

Vessels, Boats, Commerce

*Tamar * Charles Phillips*
*Aid * Louisa and Rachel*

Vessels: There are not near so many vessels belonging to people in this parish as some years since ...

*Sprightly * Samuel and Elizabeth*
*Hannah * Hope and Eliza*

HERRING BOATS

*Nancy * Pendarves*
*Rose * Hope*
*Aark * Rachel*

Boats: These boats are employed in the various fishing being all stationed at Port Isaac ...

An idea may be formed of the price of a herring boat – the ‘Pendarves’ before mentioned, built prior to 1815, cost with the materials, that is sails, ropes, grapples, etc., £96, and each net £5, and it takes about twenty nets to make what is called a string, so that the prime cost in fitting this boat and craft for sea was the sum of £196 ...

HOOKING BOATS

*Treharrack * Mary*
*George * Amelia*
*Royal Billy * Star*
*Edward * Thomas*
*Eliza * Jack*
*James * Nicholas*
*Allen * Treore*
Friends Goodwill

GIGS

Rose (4 oars)
Fear Not (6 oars)
Lark (6 oars)

COMMERCE. Commerce is very trifling ...

IMPORTS. The only things imported are coals from Wales and earthenware from Bideford ... Shopkeepers purchase their goods mostly at Devonport, Boscastle, Wadebridge, and Padstow, and brought home by land carriage ...

EXPORTS The exports are slates risen at the Delabole slate quarry in the Parish of St. Teath, about one hundred and fifty cargoes ... are annually shipped off at Porth Karn Hvn. A few cargoes of corn are shipped at times ...

View of the E. Cliff and Hill Port Isaac