

Her Majesty, The Queen.
ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE BOAT INSTITUTION
 FOR THE
Preservation of Life from Shipwreck.
 ESTABLISHED, 1824.

SUPPORTED SOLELY BY VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS.

Vice Patrons.

*His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, R.G.
 His Majesty the King of the Belgians, R.G.*

President.

Vice Admiral. His Grace Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, R.G.

Chairman.

Dep^y Chairman.

Thomas Baring Esq. M.P., V.P.

Thos. Chapman Esq. V.P., F.R.S.

Northumberland.

President.

At a Meeting of the Committee of the Royal National Life Boat Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck, held at their Offices, London, on the First day of December 1859 the following Minute was ordered to be recorded on the Books of the Society, and to be communicated to Charles Mitchell

Resolved, That the Silver Medal of the Royal National Life Boat Institution be presented to Charles Mitchell in testimony of his gallant services in pulling off in a boat and assisting to rescue with others, the crew of four men of the Sloop "Busy" of New Quay which was wrecked during a hurricane off Port Isaac on the 25th October 1859

Rich^d Lewis.
Secretary.

Thomas Chapman
Dep^y Chairman.

At a Meeting of the Committee of the Royal National Life Boat Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck, held at their Offices, London, on the First day of December, 1859, the following Minute was ordered to be recorded on the Books of the Society, and to be communicated to Charles Mitchell.

Resolved, That the Silver Medal of the Royal National Life Boat Institution be presented to Charles Mitchell in testimony of his gallant services in pulling off in a boat and assisting to rescue with others the crew of four men of the Sloop "Busy" of New Quay which was wrecked during a hurricane off Port Isaac on the 25th October 1859.