

Fundraising for Charities

Port Isaac Rowing Club is proud of the contribution we have made to charities over the years. For a small, self-funded club, we raise and donate a significant amount of money for local charities.

In 2008 we bought one Shelterbox

Merlin
MS Centre

In 2013 we gave £1000 to the Merlin MS Centre that supports people with Multiple Sclerosis

In 2010 one of our members was diagnosed with Leukaemia - we gave £1100, 50% of our year's fundraising to Cornwall Leukaemia Trust

In 2009 we gave £250 to the Precious Lives Appeal

Cardiac Risk in the Young

We lost a much love Port Isaac rower, Dave Wood, in 2014. He was just 29 years old. In his memory we donated £600 to CRY

In 2012 we gave £1000 to Active8, a Cornish charity that helps young people with physical disabilities realise their potential and develop their aspirations

In 2015 we gave £1000 to North Cornwall Riding for the Disabled

This year, our chosen charities are the Cornwall Wildlife Trust and The St Petroc's Society

Cornwall
Wildlife Trust

Protecting Cornwall's wildlife and wild places

St Petroc's Society

Working with single homeless people in Cornwall

We also make an annual contribution to the Fisherman's Friends' chosen charities, in recognition of the BBQ nights that Port Isaac's famous shanty group are happy for us hold when they sing down on the Platt.
