

Joan Murray and her sister, Joyce Hambly lived at 25 Dolphin Street when they were young. They lived there with Mam & Dad and sister Thursa. They remember some of their neighbours:

Mrs Hancock at The Dolphin

Mr & Mrs Will (Cockney) Honey

Val Richards and her father at Riverside Cottage

Brigadier & Mrs Reid

The Old Labour Exchange that became The Bark House

Mrs Gummow and son Graham

Harry Bedford and sons John & Gerald

Tom & Eva Chadband and their children Allan, Betty and Mary

Archie & Ann Lobb and children Carol, Ian and Mark

Mr & Mrs Ralph and son Ronnie

Tom Saundry

Norman & Ethel Short and family

Ray & Nona Polkinhorne and children Jean and Lloyd

Fred & Eileen Bunt and son Tony

Mrs Collins and her sister Lottie

Mrs Mitchell, her husband was in the Airforce and 'presumed missing'

Capt & Mrs Lobb in Rose Cottage

Bill Steer snr and his wife Kathleen and children Ruby and Bill jnr

Mrs Remick

Mr & Mrs Billy May and son Billy jnr

Mrs Charlie Short

Mr & Mrs Jack Short

Mr Jack Glover

Mr & Mrs Will Honey and son Jim

Mrs Tagg

Annie Kate

Capt & Gran Keat and son Sammy in The Dolphin

In St Sampsons lived Capt 'Army' & Mrs Avery and children David and Anne and twins Roger and Katherine