

Rubena Cottage, Dolphin Street
Yvonne Cleave remembers: "William Steer and his wife Kathleen lived here. Mr Steer was a fish jowder nicknamed 'Blarney'. He was full of fun and very good humoured. They had two children, Ruby and Billy."