people voted in the 2016 referendum, they were asked a simple choice. To remain a member of the EU or leave the EU. The British people by wide majority decided to leave and the government promised to implement their decision.

More than three years have passed, and we are still a member of the EU despite my best efforts to act upon the referendum instruction. Our Prime Minister Boris Johnson also made a commitment to the British people, to leave by October 31st this year under any circumstances. The Prime Minister has my full and unwavering support, he believes in this country and has made it his priority to ensure North Cornwall's vote to leave is respected.

Boris Johnson has already delivered on his campaign promise to me to ensure a fairer funding formula for North Cornwall's school children. I believe he can also deliver on healthcare, infrastructure and post-Brexit funding.

While I have the great honour to be the Member of Parliament for North Cornwall, I am also a voter who went to the polling station along with millions of people to take part in the biggest democratic exercise in British history. I voted to leave the EU in a free and fair referendum and as MP I have consistently carried out North Cornwall's instruction to leave the EU and vote against any further extensions or measures to delay Brexit.

There are people, both inside and outside of Parliament, who do not believe that we should leave the EU. They have never accepted the result of the 2016 referendum and have even said that people in North Cornwall who voted to leave did not understand what we were voting for.

I strongly disagree and point to the thousands of emails, letters and conversations I have had with constituents over the last four years who knew exactly why they voted to leave and what they voted for. A small minority of people have also lobbied for a second Brexit referendum, with the option to remain in the EU. The majority of people who contact me simply want us to get on with the job of leaving and do not want to return to the issue.

In a democracy, we must respect and tolerate each other's opinions and views. I accept and understand that there are people in our constituency who voted to remain and feel that Brexit is the wrong course. Although I disagree with them, their views are just as valid as those of us who voted to leave.

As we move forward and out of the EU, I would like to see our communities coming back together and working for the benefit of everybody who lives and works in North Cornwall. To do this we must respect the 2016 referendum result and implement its instruction.

I will continue to vote in favour of measures which are designed to take us out of the EU on October 31st.

Chef Lanyon gets scary!!

Every parent's nightmare is fast approaching ... HALLOWEEN! The kids are hyper on coloured sugar, over excitement and any other thing that can be blamed for raucous behaviour. This recipe is for mums and dads to have with a nice cup of cocoa (or something stronger) after the zombies, monsters and the odd pirate or super hero have wilted and gone to bed.

HALLOWEEN TRUFFLES

- Ingredients: 250g good quality dark chocolate (70% solids)
125ml double cream
25g butter
a pinch of sea salt
a large handful of hazlenuts bashed up 50g cocoa powder
a pinch of chilli powder
- Method:
- Break the chocolate into small bits and place in a bowl
 - In a saucepan bring the cream to the boil and then add the butter and take off the heat
 - Pour this mixture over the chocolate and leave to stand until the chocolate has melted
 - Stir the mixture making sure its mixed thoroughly, cover and refrigerate for at least two hours until set
 - Toast the bashed hazlenuts and then lightly blitz in a food processor and pour into a shallow bowl
 - Put the cocoa powder in another shallow bowl
 - With a teaspoon scoop out little balls of the set mixture, rolling them in your hand and then into either the hazlenut mixture or the cocoa powder
 - When you have used up nearly all the set mixture, stir the dried chilli into the remainder and repeat the dipping procedure - making a few "surprise" truffles
 - Put all the truffles into the fridge to firm up for about an hour before serving them

And how about a warming drink before venturing out in the the cold Halloween night - try some Gunpowder Punch

- Ingredients: 2½ pnts of Ginger Ale or Ginger Beer
1 ¼ pints of Orange Juice
1 large lemon, juice and zest
2 oranges, juice and zest
4 cinnamon sticks
¼ tsp grated nutmeg
12 cloves
5 Star Anise
an inch of fresh ginger, grated
- Method: EASY!
- In a large pan heat the ginger ale/beer and orange juice. Add all the other ingredients and bring to the boil. Remove from the heat and leave to stand for about ten minutes. Then strain and serve.

HAVE A HAP, HAP, HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Meanwhile, Mrs L enjoys a quiet night in with a bowl of soup ...

Quick Pea, Mint and Ham Soup

I was having a tin of soup for lunch at work the other day and all I could think was I can make better than this, and probably not take much longer!!

