

Cliff Cottage, Fore Street

Situated at the highest point of the original village street and at the junction of the cliff footpath, Cliff Cottage is very aptly named.

Although it is old it has a granite front wall with gothic windows (probably not original). It may have been built by Valentine Powell Richards as a showpiece - the stone on the house is engraved 'V.P.R. 1868' (he also built the 'Birdcage').

