

Flower Festivals

As a fund raiser, it was decided to hold a Flower Festival in the United Benefice, which we rotated around the three parishes. Every third year it was the turn of St Peters.

The various groups in the village took part, and did an arrangement on the various themes that were set.

One year Sharon Cann arranged some flowers based on Chariots of Fire, and another year, on the story of Jesus turning water into wine.

