

Nicki Bradbury, the first ever female crew member of the Port Isaac Lifeboat. Lifeboat service is in her blood - her great grandfather, George McOwen, was bowman on one of Padstow's lifeboats. When she joined the crew back in 1996 she said, "I hope other women will follow my example". They did and today there are three ladies on the crew.

Photo courtesy John Collins