

Honeysuckle, New Road

In 1934 a parcel of land was sold by Miss Jessie Worden to Capt John Tinney Keat to build a bungalow which was known as 'Kensil'.

Mrs Keat soon found the area so quiet, no neighbours and few people walking by, so she went back to living in Fore Street.

The property was bought by Ian & Noreen Honey in 1984.