

Waiting for Winter

Most fishing's finished,
the visitors gone,
it seems an age
since the sun last shone.

Too bleak and damp
to sit or walk,
but a perfect day
for old-times talk.

Written in Port Isaac in November 1998

by Graham Tayar

Trio, No: 183, Christmas 1998