
ABOUT PEOPLE

Mrs Tammy Benger, a member of St. Peter's Church, Port Isaac, has been elected Chairman of Bodmin and Trigg Minor Deanery Synod.

The Revd. Ronald Howard was installed as Priest-in charge of the parishes of Michaelstow, St. Mabyn and St. Tudy at the beginning of October, and the Revd. David Reed was licensed as Priest-in-charge of Blisland and St. Breward at the end of October.

Mr Marcus Bartlett, The Rectory, St. Endellion, was one of three young adults who gave a presentation on the needs of young people in the church at the November meeting of Truro Diocesan Synod.

Mrs Margaret Cann, Churchwarden at St. Peter's, Port Isaac, retired from being chairman of Port Isaac Primary School in November after nearly 15 years. She has been a governor of the school for about thirty years and will continue to hold office as vice-chairman. The Revd. Preb. Michael Bartlett was appointed as the new Chairman.

Mr Charles Fox attended the December staff meeting at St. Endellion Rectory to discuss the possibility of organising an Alpha Course in the united benefice. Alpha courses involve sharing a meal, learning about and discussing the basics of the Christian faith.

Elizabeth Dingle, a server at St. Peter's, Port Isaac, was made Guider of the Year, for the second year in succession at a carol service in Camelford Church in December.
