

The White House –

Yvonne Cleave remembers that in the 1930s Mrs Brown and her two elderly children, Alice and Westlake lived here. "They loved their Church. Alice was a nanny and looked after a child called Timothy. He was a clever boy and became a solicitor when he grew up."