

The Carriage House, Middle Street

This was built in 1989 and skilfully slotted into a space formerly occupied by an ugly corrugated iron garage.

Mr Prout used to own this garage and the bus to Wadebridge used to pick just round the corner at the butchers. He had an underground petrol store by the Manor House and when the sewers were being laid, one unsuspecting smoking workman nearly uncovered the store the hard way!