

Harbour Way Cottage, New Road

This property was built in 1962 by Mr Julian and Mr Irons on land that was originally owned by the Worden family. Known only as 58 New Road, the property was purchased in 1994 by Annie Price from Mrs VM Westeney who lived in Falmouth.

Before the renovation work and carpets etc were left on the pavement, and each morning, without fail, everything had disappeared to a new home!

I named my new home Harbour Way Cottage and finally moved in on April 1st 1995. With packing cases strewn everywhere I came down with pneumonia - not a great start! However, I quickly got to know my then neighbour, Mr Hall, and began to make friends. I am just so fortunate and pleased that I made the huge decision to move to Port Isaac."

"When I bought the cottage I immediately set about gutting it; a task that took over a year to complete. It took so long because the builders spent a lot of time chatting to passers-by, drinking tea and rolling cigarettes! I quickly became aware that things in Port Isaac have a time of their own! I remember that we put a large skip was put in the driveway but each evening old lampshades