- 2 Stock cubes (veg or Chicken to your taste)
1 pack frozen peas (size depends on how many you are feeding)
2 pts water
Handful of fresh mint leaves packet of Chunky Ham (Co op and Tesco sometimes have packets of offcuts)

Boil the kettle and add 2 stock cubes or those fancy new jelly ones to 1 pint of water in a large saucepan. The other pint of water is saved for later. Bring to the boil and once boiling add the whole bag of peas, and salt and black pepper to taste. Once it comes to the boil let it boil for one minute. Add the mint leaves, Then blitz with a hand blender. If it too thick for you add a little of the water until you get the right consistency. Get out several big bowls and put some chunks of ham in the bottom pour the soup over. For a lovely fresh tasting warming soup, the leftovers of which can easily be taken to work for lunch the next day.

A dollop of crème fraiche (low fat or not) will add even more flavour. You can tell I'm not quite ready for winter yet!! But this will warm you up.

Websites of the month ...

I had intended, when I thought about what to put in the column this month, to write about the many small islands that are dotted along our coast. I took a picture of two of them as you can see (taken from the cliffs above Tintagel), and I will come back to that at the end. In the meantime, walking the cliffs and seeing the wonderful autumn colours, put me in poetic mood. The golden and orange leaves are really beautiful as we leave summer behind and the wild harvest of blackberries and sloes have been fantastic this year. Incidentally it has also been a brilliant year for hazel nuts and apples.

This all reminded me of a favourite poem by John Keats that I recently had the pleasure of re-reading in a very nice collection in a proper book(!), with pictures, called 'Great Poems, compiled by Kate Miles. The poem is called 'To Autumn' and here are it's the opening lines that are so well-known and capture this time of year so well.

*Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun;
Conspiring with him how to load and bless
With fruit the vines that round the thatch-eves run;
To bend with apples the moss'd cottage-trees ...*

So, I decided to explore the web to see what poetry I could find and in fact there is a lot of poetry online. A very comprehensive site belongs to the Poetry Society www.poetryfoundation.org/poets/john-keats which is based in the United States. The page I have linked here is to John Keats and describes his history and you can get all his poems. There is also a handy guide to each poem. For example, To Autumn has a whole page devoted to the poem, explain the context in which he wrote it (the English Countryside) and what he was up to at the time www.poetryfoundation.org/articles/69595/john-keats-to-autumn

North Cornwall has some authors and poets that are closely associated with this wonderful part of the world. For example, John Betjeman www.poetryarchive.org/poet/john-betjeman . I learned 'the Night Train' when I was at school and can still recall it. There are lots of great websites about him online and you can visit his place of rest at St Endodoc Church at Trebetherick https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/St_Endodoc%27s_Church_Trebetherick . Of course in Wadebridge there is the John Betjeman Centre and there is a nice history site about it at www.concernwadebridge.org.uk/the-john-betjeman-centre

Another poet, born in Launceston, is Charles Causley and his poems drew inspiration from where he lived most of his life, North Cornwall www.poetryarchive.org/poet/charles-causley

A final one to mention is Thomas Hardy, who is celebrated with a wonderful picture on website called the Hardy Connection hosted by the National Trust www.nationaltrust.org.uk/boscastle/features/the-hardy-connection . He wrote some of his most memorable poems about his wife Emma, who he met at St Juliot. He spent quite a bit of time on the coast around Boscastle, Tintagel and Bude.

Which takes me back to my picture of the islands near Tintagel. Sadly I couldn't find much about these little islands. There is a good deal about, for example, The Scilly Isles, but the smaller ones, which will have many interesting features I'm sure, are not written about. There is a wiki that anyone can add to here <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List-of-Islands-of-Cornwall> , so get writing!

The Islands off the Rumps and Pentire Point are called Newland and The Moulds and there is some information about the wildlife at www.wildlifeinsight.com/seawatching-in-cornwall/the-rumps-and-pentire-point-guide-to-watching-dolphins-seals-basking-sharks-and-seabirds

And while I didn't find much about the islands themselves, this link <https://osmaps.ordnancesurvey.co.uk/50.55762-4.92947.14> is a good place to start if you want to find the names of some of them, for example, Gulland Rock and Quies. Many don't seem to have names, at least not shown on the ordnance survey. I am sure local people will know their names better than the web ...which is a good thing!
