

Leat House, Middle Street

At one time, the main greengrocery business in the village was owned and run by Mr & Mrs Saundry and their children Tom, Joe and Etta from this shop in Middle Street. Tom had two whippets that he used to race and two spaniels (Bonzo and Carlo).

In the 1930s: “The youngest son was Joe who told me many old stories about Port Isaac.”

Yvonne Cleave