

Naini-Tal, Trewetha Lane

John & Lavinia Hambly had this bungalow built for their retirement., They named it after the place in India where their son, Willie, married.

Lieutenant William Edward Hambly met and fell in love with an English girl, Marjorie Falconer Balfour whilst he was deployed in India. They married on November 2nd 1921 at the Church of St John-in-the-Wilderness, Naini-Tal. Sadly he died of pneumonia in the Calaba War Hospital, Bombay on Christmas morning 1921 whilst on the journey back to Cornwall bringing his new bride home to meet his family.
