

“The Harvest of the Sea, Port Isaac

Thanksgiving services for the harvest of the sea were held on Sunday in Port Isaac Church, which was effectively decorated for the occasion. The walls of the nave were draped all round with fishing nets, to which here and there were hung offerings from the men’s latest draught. Arranged in the windows and other parts were various fishing apparatus, relieved by boats’ flags and flowers. The altar was beautifully adorned with choice chrysanthemums, as also were the font and lecturn.”

*30 November 1893
The West Briton*

