

“Roads too narrow for buses or coaches”

... One of the sights of Port Isaac used to be to watch the Lifeboat being brought down Fore Street and missing the walls by inches as she was manoeuvred round the bend at the bottom ... and then being pulled back up again when it had done its duty.

