

Two That Were Missed

When searching the Commonwealth War Grave Commission database, there were two casualties with Port Isaac links that are not on our memorial; Thomas Chadband, where they record 'Husband of Mary Elizabeth Chadband, of Fore St, Port Isaac, Cornwall' and Alfred White is recorded as 'Husband of Harriet Mary White, of Dolphin St, Port Isaac, Cornwall'. It is possible that the wives did not come to Port Isaac until after the war, or perhaps they felt they had a lesser right for their loss to be commemorated. Tom and Mary Elizabeth Chadband are Alan Chadband's grandparents, and Alfred and Harriet Mary White were the parents of Dora White who married John Glover.
