

Betty Shenton

Two of Betty's paintings: above Port Gaverne and to the right St Michael's Mount

"I have lived in Port Isaac for fifteen years, having originated from Suffolk.

I remember, with so much pleasure, the teaching and help of Frank McNichol, from whom our art group is founded.

I enjoy painting animals an, of course, get inspiration from the many beautiful scenes around this area."

